OPENING REMARKS

workers who are here for giving us your time, we are here to listen to you and I really look forward to doing that. Thank you.

OBIAS: So my name is Leah Obias, Director of Stakeholder Engagement of DCA's Office of Labor, Policy & Standards, I'll be moderating the first portion of the program tonight. Just a couple of quick logistical announcements before we begin, if you are testifying, please remember to speak slowly for the interpreters, they've given us two signs to -- to support the process. Thumbs up means to please speak louder, thumbs down means to slow down. So if you see an interpreter making one of those signs, please speak louder or slow down.

Each testimony should be no longer than three minutes. We have many speakers tonight so I'll be keeping time, we have a clock in front. I'll let you know when you have one minute left. At three minutes, you may hear my phone ding or I may simply say, thank you for your testimony.

Our first set of panelists will discuss issues facing immigrant workers in a range of industries throughout New York City, in the interest of time, I'll ask you to introduce yourselves and we can get started. We'll start with the speaker on the far -- on my far right.

JOSE FRANCISCO: Okay. My name is Jose.

NEREYDA SANTOS: Nereyda Santos.

OSIAS DAVILA: Osias Davila.

PATRICIO SANTIAGO: Patricio Santiago.

SANTIAGO TORRES: I am a laborer in Staten Island.

(Applause.)

OBIAS: So we'd like to start hearing testimony from the speaker on the far right.

JOSE FRANCISCO: Jose Francisco, I thought I was going to go last, but if you want me to go first, I'll go first. Okay. I'll go first.

Jose Francisco, I work in a laundromat. It's in Westchester in Mount Vernon. I have worked there for 22 years. Last year, at the end of the summer, the members of the laundromat in New York City, there was a law passed, Clean, and it permits the workers of laundromats that are unionized to work in a clean environment and give good service that way to the laundromat because we -- we represent the hospitals, old folks' homes, hotels and restaurants. So with that law, clean that is given to the customers, there's a control measure where the consumers can't feel safe to not get contaminated by some disease. Unfortunately, there are companies that are not unionized that the -- the company that I have has unions, it has

1 IMMIGRANT WORKER PANEL

2 different benefits and pensions,
3 pensions every three years and labor
4 contracts every three years and medical 5 coverage and personal days and holidays
6 and vacations and it's a just deal, 7 laundry work is very tough, but many 8 companies that I have participated as a
9 volunteer from the union and I've heard
10 different testimonies from workers 11 there that don't have the benefits that 12 we have as a unionized laborers.
13 There's no respect, are treated,
14 maltreated because we're immigrants.
15 And there's no respect. I've heard 16 testimonies from certain employees that 17 they have even been -- someone has been 18 aggressive towards the employees, once
19 an employer threw coffee at an employee 20 in the face, it was proven and the 21 employer was given a fine to pay.
22 There's another company, UBK, where the 23 employers are obligated -- employees to 24 work extra hours without pay. And 25 they're obligated to work without any kind of protection and they're exposed to whatever infection long-term or short-term.

OBIAS: Thank you for your testimony, I'm sorry.

JOSE FRANCISCO: All right, I'm sorry, I wasn't aware of the time.

(Applause.)

NEREYDA SANTOS: My name is Nereyda Santos, I am a transgender member, I am -- I want to -- I want to thank you for -- to give the -- for this panel to be heard. In 2015, before I was transitioning, when I was a -- she was a food preparer in -- and I was sexually assaulted at work, my supervisor touched me inappropriately on my private parts and proposed sexual favors. I felt very bad about it, and then I was let go and I think it was because of transgender issues, which is -- so because of this reason, I went to Mr. Rowe[ph] and I filed a complaint over human rights with the City. After

1 IMMIGRANT WORKER PANEL

2 six months of negotiations, we reached 3 an agreement of $500,000 regarding 4 the -- regarding the abuse and I was 5 going to be paid in six quarters by the 6 employer. Once they were paid, the -- 7 the employer said that he was going to 8 have -- was going to be reaching 9 bankruptcy so he couldn't pay. So in 10 order to avoid bankruptcy with him,
11 I -- I agreed to -- I agreed to a lower 12 pay and so I can give my testimony
13 here. In the meantime, Mr. Rowe helped 14 me to change my name, I -- we -- we 15 filed a joint complaint and with the 16 human rights office so that I can 17 obtain a visa, and my application was 18 filed and I was one of the first one to 19 be granted a visa through the human 20 rights of the City office. I feel like 21 my story is a common one in the city,
22 immigrants, and we're marginalized,
23 jobs that are very discriminatory.

24 So we have -- thank you.

25 (Applause.)

2 OSIAS DAVILA: Good evening, Osias
3 Davila, I used to work at a bakery, Tom 4 Cat, until two weeks ago, unfortunately 5 there was a critical situation, a group 6 of workers that have worked there for 7 about 10 years to 18 years, friends,
8 but now we are unemployed and honestly,
9 it's indignant. After all the work we 10 did and the hard work we did and to 11 create the bakery, before us it was 12 producing very little work, commerce, 13 and now -- and now it's grown, but 14 we're unemployed now because of the 15 administration which is in place now
16 that's putting pressure on these type 17 of employers, and that's why we've 18 organized, to confront this issue. And 19 to try to gain our rights because 20 administration doesn't want to give us
21 anything, but leave us in the street, 22 so therefore, we're trying to unite to 23 support ourselves.

24 (Applause.)

25 OSIAS DAVILA: Thanks to all that

1 IMMIGRANT WORKER PANEL

2 are trying to support us so that we can 3 go forward and push forward and 4 confront the injustice that the -- that 5 the employer was trying to 6 disenfranchise us from. It was -- it's 7 not just since we've given our -- a lot 8 of time and lives to the company and 9 this is the motive of our fight, daily 10 fight. And everybody knows the 11 national problem that's going on right 12 now and along with Tom's bakery and we 13 were only given ten days to vacate and 14 it's -- was very hard to get the 15 documents necessary for some of this 16 processes. And thank you very much.
17 And the workers here, we're all here
18 fighting for the good fight. And let's 19 all fight when there is discrimination 20 and injustice to gain our benefits as 21 workers.

22 (Applause.)

23 PATRICIO SANTIAGO: Good evening,
24 thank you for inviting. I'm a car
25 washer from near hospital. My

1
2 testimony tonight is about we're here
3 as immigrants and we feel the injustice
4 of the employer doesn't want to renew
5 our contracts, doesn't want to give us
6 additional hours, wants to take away
7 $0.18 for every hour, and it's a
8 minimum wage, so we need -- we need
9 your support and strength as assembly
10 people, as public, as -- like all we 11 are from all of you to continue to 12 fight and to contact more people and 13 gain support as a community because we 14 need your support and we feel proud to 15 be car washers or any laborer and I -- 16 again, we need all of your support, 17 from the syndicate, from everybody and 18 my fellow workers, my fellow friends at 19 the car wash need your support and 20 there's a lot of theft in the car wash
21 business, they even steal our tips,
22 they don't give us insurance, so with 23 you, power has -- we need your power to 24 continue and have a secure life and for 25 all fellow immigrants, from Mexico, so we won't be humiliated as workers and we've come here as friends today to -- to be a force.

And, again, they take away a lot of our tips and it's just not just because there's so much to pay in our community and we don't have even health insurance, so we need your support. And to have a safer New York for the immigrants that do live here, and thank you very much.

(Applause.)

MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: Yes we can, yes we can.

MS. SALAS: I need to ask you a question for clarity.

When you're saying to take away the tips of the wage?

PATRICIO SANTIAGO: Yes, I'm asking that because they take away percentage for every wage that we get and it doesn't reach our actual wage, so they give us 8.30 and they take away 2.70 per each.

3 SANTIAGO TORRES: Good evening. I
4 am Santiago from Staten Island. I'd 5 like you to know, before the elections, 6 the atmosphere was hot, environment was 7 hot, I was discriminated against and I
8 wasn't paid by an employer. I did a 9 job for him and he didn't finish paying 10 me, he made an excuse and he said to 11 thank God that I gave him a job at 12 least because in actual, you were 13 stealing a job from an actual American 14 and he couldn't pay anything because I
15 didn't have any rights in this country
16 and even further, when the elections
17 came and that my president was going to 18 be in charge of taking all the 19 Hispanics away from -- I mean, take 20 away all the jobs that the country is 21 only for whites and not for Latins.

22 (Applause.)

OBIAS: Thank you to our first panelists. The paid care panel is on its way.

The next panel will focus on issues facing workers in paid care jobs, including home care, domestic and house cleaning workers.

So like our first panel, I'll ask the panelists to please introduce themselves before we start testimony.

MARIA AGUILAR: My name is Maria Aguilar, I come from the liberal -- good evening to everyone. The person in this public audience to talk about the rights of the workers in New York. My name is Maria Aguilar, I'm a cleaner, member of the justice for workers. We are a group of workers to organize to improve the working conditions and have justice in our job.

First, I'd like to thank you the opportunity to testify in this audience, public audience. The liberal justice is a place where we go to claim our dignity as human and workers and where we learn to use our voice to lift our value of our work and improve our labor conditions and life. This organization for workers have helped me improve my salary and have more control in the conditions of -- in our work through an agency of cleaning. In the organization we create power, this is the union of the -- that has the most organized workers. When I came to this country in 1994, I didn't know my rights and because of the necessity, I would stay quiet in my first years, I worked in factories, in restaurants, with a salary of $5 an hour. It was little, but I -- my need was too great.

After I was left without work and I found with a parade of Williamsburg, many of you know it, the opportunity that I have was to look for work is a place where the women work, stand and work for people to give us jobs, I would get up at 5:00 in the morning to get there on time and wait hoping that I would be able to find a job that day.

(Applause.)

MARIA AGUILAR: The parade is a corner where we, women who are looking for jobs, stand and wait, so I would get up early, so I would get to the stop to find a job and sometimes I didn't find work and I would get home without money. On the corner, I felt that I was losing my dignity because people were looking at us, the bosses would look at us as if we were slaves and we lived a lot of discrimination. Thank you.

(Applause.)

BARBARA RODRIGUEZ: Good evening

PAID CARE WORKER PANEL

1
2 everybody, my name is Barbara
3 Rodriguez, I home health aide and I
4 worked in the field of, before I was a
5 housewife, taking care of my mother,
6 then my late husband fell ill, I had no
7 choice, I had to secure work, I chose 8 home care because I enjoyed working
9 with people. When I first started, it 10 was tough, my first client had 11 diabetes. One of my first experiences 12 was going through a scare with her, her 13 blood sugar was very low, fortunately,
14 she had corrective measures tape in her
15 refrigerator, I gave her juice and a 16 banana and then my heart was back in 17 its place because her sugar turned to 18 normal, I stayed with that client for 19 three years until she passed. I
20 started out as a nonunion agency.
21 Working in that situation meant no
22 raises, no differential pay for 23 holidays, they pretty much paid me what 24 they wanted. I would work 50 to 25 60 hours a week, I'd get the same 7.25

1
2 an hour. I worked long hours, but I
3 only get a week's vacation. My worst
4 time in a nonunion shop was when I
5 totaled up all my hours and I knew I
6 was supposed to get two weeks vacation,
7 but rather only get one. When I
8 complained, they said it was one week,
9 I had no recourses.

10 Then I went on to work in a 11 nonunion agency that became affiliated 12 with 1199SEIU, the transformation has 13 been amazing, now management has to go 14 by the union contract. We're able to 15 get proper vacation and overtime. We 16 also get much more respect from 17 management, for example, last year,
18 they didn't pay me my holiday
19 differential, I called them and they 20 tried to explain why wasn't it 21 included. I told them, no, we are 22 unionized and you're violating our 23 contract. That differential was in my 24 check that same week.

BARBARA RODRIGUEZ: It wasn't just about disputes with management, though. After I joined the union, my organizer started inviting me to various events, including rallies, she encouraged me to become active in the union. I told myself, I have to do this. I observed how hard everyone in 1199 works and I figured, if they're fighting for us, the least I can do is be in the front lines. I had to rebalance my family's responsibilities and start to represent myself and my coworkers. Since I've become active, I've spoken to lots of nonunion home health aides, I let them know about my experience, I tell them that in some cases management may try to intimidate them, tell them why bother with the union, well, we'll do better.

OBIAS: Excuse me, I'm sorry, time is up.

BEATRIZ CARDENAS: Good evening to everyone. My name is Beatriz Cardenas, I watch children, 14 years of experience. I like to take care of children. I like to feel useful in the family. The difficult thing about this job is the society see us as slaves, we're not slaves, we are people, important people who like to help raise your children. In my last job, it was a very bad experience, if was a woman, I was discriminated woman for not having legal papers, I felt impotent, I was victim of bullying because I didn't have papers.

(Applause.)

BEATRIZ CARDENAS: They made me work many hours, they didn't pay me two weeks of work, even my things they kept. I was in a situation that was very stressful that affected my health, it was so -- I was feeling so bad that

2 a person found me in the street and 3 said, go to human rights. I was 4 scared. I went to national alliance
5 for workers, I went to a legal clinic
6 and really they didn't help me and I
7 feel very disappointed. I didn't have 8 the support I was looking for. I
9 didn't feel -- I was not treated the 10 same as the other employees and I was 11 let go. Then I went back to the 12 agency, they was different. I have 13 found people who are supporting me and 14 in every way, like Ms. Marissa,
15 Ms. Ewlon[ph] in that moment, I don't 16 remember so much. When I return from 17 alliance, I had the proper homemakers,
18 it's a group of people who train us, 19 they teach us about our rights to 20 support workers who are looking for 21 justice. This time, I feel more 22 confident, confident in the 23 organization, they gave me, empower me.
24 I felt better to continue and little by 25 little, to continue finding justice in

1
2 my case. I have a lawyer fighting my 3 case and I begun to get involved and to 4 learn more of -- I began to become a
5 volunteer of telephone, with telephones 6 and actions. I begun to find help. To 7 find help was very difficult. It's 8 very difficult to be alone with all 9 these problems that have to do with 10 work, because the -- because of the 11 society that we have to -- and that we 12 take children for the people, taking 13 care of the children, taking care of 14 elderly people, we have to be -- we 15 have to be, see a value in taking care 16 of all these people. We need the 17 support of the community, we need to 18 support the organizations, we need to 19 find cases and to find the support that 20 we should have as workers.

21 (Applause.)

22 (Foreign language.)

23 SILVIA REYES: My name is Silvia.
24 Reyes. I like to share the time with 25 children, a long time ago, about six

1
2 months ago, I found myself working with 3 a family that was very conservative.

4 These people abused of my time, making
5 me think that I didn't have a life. I
6 worked with them long hours, I worked 7 with them weekends and they used the 8 emotional to make me emotional -- to 9 make me work longer. One day I'm 10 working, I get a text message telling 11 me that, thank you very much for your 12 service and today we don't need you and 13 actually, we're not going to need you
14 anymore, at that moment, I feel 15 desperate, because I have -- you know,
16 you have to pay rent, you have to pay
17 everything, what do you do when you 18 find out you don't have a job from the 19 morning to night. I think that in 20 those situations, the employers take 21 advantage of the necessity that we have 22 to work and that's why they manipulate
23 our time and our salary. Now, I am --
24 I am part of a company called home
25 care, people who take care of children,

1
2 we have a contract, they find us
3 employers who value our work and our 4 time. To value our work is very 5 important because we take care of their 6 children so they can go to work. If we 7 didn't take care of their children, how 8 can you go to work, how can you go to 9 work, you can't leave your children,
10 your loved ones alone.

11 Now, I have a family, it's not an 12 association, it's a family that listens
13 to me, that listens to me and helps me
14 and guides me and gives me so I can 15 better be -- do my job so my employers
16 can feel confidence that the children
17 are secure with me. What I would like 18 to ask is, the employers, that we also 19 have a life, that they cannot just 20 throw you out of your job without any 21 time and that we need money and if 22 you're living without work, you feel
23 that your hands are tied. Thank you 24 very much for your time, thank you for 25 listening to us and have a good night.

3 JUANA DWYER: Hello, good evening,
4 everyone, my name is Juana Dwyer, I am
5 a housekeeper, I have been a board
6 members of the organization for seven 7 years, I'm now currently president for 8 Damayan Migrant Workers, Damayan
9 Migrant Workers is a nonprofit 10 organization, our mission is to 11 educate, mobilize and organize the low
12 wage Filipino workers. Filipino
13 workers to fight their labor, health, 14 gender and immigration rights to 15 contribute to the building of the 16 domestic workers movements of fair
17 labor standards, dignity -- labor 18 standards, dignity and justice and to 19 build workers' powers and solidarity
20 towards justice and liberation.

21 We came to 14 families were united 22 with their 30 children and 11 spouses
23 and more coming in 2016. One more -- 24 more than $800,000 wasted. I came to 25 this country because the Philippines is

1
2 very poor, no jobs, a corrupt
3 government -- with a corrupt 4 government, there are no ways to 5 survive. Millions of people leave the 6 Philippines looking for jobs in other 7 countries.

8 As a domestic worker, sometimes I
9 have been a nanny, housekeeper, dog
10 walker.

11 In 2009, I was working on a family
12 as a housekeeper and a nanny and 13 sometimes dog walker, basically, over 14 18 months, as they hired me, we agreed
15 that we -- I'm entitled to get a two 16 weeks paid vacation in one year
17 service. I never took a vacation day.
18 I asked my employer for two weeks for 19 vacation, going to the Philippines, I
20 give three months in advance notice.
21 When I return in immigration, I realize 22 my employer was not going to give me my 23 vacation day, and when I asked the 24 money, he refused giving, different 25 excuses like I am not asking proper or

1
2 that do not ask how I have the right to 3 take time off. After that, my employer
4 fired me and told me that by sending 5 text message. I was out of job during 6 that time. During that time, everyone 7 was facing financial problems because 8 of the economic crisis in the United 9 States at that time. I was a member of 10 the Damayan Migrant Workers
11 Association, and the Damayan Migrant 12 Workers Association helped me to fight 13 against my employer, the Department of 14 Labor and I won my unpaid wages and 15 unemployment benefits.

17 OBIAS: Thank you.

18 (Applause.)

19 OBIAS: Thank you.

20 MS. SALAS: I just want to say that 21 you've already said it, but I think I 22 speak for my fellow commissioners, if 23 it wasn't for you, we wouldn't be able 24 to go out and work, so thank you so 25 much.

1 ON-DEMAND ECONOMY PANEL

2 (Applause.)

3 OBIAS: Thank you to the 4 paid care workers.

5 Our final panel will examine 6 problems in the on-demand economy.

7 I'll let you introduce yourselves.

8 PIERRE METIEVIER: My name is 9 Pierre Metievier.

10 ADRIAN HUGHES: My name is Adrian
11 Hughes.

12 ALASTAIR BATES: My name is 13 Alastair Bates.

14 CAROLINA SALAS: Thank you. My 15 name is Carolina Salas and I am a 16 member of the Freelancers Union.

17 OSWALDO MENDOZA: My name is 18 Oswaldo Mendoza.

19 INDERJEET PARMAR: My name is 20 Inderjeet Parmar.

21 OBIAS: We'll start with 22 Pierre.

23 PIERRE METIEVIER: Thanks you guys
24 for coming here today. I have been 25 working in the fast food industry for

1
2 like four to five years. I work in 3 Wendy's, McDonald's, Popeyes, Dunkin'
4 Donuts, now I've been working there for 5 like five months, sometimes I go to 6 work, sometimes I have to wait on line
7 on a Saturday or on a Sunday to go
8 there to find out what day I'm on the 9 schedule. Nowadays, I'm working like 10 two to three days a week. It's like...

11 (Applause.)

12 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: It's all 13 right.

14 (Applause.)

15 PIERRE METIEVIER: I have been 16 working for those companies going on 17 for like three to four companies now, 18 they make billions dollars every 19 like -- make billion dollars in sales, 20 I have always struggled to support my 21 family, to support myself and my family
22 fighting for a wage of $15 minimum wage
23 was a big victory, but I felt because I
24 couldn't even -- I couldn't get enough 25 hours of work at my store. I usually

1
2 got only -- get two to three days to 3 work a week and that's not enough to 4 support myself, my four years old
5 daughter. We live with my girlfriend 6 family members for the moment, because 7 I cannot afford my own place. Right
8 now, I don't have a cell phone because 9 I haven't even work enough hours the 10 last past few weeks to pay for my phone 11 bill and because of childcare, it's so
12 expensive that my girlfriend stay home 13 with my daughter because we cannot 14 afford daycare for her, and she doesn't 15 start pre-K until September. I have a 16 lot of dreams for myself and for my 17 family, but I'm worried about how I
18 will achieve them if I can't find 19 enough hours in the four hours. I have 20 asked my -- I asked for more hours at 21 my stores, the manager claims there's 22 not enough business hours to give me
23 more hours per week. The way I'm 24 treated by my employer is unfair and 25 the company saying they are not

1
2 responsible for the franchise and they 3 give employment practice. They are 4 making billion of dollars off the hard
5 work -- workers like me and that's why
6 I have fast food workers trying to 7 fight to raise up the minimum wage,
8 fighting for a better workplace, thank 9 you.

10 (Applause.)

11 MS. SALAS: Pierre, can you tell
12 us, when you say you typically work 13 two, three days a week, are those the 14 same days every week or do they change?

15 PIERRE METIEVIER: Some days I go
16 in to find a Sunday I work, sometimes 17 it be on the wrong day, Monday,
18 Saturday, Monday, Friday, they change
19 every week I go in.

20 MS. SALAS: Thank you.

21 ADRIAN HUGHES: My name is Adrian
22 Hughes, and I am a member of the Retail
23 Action Project of workers, and I work
24 retail wholesale, at RAP, we're very 25 concerned about what the current

1
2 political climate in Washington means
3 for retail workers and for all workers, 4 the growing retail work force is one in 5 nine workers nationally faces an ever
6 increasing obstacle, not just with low
7 wages, but also with few benefits,
8 unfair scheduling and underemployment
9 and disrespect. This type of grievance 10 in retail is often justified by the 11 claim that retail is a low skill job, 12 yet our members at RAP would be glad to 13 tell you about the sharpness of our 14 logistics and our planning skills that 15 come from having to juggle a full life
16 and raise families without a reliable 17 schedule and paycheck, how skilled we 18 are at making $250 a week magically 19 stretch for a week and a half, and how 20 we manage the fast-paced physical 21 demanding multitasking and customized
22 setting of the retail industry smiling 23 in the face of constant rudeness and 24 lack of appreciation, retail requires
25 significant patience and emotional

ON-DEMAND ECONOMY PANEL

1 intelligence and it's stressful dealing 2 with all these customers just looking 3 for retail therapy and experience -- 4 and experience that our low pay and 5 unreliable hours rarely afford us. I
6 came to RAP after four years of working 7 in the food and retail industry, my 8 spirit was broken, I had never had a 9 vacation, whatever hours were asked of 10 me, I worked without giving it a second 11 thought. I never felt appreciated.
12 Hiring managers took advantage of me
13 and paid me hourly. In the summer of 14 2014, my general manager came to the 15 job to evaluate me, but his critical 16 assessment started to antagonize the 17 situation, and I wound up having a 18 panic attack. Sometime later, I was 19 running late to where our cart was 20 located on the South Street Seaport and 21 the propane that was there to prepare 22 our coffee was running, but had not 23 been pre-lit and as -- as was company
24 policy. In my rush to get things set 25

1
2 up, I was not only inhaling huge
3 amounts of propane and I lit the pilot,
4 taking a blast of fire to my arm all 5 the way up to my elbow, even as I had 6 wanted to shut the propane off, it was 7 impossible because the lever was 8 jammed, which I had -- advance. I was 9 hospitalized and upon attempting to 10 return to work, I was gradually pushed 11 out, being told that, you know, these 12 are my days of work, but every time I 13 called an operation manager, they were 14 like, the truck is not out, the truck
15 isn't out, which is confusing me. In 16 the end, I was pushed off the schedule 17 altogether without even a word of 18 explanation. It was demoralizing and 19 inhumane and given the way that I
20 prepared to put myself on the line.
21 You know, you don't expect these kind 22 of things when you get hired in any 23 establishment and you would hope that 24 whoever hires you has enough respect to 25 put your safety first knowing that

1
2 you're pushing their product and
3 because the organization that I'm a 4 part of they allowed us -- they've 5 given us the knowledge to be confident 6 and stand up for ourself and know what 7 our rights are and I'm really grateful
8 for that. Thank you.

9 (Applause.)

10 ALASTAIR BATES: Good evening. My 11 name is Alastair Bates, I'm a member of 12 the Writers Guild of America East.
13 Industrywide organizing committee for 14 nonfiction television, I'm a writer and 15 producer with more than 30 years
16 experience in the industry, I've worked 17 for the networks and for many different 18 independent production companies,
19 primarily in nonfiction and true crime.
20 More recently, I was a supervisory 21 producer and an executive producer and 22 show runner for the crime series Redrum 23 that aired for three years on 24 Investigation Discovery. Over the past 25 20 years, nonfiction television has

1 boomed in the City. Nonfiction TV now
2 employs thousands of creative
3 professionals here, but true crime
4 shows and reality TV have been a big 5 slice of production and postproduction
6 here in New York, international 7 companies and investors have taken 8 note, a major production company in 9 this sector, Leftfield, was recently
10 sold for $360 million to the UK
11 conglomerate ITV Studios. However,
12 unlike so-called scripted television,
13 nonfiction TV is largely nonunion and 14 thus, not regulated by collective 15 bargaining. While the industry has 16 been enormously profitable for the 17 cable networks and the production 18 companies, the average wages for the 19 people who actually make the shows, the 20 producers and associate producers, as 21 well as production coordinators and 22 assistants, have stagnated or 23 effectively declined over the last 24 several years, especially when you 25

ON-DEMAND ECONOMY PANEL

1
2 factor in the rising costs of living in 3 the City.

4 As the trend continues towards the 5 so-called economy, people in the 6 nonfiction industry have not only seen 7 their wages stagnate, but other basic 8 benefits eroded or simply withdrawn
9 altogether. Despite its growing
10 presence on the New York media
11 landscape, nonfiction television has 12 received little regulatory oversight.
13 The reality about reality television
14 and much of nonfiction is that it's a 15 race to the bottom. The production 16 companies claim they must do more with 17 less, while networks like A&E take no
18 responsibility for wages and working 19 conditions in the industry and point to 20 the production companies. To name some 21 of the more egregious practices that 22 are commonly in the industry,
23 production companies eagerly fill in 24 timecards for employees and make their 25 hires regularly work for way longer

1
2 than an eight-hour day, also on 3 weekends without compensating them for 4 overtime. In a recent guild survey of 5 workers in the industry, 76 percent
6 said they work more than 40 hours a 7 week, in a week every week, 84 said
8 receive no overtime pay at all, and 9 62 percent said their timecards never 10 reflected the actual hours they worked,
11 this is called wage theft. Okay.

12 Occupational health and safety
13 standards have been routinely ignored
14 and production companies have failed to 15 notify their hires that even as 16 freelancers, they're entitled to sick
17 leave. So these are just some of the 18 issues. People moving from TV gig to 19 TV gig do not have adequate protection 20 from the worst practices of the 21 production companies and as more and 22 more people move into these economy
23 jobs in television, we need to 24 establish the ground rules for a better
25 working environment and a sustainable

1
2 industry, we think that should include
3 agreed minimum rates of pay for the 4 basic job categories, overtime, paid
5 sick leave, strict health and safety
6 compliance and employer healthcare
7 contributions.

8 OBIAS: Thank you.

9 (Applause.)

10 CARLENA SALAS: My name is Carlenna
11 Salas, and I've been working as a 12 freelance marketing consultant over the 13 last eight years, overall, I've had a 14 very positive experience being a
15 freelance creator, but I have learned
16 the hard way, with few laws protecting 17 freelance work, that things can easily
18 go wrong. I'm currently in small 19 claims court in the litigation process
20 against the Chelsea Dental Group who 21 owes me 3500, even though we agreed on 22 scope of work, the client refused to 23 pay until the project was completed.
24 The job was delivered one year ago and 25 despite completing the work, I wasn't

1
2 paid in full, so now I find myself in 3 court, not having a contract is a huge 4 disadvantage, because I kept detailed 5 records, as you can see here, I can 6 prove that we had an agreement in 7 court. However, having a mandatory
8 contract would greatly help me win my 9 case and avoiding these types of 10 conditions to begin with. Because 11 using a contract is often not standard 12 practice, many freelancers lack the 13 power in the relationship from the 14 start. Losing a 3500 payment would be 15 difficult for anyone, regardless of 16 their overall income. As a result of 17 this nonpayment and the additional 18 1500, I have paid out in legal fees, I
19 had to forego several expenses,
20 including the purchase of a computer I
21 needed for work. Because of this, I
22 have had to use my emergency savings 23 which has been depleted to make up for 24 the lost income and time spent in my 25 court case. My court experience has

1
2 been emotionally taxing and exhausting,
3 due to New York City Civil Court,
4 208.41(f) costs detailed in the 2016
5 civil practice annual, I was forced to 6 fire my lawyer and represent myself in 7 court. Representing myself is one of 8 the many ways the client -- the 9 client's attorney has tried to trick me
10 inside and out of the court. I need a 11 lawyer to train me in how to 12 communicate with client's attorney and 13 get email, how to litigate in court and 14 how not to let my difficult emotions
15 get to me in a stressful situation.
16 All the clients that I work with have 17 lawyers that represent their 18 businesses, it's cheaper to send their 19 lawyer as a way to intimidate me from 20 representing myself and encourage me to 21 drop the case altogether. If my lawyer 22 were to show up in court along with the 23 client attorney, my case would be sent 24 to civil court without a hearing, I
25 would then be required to pay

1
2 additional fees required for civil 3 court. I'm due back in court next 4 week; however, the client attorney for 5 the third time is requesting to 6 reschedule the hearing, this time he's 7 rescheduling it to September, to add 8 insult to injury, the client left for 9 Paris for a get-away the week my 10 payment was due claiming they have been 11 under financial hardship and is 12 requesting that any payment be made
13 over two years of monthly installments.
14 As a freelancer on multiple gigs, you
15 must constantly be looking for new work
16 and saving for possible dry spells,
17 unpredictable income is challenging 18 when dealing with monthly bills and 19 even worse when clients don't pay on 20 time. 71 percent of freelancers are 21 losing an average of 6,000 a year, when 22 asked about how they got by, 44 percent
23 of freelancers said they ran up credit 24 card debts and 7 percent rely on 25 government assistance.

For these reasons, on behalf of the freelancers so freelancers get paid what they deserve, they would be able to seek attorney's fees and the clients would face all the damages, this is an essential protection, if I receive an award, it won't cover the time spent preparing for court, my legal fees and the emotional distress this experience has cost.

OBIAS: Thank you.

(Applause.)

OSWALDO MENDOZA: Good evening. First of all, and with your permission, I would like to have a moment of silence in memory of Jose Cruz, 51 years old, he passed away two weeks ago in Times Square from a construction accident because of negligence of an employer, and definitely could have been avoided.

(Moment of silence.)

OSWALDO MENDOZA: Thank you.

Oswaldo Mendoza. I'm the leader of the

1
2 NICE organization for three years,
3 actually, I live in the Bronx, and I've 4 been invited here to give testimony
5 regarding the abuses regarding workers
6 of construction.

7 The industry I belong to, in 2003,
8 I had an accident, a construction
9 accident and I'm still in treatment and 10 there's a 90 percent chance that I will 11 have to be operated on the hip, the 12 spine, and I'm not the only one who 13 suffered such an accident be it through 14 negligence of the employer. However, I 15 am sure that we will, as an 16 organization and institutions still do
17 as much as possible to reduce this 18 abuse. We should be conscious that 19 there's always been exploitation
20 regarding employers towards immigrant 21 workers. The only thing they seek for 22 is decent work and especially in the 23 times we're living in. And right now,
24 these types of employers feel more
25 empowered and they will do whatever

1
2 they wish irregardless of consequences
3 since they don't care about their 4 minimal fee or change the company
5 without a problem later on.

6 So as part of NICE, I have -- I
7 have been part of many cases regarding 8 labor law abuse and violations of 9 health. NICE organization, we've 10 combatted these types of cases, there
11 are many victim ins many cases like 12 this.

13 In 2016, NICE took 130 cases
14 regarding wage theft and this year, we 15 have launched app and it's a tool to 16 protect our communities of workers.
17 NICE also gives training for workers
18 regarding construction and last year,
19 NICE empowered more workers and has 20 tried to launch more trainings for 21 workers. However, it's not enough.
22 Last year, 55 years were reported of 23 death of constructions -- of 24 construction work and these were 25 immigrant workers. We are trying to

1 reform this as a part of NICE and 2 regarding how these contractors gain 3 licenses and try to figure out how they 4 apply to their -- their wage -- 5 stealing from employees.
6

7 I'm here today to tell you that we 8 need more protection from these types 9 of employers that are only seeking to 10 enrich themselves through our effort as 11 immigrant workers.

12 OBIAS: Thank you.

13 (Applause.)

14 OBIAS: Thank you.

15 INDERJEET PARMAR: I'm talking on 16 behalf of Inder Parmer, an Uber driver,
17 again, this is a story about Uber 18 driver, this is the message from an 19 Uber driver about their friends, about 20 their family, about this Inder Parmer
21 own family, so I am reading on behalf 22 of him, he's not coming today, that's 23 the reason he asked me to read it.

24 My name is Inder Parmer, I have 25 been driving for Uber since 2013 and I

1
2 am a member of New York Taxi Workers
3 Alliance, when I started driving for 4 Uber, I was paid $3 per mile, again, $3
5 per mile, their commission was only
6 ten-person, now they are paying $1.75
7 per mile, Uber has raised its 8 commission 25 percent. My expense have 9 been going down, but I have lost 10 50 percent of my income. I used to 11 work 60 hours per week and was able to 12 put good food on the table for my 13 family. Now I work 70 or 80 hours a 14 week and can't barely cover my expense.
15 I have two kids in college, a daughter 16 who is getting her MBA and a son who is 17 getting his bachelor degree, I am so 18 proud of my children and I like to be 19 able to help them pursue their 20 education, but I can barely cover the 21 cost of my own bills and sometimes fall
22 behind because I make so little money
23 now. I have no money left over to 24 offer them.

25 Uber consider me as a part-time

1
2 driver, even though I work 70 to 3 80 hours a week. Tell me, how many 4 hours do I have to work to be 5 considered full-time. Many weeks I
6 have earned below minimum wage,
7 sometimes a little after 3 or $4 per 8 hour. Uber even takes a sale tax out 9 of my pay instead of adding it to the 10 customer fare like they are supposed 11 to, Uber tell me who to pick up, where 12 and when, and yet, they tell me I'm an 13 independent contractor and say they do 14 not have to pay me minimum wage or 15 cover any expense. I pay for gas, I
16 pay out of my pocket and when I'm 17 driving eight hours looking for 18 passengers because Uber has flooded the 19 street with so many people, I earn
20 nothing for that time. What are I 21 facing now are inhumane, no one should 22 have to work so many hours for below 23 minimum wage and unable to support our 24 family. Uber treat us like we are 25 machine, not human being, but we are

OPEN TESTIMONY

1
2 human being and we deserve right to -- 3 right of job, Uber should follow the 4 law and treat us as employee instead of 5 expendable contractor with no
6 guaranteed income. Thank you so much.

7 (Applause.)

8 MS. SALAS: Thank you, again, to 9 this panel. You raised so many 10 important issues in varying industries
11 and this administration is already 12 working to address some of these 13 issues, but we can see that there's 14 still a lot more to be done. Thank 15 you. Thank you so much.

16 (Applause.)

17 OBIAS: That concludes the 18 panel portion of our program tonight.
19 We want to thank all of our panelists
20 again.

21 (Applause.)

22 OBIAS: For all of your 23 preparation and courage to come out and 24 testify tonight.

25 For the open testimony portion of

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 our evening, I will now turn it over to 3 the OLPS legal director, Jill Maxwell.

4 MS. MAXWELL: Hi everybody, thanks
5 to all the panelists so far, it's been 6 a really, really great evening and I
7 want to keep the momentum going, I'm 8 assuming we're pretty much on time, but 9 we have a lot of testimony to still get 10 through, so I'm going to keep us to our 11 three minutes limit on testimony and 12 you'll see me hold up this sign when 13 you have one minute left and I'm going 14 to rudely interrupt you when the time
15 is up and we'll go on to the next 16 person. I'll be calling people up in 17 groups of three to make this as 18 efficient as possible, so you can line 19 up at the microphones that are at the 20 end of the aisles here, and what I'm 21 going to do is actually call the first 22 three people up and after two people
23 go, I'm going to call the next three 24 people up so that we can really keep 25 this moving because we do not have that

1
2 much time left considering how many 3 things we need to get through.

4 Okay. So the first three people,
5 please line up at the microphones,
6 Rodney Stiles, Norman Echovari -- 7 sorry, I'll apologize in advance for 8 butchering everybody's names -- and 9 Sara Ziff and please, when you begin 10 your testimony, just introduce 11 yourself.

12 RODNEY STILES: Good evening
13 everyone. My name is Rodney Stiles, I 14 am the assistant commissioner of the 15 policy and external affairs division at 16 the Taxi and Limousine Commission.
17 First off, I want to thank everyone for 18 sharing their stories tonight and also 19 thank Commissioner Salas and Malalis
20 and Maria Sanchez for hosting this 21 event tonight. TLC is responsible for 22 sponsoring for-hire transportation in 23 New York City, including the companies
24 and the drivers, TLC currently licenses 25 over 160,000 drivers and a vast

OPEN TESTIMONY

1 majority of these drivers are 2 classified as independent contractors.
3 The number of licensed drivers has 4 grown substantially in the last few 5 years with the rise of pace car
6 services, like Uber and Lyft. In 7 addition, 91 percent of our licensed 8 drivers are immigrants, driving for 9 hire has historically been a pathway
10 for new immigrants to make a reasonable
11 living in the City, but with the growth 12 in the number of drivers, we have 13 increasingly heard concerns that wages
14 may be falling, TLC recently held an 15 overflowing public hearing on April 6th
16 about economics in the for-hire
17 industries. 80 people spoke, about 18 2,000 watched in person or via live
19 stream and over 4600 people have viewed 20 the hearing video since. The hearing
21 was one of the longest in TLC history
22 underscoring drivers' feeling that 23 their income is decreasing as drivers 24 share their stories about trying to

2 earn a living driving for hire, with 3 the rapid transformation of the 4 industry in recent years, it's 5 unsurprising that this issue generated 6 an unprecedented level of interest and 7 emotion from our licensees. The major
8 recurring themes were decreasing 9 income, increasing expenses and a lack 10 of transparency in driver recruitment
11 and compensation. We also heard that 12 more drivers have entered into leasing 13 agreements that further reduce their 14 income.

15 We took a first step in addressing 16 concerns around driver earnings last 17 week in responding affirmatively to a
18 petition from the Independent Drivers
19 Guild for a tipping option within the 20 app, since passengers wishing to tip
21 their drivers today must do so in cash 22 and since tips can sometimes be 23 critical to a driver covering their 24 expenses and netting profit. We 25 understand that opening up access for

1
2 tips to drivers is only one small means 3 of addressing drivers' income and we 4 will continue to research issues around 5 driver economics, we look forward to 6 hearing comments from drivers at this 7 hearing and other workers who have come
8 to identify issues on workers' rights.
9 We also look forward to working with 10 your agencies to develop reasonable 11 policies to ensure protection of 12 workers' rights. Thank you again for 13 the opportunity to speak publicly on 14 issues today.

15 (Applause.)

16 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you.

17 NORMAN ECHAVARI: Hello, my name is 18 Norman Echavari, and I'm a wheelchair
19 attendant at La Guardia airport. I
20 work for the airline. This company
21 broke the law in all the ways. First 22 of all, they stole our salary because 23 they don't pay the minimum wages, they 24 have a long history about that, they 25 pay the minimum wages for overtime,

1
2 they stole our salaries. In the second
3 one, they have long, long list of -- 4 they don't have protection, they don't 5 have -- we don't have insurance, and 6 they treat us like slaves, they don't 7 give us trainings and they will -- when 8 we do our job, they call the personnel, 9 the wheelchair attendants, sometimes we 10 have to push the wheelchairs at the 11 same time, there's no safety and they 12 have a lot of violations, the OSHA,
13 they have a lot of for the OSHA,
14 because they broke the law and 15 50 percent of the workers in the 16 airport has to apply for public
17 benefits, because the salaries over 18 there is the minimum wages and they cut 19 the hours, they cut the people, they 20 want to give us agreement, we work in a 21 dangerous place, you know, two years
22 ago and last year, somebody shooting
23 people in the -- they find the bombs in 24 there, so there's no safety place for 25 work, we don't have nothing, we don't

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 have any benefits. They cut out
3 vacation time, they cut out one week
4 for sick time, when you call up, like 5 time for vacation, so we don't have our 6 sick time, so they broke the law for 7 all the ways. So we like you here to 8 help us and thank you for listening to 9 our testimonies and please continue
10 work for us, we need you. Thanks.

11 (Applause.)

12 MS. PAWRIA-SANCHEZ: Thank you.

13 MS. MAXWELL: I'm sorry, I should 14 mention that the commissioners might 15 ask some questions of you, so please 16 just stick around to the mic and we 17 actually have one right here, thank 18 you.

19 NORMAN ECHAVARI: No problem.

20 MS. PAWRIA-SANCHEZ: Just wanted to 21 understand the organization that you're 22 representing or the contracts that 23 you're working under the name of the 24 company.

25 NORMAN ECHAVARI: Yeah, the name of

1
2 the company is PrimeFlight Aviation
3 Services.

4 MS. PAWRIA-SANCHEZ: Thank you.

5 MS. MAXWELL: Okay. And before we 6 get to Sara, I'm going to call the next 7 three, Frank Gattie, Lorena Gill and 8 Erica Radinsky.

9 And, Sara, you can begin.

10 SARA ZIFF: Thank you for giving me
11 the opportunity to testify before you
12 today. My name is Sara Ziff and I'm 13 the founder of the Model Alliance,
14 which is a labor alliance for models
15 working in the American fashion
16 industry, I started working as a model
17 in New York City when I was 14 years
18 old and I have been very lucky in my 19 career, but my peers and I have also 20 experienced sort of the pitfalls in 21 working in an unregulated industry and 22 we endured systematic abuses that have 23 gone unchecked for too long, issues
24 like long working hours without breaks, 25 pressures to pose nude in a sexual

1
2 stance, excessive dieting required by 3 agencies, dropping out of high school
4 and opaque bookkeeping and resulting 5 wage theft. Unfortunately, since 6 models are a mostly young female 7 workforce, appears to be glamorous, our 8 concerns tend to be trivialized and 9 dismissed, although essentially all
10 working models operate under fixed 11 terms and exclusive contracts to their 12 agencies who have power of attorney, 13 control their access to finance and 14 work schedules, negotiate their fees, 15 book their jobs, collect their 16 earnings, cut their checks and sponsor
17 their work visas, modeling agencies
18 argue that models are independent 19 contractors, not employees. Models are 20 explicitly defined as employees under 21 the New York Unemployment Benefit 22 statute and many models may be 23 disclassified. Further modeling
24 agencies in New York appear to meet the 25 definition of employment agencies and

1
2 have faced multiple class action
3 lawsuits brought by models who allege 4 shady practices and systemic theft.

5 The Department of Consumer Affairs
6 has done nothing to address this issue, 7 a lack of financial transparency and 8 accountability in New York's modeling
9 industry is a widespread problem. Most 10 models have no bargaining power and 11 frequently are not paid all their 12 earned wages or paid late, are paid in 13 trade, meaning just clothes, not money,
14 or are not paid at all, many models
15 include minors who work in debt to 16 their agencies. I'm going to rush
17 through a little bit. But models often 18 live in model apartments that are owned 19 by the agency and are charged as much 20 as five times the market rate to sleep
21 in bunk beds.

22 Further, because even reputable
23 agencies in New York are not licensed,
24 scam operations are able to thrive.
25 Model agencies, unscrupulous, tell

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 young people they are destined for 3 success, they just have to pay upfront
4 for photos and other fees. However,
5 the jobs never materialize, in other
6 cases, models report being sexually
7 assaulted and many have gone missing
8 from modeling scams.

9 Modeling agencies call themselves
10 management companies rather than 11 agencies, claiming that their primary
12 goal is to manage model's careers, not 13 book jobs, in reality, it's very clear
14 to me that they are employment 15 agencies.

16 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, that's 17 your time.

18 SARA ZIFF: Okay. Thanks.

19 (Applause.)

20 FRANK GATTIE: Hello, my name is 21 Frank Gattie. I currently work in the 22 National Employment Law Project, but I 23 spent ten years working as a server in 24 New York's restaurant industry. It 25 seems that there's often complaints

1
2 from restaurants that they're drowning
3 in regulations of both the labor and 4 health departments, what I have found
5 as a server is that there is not this 6 fantasy restaurant where regulations
7 are followed, what I found is wage
8 theft, erratic scheduling and a disdain 9 for workers' health and safety. One of 10 the biggest problems is wage theft.

11 Restaurants have figured out that 12 they can save labor by convincing
13 tipped employees to work off the clock
14 while still receiving tips. I actually 15 worked under this scheme at Uno Chicago
16 Grill in Astoria, where I worked 60
17 hours a week, but the manager would 18 back me out to 40 hours every Sunday to 19 make it look as if I was only working 20 40 hours and cheat me out of overtime.
21 Later on, I learned not to do this, for 22 example, while I was in college, I
23 worked at Atlantic Grill on the Upper 24 East Side where I would sometimes be 25 scheduled shifts that I couldn't handle

1
2 with my schoolwork, but unfortunately,
3 many of my coworkers were willing to 4 work off the clock and the manager
5 would tell us, or me in particular, if 6 I wanted to get my schedule covered, I
7 would have to get it covered by someone 8 they could trust, someone who would 9 clock in a little late or clock out 10 early while still working. Even one of 11 the managers prided himself when he was 12 waiting tables that he would work eight 13 shifts a week and never get overtime.

14 I hated doing that, I hated
15 cheating my coworkers out of overtime
16 by asking them to pick up shifts, but 17 often, with only one day in advance for 18 a week's schedule, I had little choice,
19 and every time I opened the schedule, I
20 never knew what it would be, on call
21 shifts, double shifts, two, sometimes
22 three in a row, but of course health
23 and safety is not something restaurants 24 are known for. One example, at the 25 Atlantic Grill is their fire and safety

1
2 procedure, they realized that the fire
3 inspector only comes around for 4 5:00 p.m., so for lunch, they would 5 bring a table outside and then at 6 dinner service bring it in to block the 7 first exit to fit more people in the 8 restaurant, it's even worse in the 9 summer where they put a table in front
10 of the other side of the exit for fear 11 that workers will go in and out while 12 waiting on customers in the outside
13 cafe, that's just on the first floor.
14 In the small tenement basement, there
15 are four exits, one which is marked
16 fire door often has tables and chairs
17 blocking it, another has garbage piled 18 up by 6, 7, 8 o'clock and in the 19 winter, another is used as a coat check 20 area, so on a busy Friday night in,
21 say, December in a small --

22 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
23 is up.

24 FRANK GATTIE: Thank you.

25 (Applause.)

1
2 LORENA GILL: We're going to share
3 our three minutes.

4 MS. MAXWELL: Sure.

5 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: So cut her
6 off at one and a half, please.

7 MS. MAXWELL: Okay.

8 LORENA GILL: Okay. I'm cutting to 9 the point, my husband suffered 10 long-term dementia and through that 11 experience, I do have some things to 12 say about the situation, ways the City,
13 I think, could help with the home care.

14 MS. MAXWELL: Could you just try to 15 speak directly into the mic, thank you.

16 LORENA GILL: And here is what I've 17 been saying about the home healthcare
18 situation, where I think the City could 19 help, direct hiring of home healthcare 20 aides is an excellent solution, in some 21 cases, it can make long-term home care 22 possible for those who can't apply for 23 Medicaid, can't pay the costs of agency 24 care, in addition, it provides 25 consistent care, the same aides are

1
2 consistently there for the long-term, a
3 serious important factor in the quality
4 of care, but it also fosters good 5 relations between family and aides, New 6 York City could help, it would be 7 enormously helpful if the minimum wage
8 for certified home healthcare aides
9 could be raised to at least people
10 that -- for fast food workers,
11 currently $15 an hour, so that a person
12 might have to choose a fast food job, 13 rather than take a course for 14 certification as a home healthcare
15 aide, many would prefer to bring pride
16 and satisfaction that home care can 17 provide despite the hard work, but will 18 have to choose the higher pay. There
19 goes my minute and a half, paid sick
20 leave, workers' comp, Medicare on the 21 job and other basic benefits will also 22 help, more qualified individuals will 23 be able to choose a career in home
24 healthcare with these basics. New York
25 City could subsidize and expand free

1
2 training for certified home health
3 aides, this isn't exactly a workers'
4 right issue so maybe I should skip that 5 part, but the for-profit accrediting
6 schools charge a lot and often don't 7 actually provide the job hiring
8 services that they advertise, and New 9 York City registered certified aides
10 would be a great resource for aides and 11 families alike, individuals don't know 12 where to find home health aides except 13 through agencies, thank you.

14 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: I'm also an 15 employer of a house cleaner whose labor
16 I deeply value and have valued for over 17 a decade, I consider her a member of my 18 family, and I am here to speak on 19 behalf of all domestic workers.
20 Actually, I'm here to ask better
21 education for employers because I only 22 have a minute, so I can't even read
23 this, but I joined an organization
24 called Hand in Hand, a domestic 25 employers network, it's a national

1
2 network of employers of nannies, house
3 cleaner and home attendants and their 4 families and allies, we are grounded in 5 a condition that dignified and 6 respectful working conditions benefit 7 worker and employer alike. I think the 8 City can do a lot to help with 9 educating employers of domestic 10 workers. Oftentimes, there's no
11 standard available for employers to -- 12 who want to treat domestic workers 13 fairly, they're not sure what wage to 14 pay, there's no -- if there's no
15 standard, then how can we -- how can we 16 treat them with what they deserve. I 17 think the City advocacy office should 18 support robust and innovative community 19 education to help shift the culture in 20 the domestic work sector towards 21 respect and understanding and fair
22 treatment. We can connect them with 23 Hand in Hand, for example, and 24 introduce them to programs like mine,
25 Aliyah, which is a spear to the

1
2 National Domestic Workers' Alliance,
3 it's a benefits fund for domestic 4 workers and in particular, house
5 cleaners to take sick days and have 6 access to insurance.

7 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you.

8 (Applause.)

9 MS. MAXWELL: Okay. Before we get 10 to Erica, I'll call the next three;
11 Antonio Abreu, Daniel Cortez and Mina
12 Niloofar.

13 ERICA RADINSKY: Thank you.

14 My name is Erica Radinsky. I work
15 in the entertainment industry, and I
16 think we can all agree that this 17 business contributes to the local 18 economy and job market. It's 19 personally fulfilling work and filled
20 with hardworking, creative people 21 willing to go to any length to get the 22 job done and in spite of a large 23 freelance economy. I've worked many 24 jobs, all freelance, including lighting
25 technician, production assistant,

1
2 associate producer, driver and 3 researcher. Working conditions and 4 rates vary widely depending on the 5 production and the position.
6 Employment can be anywhere from one day
7 to indefinite. Companies can be in 8 business for a long time or just a
9 couple of months it takes to film.
10 Jobs can last as long as originally 11 expected or extend a few months at a 12 time. The Writers Guild has identified 13 reality TV as one segment of the 14 workforce that has slid under the radar 15 of protection and independent film is 16 in a similar place. There are basic 17 questions for the workers about how a 18 12-hour workday standard is supposed to 19 be calculated in order to even 20 determine your paycheck, much less if 21 there is a violation. You take your 22 12-hour day rate, split it into eight
23 hours straight time, four hours
24 overtime, account for lunch and if you 25 went over 12 or if you worked more than

1
2 six without a break, this is why you
3 will often have production filling out
4 your timecard and then production
5 always has to take into consideration
6 their budget. This makes it very hard
7 to interpret how the minimum wage,
8 overtime, sick time and other labor 9 laws even apply to you, and what is the 10 employer responsible for when the work
11 is for different companies on a daily
12 or bimonthly basis. Now that we can 13 get healthcare through the State
14 exchange, that is really helpful to me, 15 so please keep fighting for that. And 16 I know a lot of us are excited about 17 the steps the City has taken to ensure 18 timely payment and a living minimum
19 wage. A means to find this information
20 in one's spare time, after a 14-hour
21 workday, seven days a week, would be a 22 great service from this commission.
23 There must be resources out there, but 24 we don't know what they are. What 25 information should we collect when we

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 work a job, so that we can follow up if 3 we don't get paid, any information that 4 can elucidate compensation or health
5 and safety rights of freelance workers
6 would be extremely helpful to a large
7 segment of entertainment industry
8 professionals. Thank you.

9 (Applause.)

10 MS. MAXWELL: Antonio.

11 THE INTERPRETER: Yes.

12 Okay. So he said he was going to 13 start with a joke, and we're going to 14 listen to the joke now.

15 ANTONIO ABREAU: The joke, okay.

16 There are so many situations that 17 coincide with our situation, they all 18 coincide. You can -- I'm going to --

19 My name is Antonio Abreau. I'm 20 here for laundry workers, which I've 21 worked in 12 years and which because of 22 our status, immigration status, and 23 especially with this administration, it 24 seems like the owners of these 25 laundries have increased the pressure

1
2 on the workers causing stressful
3 situations until the point where they 4 can maltreat us psychologically, the 5 workers. What occurs is there was an 6 increase in pay, but the owner, in a 7 smart way, but I call it ignorant, 8 deducted the -- deducted our pay, put 9 more hours, for example, where there
10 were four workers, he only assigned 11 two. So those two did the work of 12 four.

13 And this is because of our 14 immigration status. In a city like New 15 York, where the high cost of living and 16 the education for our kids and the cost
17 also is so -- I have two teenagers, 12, 18 14 the girl, and 16 the boy, they're 19 intelligent, they are advanced 20 intellectual, but at the same time, 21 they have closed the door to the 22 laundry, they closed the door where my 23 wife and I work and we have no idea
24 what we're going to be doing, so we're 25 appealing to the authorities to -- to

1
2 listen to us and see if you can
3 transform the situation. This 4 insistent situation, because it's 5 impossible to live in a situation where 6 you can't buy nourishment and you work
7 very hard. We support the economy 8 through our sweat and hard labor.

9 (Applause.)

10 MS. SALAS: A question. Can you
11 share the name of the laundry?

12 ANTONIO ABREAU: Quality Living, 13 but they closed the doors Saturday. We 14 got the notice through ten workers to 15 tell the other workers that there's no
16 more work.

17 MS. SALAS: Where is the work?

18 ANTONIO ABREAU: In Queens, College
19 Point.

20 MS. SALAS: Thank you.

21 DANIEL CORTEZ: Good evening,
22 Daniel Cortez. I live in Astoria, New 23 York.

24 For 30 years I've been working in 25 New York. I'm a dad, three kids. As

1
2 you can see, I'm hurt, this happened to 3 me at the last job, at the bakery in 4 Manhattan. But before I tell you that,
5 I would like to tell you my 6 experience -- my work experience.

7 Before the bakery, I was working in 8 a restaurant on the East Side. I
9 worked there seven years, assistant 10 cook and waiter, as a waiter, the 11 employer would not allow us to keep our 12 tips and would take away $15 every 13 night and we would work a lot of hours
14 and he would be paid, I think, 12, $15 15 an hour, it wasn't -- we work from 16 Tuesday to Saturday and he would never 17 pay overtime. I told him he should 18 pay, but he says he -- he wouldn't and 19 didn't give us tips. He was the type
20 of person that would sue everyone and a 21 friend of mine at that job cut his 22 elbow working, the -- the employer just 23 covered him up on his own and -- to 24 prevent his bleeding, it wasn't right
25 and I saw it, and my friend was --

1
2 needed medical help. He told me to 3 shut up and told me to work in a
4 corner. My fellow workers were afraid
5 of him, what he could do to them. For 6 12 years I worked like that and 7 suffered like that and we tried to 8 unite to sue him, but my employer 9 manipulated in fear, instilled fear in 10 the workers and he never gave us
11 overtime and never gave us our tips, so
12 unfortunately, we only have a waitstaff
13 status to -- which doesn't mean
14 anything to -- we sued on -- in 2015, 15 my exhibit employer -- in 2016, we 16 reached an agreement with the -- and it 17 was much less payment which we 18 deserved, but it was enough for the 19 lawsuit to be dropped.

20 MS. SALAS: Question.

21 The employer threatened you when 22 the -- when your fellow worker got hurt
23 at work?

24 DANIEL CORTEZ: Yes, and he -- and 25 he maltreated me when I tried to help

1
2 out, help him out.

3 MS. SALAS: And when the lawsuit
4 occurred, did you gain legal assistance
5 for your lawsuit?

6 DANIEL CORTEZ: No, I was -- it
7 was -- it was a private lawyer at 42nd
8 Street.

9 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you.

10 (Applause.)

11 MS. MAXWELL: I'll take a moment to 12 announce the next three Build Up New 13 York individuals; Andy Horton, Ricky
14 Pimentel and Lenore Friedlaender, Pradu
15 Sigamani and Rosanna Gucnam.

16 NILOOFAR MINA: Hi, name is 17 Nillofar Mina, and I'm a faculty 18 member. I'm talking on behalf of 19 adjunct faculty.

20 Right now, about 73 percent of 21 people that teach in universities and 22 colleges around the country are 23 contingent teachers and their average
24 salary is below $3,000 for a three 25 credit course that lasts four months,

1
2 16 weeks. Most of the universities
3 will not allow adjunct faculty, 4 contingent faculty to teach more than 5 50 credits a year, as a result, most 6 have to patch together several 7 part-time jobs to have a full-time
8 workload and even people who teach full 9 load and even more than full load, 21
10 credits or more, cannot make more than 11 $21,000 a year. Also, adjunct faculty 12 are subject to last minute course
13 cancellation, department chairs can 14 cancel the work a day or on the first 15 day of the semester with no
16 repercussions and, you know, people 17 just lose their money and then there is 18 a great deal of difficulty receiving 19 part time or partial unemployment.
20 Last year, in my school, almost all of 21 the people who receive unemployment 22 benefits have to be -- were asked to 23 return the money because the system
24 decided that we weren't entitled to it,
25 which is completely unfair.

1
2 When you look at this in the 3 context that most of the faculty that 4 teach in universities have master's and 5 Ph.D.s and they cannot make a salary 6 similar to what fast food workers make, 7 you see the depth of the problem and 8 the fact that athletes are up to 7 9 percent of contingent faculty are on 10 public assistance, why should this be 11 so? Because it has nothing to do with 12 budgets, when I was teaching at Hunter
13 College, I taught classes of 70 to 80
14 students and only three students SAT
15 tuition would cover my salary, so the 16 system, the Hunter College benefitted
17 from all of the rest and we did not 18 receive anything.

19 Additionally, contingent faculty do
20 not receive paid office hours, and most 21 of the schools don't even have --

22 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
23 is up.

24 (Applause.)

25 ANDREW HORTON: Good evening, my

1
2 name is Andrew Horton, I've been a
3 window cleaner for 35 years and I'm 4 also a window cleaner apprentice
5 training coordinator, I'm here tonight
6 with Build Up New York City. I want
7 you to understand the difference
8 between a State-approved training 9 program, apprentice program that makes 10 safety for workers in the public. A 11 few years ago, two window cleaners got 12 stuck on the World Trade Center One, 13 the equipment malfunctioned, some of 14 you may remember this incident because 15 it got a lot of press, these two window 16 cleaners were stuck 600 feet in the 17 air, if they didn't have the safety 18 equipment and training, they would have 19 fallen to their deaths and they could 20 have hurt or killed people walking on 21 the streets below. Fortunately, the 22 window cleaners were trained, the 23 incident is very personal to me because 24 I was the one who trained both of them,
25 as soon as I found out what had

1
2 happened, I rushed down the scene, I
3 knew the guys that were there and their 4 families were scared and obviously 5 worried about themselves. As I watched 6 the rescue being -- taking place, I was 7 hoping that they remembered what they 8 were taught and also I prayed very 9 hard. We stress over and over in our 10 training program the need to inspect
11 equipment for proper use of safety
12 equipment and what to do if malfunction 13 of equipment occurs. As I teach our 14 apprentices and journey persons that 15 they have a responsibility to speak up 16 if they see something that is unsafe or 17 that does not appear to be in the 18 proper position. Fortunately, they 19 were wearing their harnesses, hardhats 20 and lanyards and they did their best to 21 stay calm until they were rescued by 22 the fire department, I stayed on the 23 site until the rescue occurred, I had 24 tears in my eyes when I saw them, this 25 bothers me every day of my life. Last

OPEN TESTIMONY

3 stories to his death, he slipped and 4 didn't have his proper safety fall
5 protection, his employer didn't 6 participate in an industrywide training 7 program, every life is precious, we,
8 the City of New York, with outstanding
9 category projects that require 10 participation and State-approved 11 training, pay the prevailing wage for 12 the projects that get financially
13 subsidized from New York City, EDC,
14 projects that are grant funded, tax
15 benefits like PILOT, payment in lieu of 16 taxes, or projects that get types of 17 subsidized and public benefits. We 18 also urge the City to dramatically 19 increase the fines and penalties for 20 employers who violate City, State and 21 federal laws, the most common
22 violations that I see are unsafe work 23 conditions, which is usually a lack of 24 personal fall protection or working 25 without a permit, the City of New York

1
2 should send a strong message to the 3 companies that work without permits,
4 this is a very serious condition.

5 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
6 is up.

7 ANDREW HORTON: Thank you.

8 (Applause.)

9 RICKY PIMENTEL: Good evening, my 10 name is Ricky Pimentel, and I'm a 11 laborer for Local 79. I'm talking to 12 you tonight on behalf of Build Up New 13 York. In my current job, I'm working 14 safe and getting paid a good wage with 15 benefits. It hasn't always been like 16 that, especially for someone like me
17 who was formerly incarcerated, the road
18 to putting my life back together
19 started with getting a good job, a 20 condition of my parole is to maintain 21 employment, without a job, I really 22 love construction work, but some of the 23 jobs I had were hard because some of 24 the employers often take advantage of 25 you and your situation.

1
2 On one job, I had an OSHA 30
3 certification, which I could supervise, 4 I rose quickly at the job and got to 5 become a labor foreman. My employer
6 was not a good contractor, knowing my 7 situation and my fear of going back to 8 prison, I lost -- if I lost my job,
9 they tried to take advantage of me.
10 They started with the pay. They 11 started me at a much lower rate and 12 they said -- and -- pardon me -- they 13 started me at a much lower rate of pay
14 that they said I deserved and said I
15 would get an increase when they squared 16 up the paperwork at the end of the 17 week, end of the week came, and then 18 another week, still no more money, then 19 they started reducing what they said my 20 pay was going to be, they promised pay 21 increases, never came. When you find 22 out you are working for a bad employer, 23 when one thing is bad, a lot of other 24 things are bad as well, with this 25 employer, it was very hard to get

1
2 personal protective equipment for all
3 the workers, there were plenty of times 4 when guys had to do some chopping, and 5 they would do stuff they're not 6 supposed to do, you end up sometimes 7 having to dip into your own pocket to 8 buy equipment you need to work safely
9 from a street side vendor. A developer
10 came on the job once and wanted to know
11 why we weren't wearing high visibility
12 vests and matching hardhats. We asked 13 the employer but he put us off. When 14 they did eventually bring the vests and 15 helmets and hardhats, there wasn't 16 enough to go around, what are you
17 supposed to do?

18 My request to you is that you
19 require the employers on any private 20 company that you give any funding or a 21 tax break to have to provide training 22 to make our worksite safe, to pay an 23 established prevailing wage and that 24 you do everything you can to make sure 25 employers treat every worker fairly,

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 whether it is how much you pay workers
3 or the benefits and safety equipment
4 they provide.

5 (Applause.)

6 MS. MALALIS: Ricky, can I just ask
7 you a question.

8 RICKY PIMENTEL: Yes, ma'am.

9 MS. MALALIS: You were mentioning
10 that one of your former employers, you 11 were paid a lower rate of pay, is that 12 the -- do you attribute that to the 13 fact that you were formerly 14 incarcerated?

15 RICKY PIMENTEL: Yes, they look -- 16 they look for people like that, you
17 know, they say, hey, we know we can pay
18 you less, we know you're going to work 19 hard, we know that you're afraid of 20 going back to prison if you don't 21 maintain employment, they'll promise
22 you pay raises that just won't come.

23 MS. MALALIS: Can you -- what's the 24 name of that employer?

25 RICKY PIMENTEL: Tradeoff.

1
2 MS. MALALIS: Tradeoff, and which 3 borough is that in?

4 RICKY PIMENTEL: It's in the five 5 boroughs, actually.

6 MS. MALALIS: Five boroughs.

7 And have you found that to be a
8 common situation in the construction
9 industry?

10 RICKY PIMENTEL: It's very common
11 because they get a tax break for hiring 12 the formerly incarcerated.

13 MS. MALALIS: Okay, thank you.

14 (Applause.)

15 LENORE FRIEDLAENDER: Thank you so
16 much, good evening, my name is Lenore
17 Friedlaender, I'm the executive 18 director of Build Up New York, we are 19 fighting for good jobs and responsible 20 development, we are very focused in the 21 construction and building services
22 industry, building services meaning
23 cleaning, building operations,
24 maintenance, security, and you heard 25 Danny, window cleaning as well. We are so appreciative that you are actually holding this hearing and interested in the conditions facing workers and working people.

(Applause.)

LENORE FRIEDLAENDER: That really makes a huge difference and sends a message that working people and work matters and working people should be respected.

In the construction and the building services industry, many people work for contractors or subcontractors and there are some structural problems because contractors and subcontractors get awarded jobs based on being the lowest bidder, that --

MS. MAXWELL: Sorry, if you can just slow down a little bit.

LENORE FRIEDLAENDER: Sure. Trying to stay in my time frame here. Absolutely want to be fair to the translators.

The low bid, when contractors have

1
2 to operate in a low bid environment,
3 that creates a race to the bottom, the 4 way to be cheaper and win a bid is to 5 pay less, have less benefits and many 6 times what workers experience is a lack 7 of safety equipment for them, a lack of 8 training, any ways that a contractor 9 can save money, so that is bad for 10 workers and it also is unfair
11 competition for responsible employers,
12 so that's kind of a structural problem.

13 We have four concrete suggestions
14 for solutions to the problems we've 15 heard tonight. One is incentivize
16 development, and that is the City has 17 an established prevailing wage for our 18 industries and many others that -- that 19 is at a level of fair wages, benefits 20 and training, that only applies to 21 public contracting work. It should be 22 expanded to include publicly subsidized 23 work, developers on projects that build 24 on public land and get a tax break or 25 subsidy --

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 (Applause.)

3 LENORE FRIEDLAENDER: -- or hired 4 by a public benefits corporation should 5 have to pay the prevailing wage, it
6 should include required training,
7 apprentice language so these workers
8 have a right to organize.

9 Second, there should be increased
10 transparency so when there are RFPs
11 that are out, that the public has a 12 right to know who really is bidding on 13 that work and can weigh in before
14 decisions are made.

15 Third, in our industries, there
16 really needs to be an increase in more 17 effective enforcement, there are some 18 interesting things happening in other 19 states, New Jersey, in many 20 jurisdictions, passed local ordinances 21 where if employers were found in 22 violation of wage theft laws, they can 23 lose their license in business or can 24 be suspended, that kind of thing should 25 be happening in New York City,

1
2 Massachusetts has a law that's been 3 introduced that holds the contractors
4 liable for the behavior of the 5 subcontractors.

6 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
7 is up.

8 LENORE FRIEDLAENDER: And the final
9 point is just really increase public
10 education on the rights of workers so
11 that everybody knows what their rights
12 are, because employers often don't 13 provide that information, we have 14 folders with our testimony information
15 for you. Thank you so much.

16 (Applause.)

17 MS. MAXWELL: One quick
18 announcement, somebody left a pair of 19 glasses towards the front and they're 20 available at the interpretation table
21 if they're yours.

22 PRADU SIGAMANI: Good evening,
23 everyone, my name is Pradu Sigamani.
24 I'm a policy organizer of the 25 Restaurant Opportunities Center of New

1
2 York and affiliate of the Restaurant
3 Opportunities Center United, for the 4 past 15 years, ROC of new York has 5 advocated for fair wages and working
6 conditions for thousands of restaurant
7 workers, with 12 million workers and 8 over 200,000 in New York City alone, 9 the restaurant industry is one of the 10 largest and fastest growing employers
11 in the city and nationwide, America is 12 now a country that eats more outside
13 than cooking at home.

14 New York City food service
15 industry, almost 70 percent of all 16 workers are low wage, immigrant from 17 Latin America, Africa, Asia and the 18 Iraq world and 10 percent is 19 African-American. Restaurant workers
20 live in all five boroughs, but 21 predominantly in Queens, the Bronx and 22 Brooklyn. We estimate that close to 23 40 percent are undocumented restaurant 24 workers, the restaurant industry is the 25 second largest employer of undocumented

1
2 workers, surpassed only by the 3 construction industry, where up to 4 15 percent of the restaurant industry,
5 jobs are minimum wage, fine dining 6 service and bartender positions, jobs
7 for which employers only hire Caucasian
8 male. The vast majority of restaurant 9 jobs remain low wage jobs held by 10 women, youth and immigrants across the 11 communities of color.

12 Nationally, seven out of the ten 13 lowest paid occupations and the two 14 absolute lowest paying occupations are 15 jobs in the restaurant industry, given 16 that federal law allows pay
17 discrimination between tipped workers
18 and non-tipped workers, permitting
19 employers to pay tipped workers a sub 20 minimum wage of $2.13 an hour, the 21 minimum wage of tipped workers over $9
22 an hour, including tips, subsequently,
23 restaurant servers suffer from three 24 times the poverty rate of the rest of 25 the U.S. workforce and use food stamps

1
2 at double the rate. With only 1
3 percent of the industry nationally
4 unionized, the vast majority of New 5 York City restaurant workers are 6 employed in nonunionized shops and lack 7 any institutional support for community
8 organizing and advocacy. Different
9 industries, same struggle, restaurant
10 workers are the largest group of tipped 11 workers in New York, a group which 12 allows -- which includes airport
13 workers, nail salon workers, car wash
14 workers, the recent minimum wage 15 increase left off tip workers as the 16 state minimum wage will gradually
17 increase over the next year.

18 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
19 is up.

20 (Applause.)

21 MS. MAXWELL: I'll call the next
22 three people; Natasha Lycia, Hernan
23 Ayabaca and Richard Blum.

24 Go ahead.

25 ROSANNA GUCNAM: -- representing

1
2 the home worker. I belong to a
3 national alliance, WA. A lot of us
4 suffer wage theft and labor abuse. We 5 are -- a lot of us work even 24 hours a 6 day, but they only pay us -- they just 7 pay us $17 an hour, I don't think
8 that's just because we -- we take care 9 of our clients, the elderly. We 10 represent the families when their 11 families are in the care of others, we 12 are the ones who take care of them,
13 taking care of them, doing everything
14 for them. And they just don't take us
15 into consideration regarding our work.
16 Thank you.

17 (Applause.)

18 MS. SALAS: Question. They pay you
19 $17?

20 ROSANNA GUCNAM: We work 24 hours a
21 day, but they pay us $17.

22 MS. SALAS: For the whole night?

23 ROSANNA GUCNAM: Yes, and sometimes 24 we work, for example, we go in at 8:00
25 and we leave at 8:00 the next day, so

1
2 the whole day, we enter at 8:00 a.m.
3 and we leave at 8:00 a.m. and for 4 the -- for the 24 hours, they pay us
5 $17.

6 MS. SALAS: What do you mean by the 7 time of the night?

8 ROSANNA GUCNAM: They say, at 9 8:00 at night, we don't have to do
10 anything for the client, just check -- 11 check for his escaping or something,
12 but we work sometimes harder at night.

13 MS. SALAS: So 8:00 to 8:00 --

14 ROSANNA GUCNAM: No, no, just for 15 the night. It's like $10 an hour 16 during the day for 12 hours. But 17 during the night, they give us $17 for 18 the whole time of the night and that's 19 unjust because sometimes the clients
20 are harder to work with at night.
21 During the day, they're more active and 22 we can work better with them and we can 23 take them to different places, but at 24 night, they become children, they 25 become hyper.

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 MS. SALAS: Thank you.

3 ROSANNA GUCNAM: Thank you.

4 (Applause.)

5 MS. MAXWELL: Natasha.

6 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: I'm actually 7 speaking on behalf of my colleague,
8 Natasha, but I am Natalia, so I will 9 actually cut this shorter than we have 10 written on in her written testimony.

11 Good evening, my name is Natalia on 12 behalf of Natasha. I'm a legal fellow
13 at a national civil rights organization 14 engaged in advocacy and impact, on 15 behalf of underserved Latino
16 communities along the East Coast.
17 Thank you for allowing us to speak
18 today. In general, I wanted to -- a 19 lot of people have highlighted 20 different points that we have to make, 21 but we're, in general, emphasizing the 22 vulnerability of the immigrant 23 community when it comes to workers'
24 rights considering the current 25 political climate. And other -- a lot

1
2 of people, like I said, a lot of people
3 have brought up things that we were 4 going to bring up, but specifically one 5 thing that has not been brought up is 6 also pregnancy discrimination, pregnant
7 women who are in the community, may not 8 be here tonight because they are busy
9 attending to very important things so
10 that's one of the things that I wanted 11 to bring up, but also to emphasize that 12 the harassment and discrimination that 13 happens after people have been taken 14 advantage of and their wages have been 15 taken, a lot of times an underlying 16 theme is the discrimination that's 17 happened specifically as a result of 18 people not having papers or different 19 forms of immigrant status, so in 20 general, these are -- this just leads 21 to increased vulnerability among this 22 population.

23 In addition to that, someone did
24 bring up recently, but I'd like to echo
25 it, and I think you did a wonderful

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 job, which is the vulnerability in 3 previously incarcerated persons.

4 And finally, of course, as 5 attorneys, we have to always say that 6 we think that many communities would 7 benefit from neighborhood meetings that 8 take place as a result of federal 9 government criminalizing our immigrants
10 and to these policies, we suggest that 11 the DCA and the CCHR look to 12 participate in them, it even hosts 13 legal clinics where needed to ensure 14 that immigrant workers are gaining 15 access to the information and 16 resources.

17 Thank you very much.

18 MS. MALALIS: Can I just ask you a 19 question, what kind of stories are you
20 hearing with regards to pregnancy
21 discrimination, what are the common
22 scenarios?

23 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC:

24 Unfortunately, this was Natasha's
25 testimony, but I believe that pregnancy

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 discrimination, people not being able 3 to come back for employment or being 4 let go as a result of pregnancy.

5 MS. MALALIS: Which industries, do
6 you know?

7 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: I don't.

8 MS. MALALIS: Okay. I'll follow
9 up.

10 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: I'd 11 appreciate that, thank you.

12 (Applause.)

13 HERNAN AYABACA: We are all here
14 regarding worker rights for New York.
15 My name is Hernan Ayabaca. I am a 16 construction worker and member of 17 project laborers justice. Thank you 18 for giving us the opportunity to 19 testify publicly. Talking years back,
20 I was looking -- I was 117th Street,
21 Northern Boulevard looking for work,
22 the first job was repairing roofs,
23 roofs at homes, rooftops, dangerous
24 work. It would be a hundred dollars a 25 day. It's not always stable either.

1
2 Sometimes there's little work and 3 there's a lot of people waiting for 4 work. Another occasion, the employer
5 hired me as an assistant and said he 6 would pay me $60 a day, but afterwards,
7 he would return me back to the corner
8 saying that he would pay me the day
9 after, but he never paid me.

10 On the corner, you're always afraid
11 and unsure. It's very dangerous. It's 12 dangerous work and dirty work and no
13 one wants to do it. But necessity
14 obliges us to do it. It's bad work.
15 It's low pay and very risky and risky
16 to your health. This is a daily
17 experience with workers of construction
18 that live in New York. A lot of times
19 we feel that the employers have more 20 rights than the workers and that 21 they -- they create a system to evade 22 their responsibilities, especially in 23 the construction field. We're -- and a 24 lot of the times we don't even know who 25 our employer actually is.

2 A lot of our employers looks at us
3 as disposable and as inhuman. What I
4 would like to see is the City to work
5 with our center to help make these 6 companies pay for their 7 responsibilities and pay and with 8 better security measures and also our 9 dream is to have a center for workers, 10 more dignified, where it's bigger and 11 we can hold better trainings and 12 dispatch more workers. And so to 13 change this exploitive culture in the 14 construction field, together with all 15 my fellow workers, we have --

16 MS. MAXWELL: (Foreign language.)

17 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: (Foreign 18 language.)

19 RICHARD BLUM: Good evening,
20 Richard Blum, speaking on behalf of 21 Legal Aid Society, it's like a
22 homecoming here. I submitted written
23 testimony on behalf of Legal Aid, but I 24 want to focus on two points in 25 particular, that are not so much the

1 jurisdiction of the people on the stage
2 tonight, but are issues where New York
3 City practices are very much at odds
4 with your goals in enforcing rights 5 that you enforce, protecting the 6 communities that you protect, and I am
7 sort of pleading with you to be a voice
8 within the administration to counter 9 prevailing practices and those two have 10 to do with policing practices, one of 11 which is the broken windows method of 12 policing, which is not only -- it not 13 only creates an environment that is not 14 a sanctuary for people who are born in 15 this country who are in the city, who 16 are of color in local communities, it's 17 not a sanctuary for them, and it's 18 certainly not a sanctuary for 19 immigrants who, because of any contact 20 with the police now, because of the 21 executive orders we're living under,
22 unfortunately, are at risk of 23 immigration enforcement action, just 24 having contact and having their 25

1 fingerprints taken is enough to trigger
2 immigration enforcement, so even if we 3 say we're not going to cooperate, in 4 fact, we are cooperating and we're 5 doing it daily and we're doing it on 6 the basis of things like turnstile
7 jumping, perhaps by somebody who wasn't 8 paid his wages or her wages, crimes of 9 poverty, crimes that are not really -- 10 shouldn't be crimes and because we 11 enforce heavily in communities of 12 color, in low income communities, 13 immigrants are at risk and putting 14 immigrants at risk of just being out 15 there further exacerbates the kind of 16 fear that people are living under that 17 make it impossible for them to come 18 forward to complain about all of the 19 abuses that we've heard about tonight,
20 it's very clear from all the testimony 21 that immigrant communities are 22 particularly exploited, particularly 23 abused and when they're abused by the 24 police, it makes it almost impossible
25

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 for us to do our work to bring these 3 issues of exploitation to the surface.

4 The other area, similarly, having 5 to do with policing has to do with sex
6 work. We have an exploitation
7 intervention project, which is just a
8 report together with John Jay and the 9 Urban Institute about decriminalization 10 of sex work and the importance of that 11 in giving protection to people who are 12 doing this either as part of a survival 13 economy or who are doing it because of 14 trafficking.

15 In either circumstance, we should 16 not be criminalizing the activity of 17 people who are doing sex work. We need 18 to be finding ways of supporting them,
19 as workers and to people in need of all 20 kinds of economic and social supports
21 that make it unnecessary for them to do
22 survival sex work or make it possible
23 for people to escape from trafficking.

24 The way we police sex work now is 25 completely at odds with that and does

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 not respect these workers. It further
3 undermines them and makes it much more
4 likely that people are going to wind up 5 trapped in sex work if they're 6 trafficked or unable to find ways out
7 if they're doing it for survival. So I
8 would plead with you to be a voice
9 within this administration to change
10 those approaches to policing, those 11 practices are completely at odds with 12 what you're trying to accomplish.
13 Thank you.

14 (Applause.)

15 MS. MALALIS: Thanks for raising
16 that. I'm just going to note 17 something, something that a lot of 18 folks do not know is that there's a 19 provision under the New York City Human 20 Rights Law that also provides 21 jurisdiction if folks, if they have 22 been profiled by law enforcement, to 23 protect in category under the laws
24 profiling by law enforcement, I think 25 this is a city that tries to practice

1
2 what it preaches, we really do want to,
3 you know, to the extent that there are 4 any bad apples at PD, that can make us 5 all look bad, we want to be able to 6 address that, so people do feel that 7 they -- people in their community have 8 been profiled by PD because of their 9 immigration status, in any one of the 10 protected categories under the law,
11 please do call the Commission on Human 12 Rights, 311, (718) 212-3131, because we 13 want to know about it.

14 RICHARD BLUM: I just want to say
15 that unfortunately, the broken windows
16 policing is not just a case of bad 17 apples, but the policy that targets our 18 community, that is going to have a 19 disparate impact.

20 (Applause.)

21 MS. MAXWELL: Call the next three 22 people; Maia Goodwell, Maria Figueroa
23 and Glenda Sefia.

24 MAIA GOODWELL: Good evening and 25 thank you. My name is Maia Goodwell,

OPEN TESTIMONY

2 I'm with MFY Legal Services, soon to be 3 Mobilization For Justice, visions in 4 society in which there's equal justice
5 for all, and we fight particularly to 6 promote equality among all workers.

7 Last year, MFY launched a workplace
8 safety and health initiative to respond 9 to the needs of New York workers who 10 need help asserting their rights to a
11 safe workplace, medical leave, 12 appropriate accommodations and 13 particularly workers' compensation.

14 Workers' compensation is available to 15 all workers regardless of immigration
16 status that recently found that 17 20 percent of the cost of workplace is 18 borne, only half is borne by the 19 workers and their families and of 20 course that OSHA report found that 21 there are higher barriers for workers, 22 including greater job contingency and 23 language access barriers, so we really 24 apply to CA's efforts to create a 25 centralized for workers and we would

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 ask DCA and the commission and also the 3 agencies to add workers' compensation
4 to your screening referrals.

5 Of course, right now, things are 6 particularly bad for immigrant workers,
7 even the limited reassurances about 8 protection against retaliation that we 9 as lawyers are able to give to 10 immigrant workers are now in serious
11 jeopardy. We can no longer assure 12 clients that immigration authorities 13 will not be waiting at the courthouse,
14 the emergency room, that information
15 filed with agencies will not be shared 16 with federal authorities or that 17 immigrations and customs enforcement 18 will not respond to a call from the 19 employer who has called them because 20 they asserted their workplace rights.
21 We know this is a particularly critical 22 time for lawyers and other advocates to 23 stand with workers who assert their 24 rights. Many agencies, including the 25 commission on human rights, have led

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 the way in establishing clear policies
3 and are handling immigration
4 information and personal information
5 and we would ask that all City agencies 6 do that and provide a standard for 7 State agencies, such as the workers'
8 compensation board and the Department
9 of Labor. I agree with Ricky that we 10 need to include law enforcement in 11 those citywide standards for protecting 12 that kind of information. Thank you.

13 (Applause.)

14 MS. MAXWELL: I think Glenda is 15 actually next.

16 GLENDA SEFIA: Good evening. I am
17 a nail salon worker for four years, I'm 18 here to testify regarding the 19 conditions at work in nail salons.
20 Based on my experience and also the 500 21 nail salons that -- that are the -- 22 part of the association of nail salon
23 workers through the syndicate of united 24 workers.

25 The biggest problem there that we

1
2 have is regarding health, security and 3 protection. Regarding requiring these 4 kind of standards and in actuality,
5 there are very few standards are being 6 practiced because they don't allow it.
7 We -- it's not regarding the materials
8 that we need to do our job, but they 9 do -- they do pretend to show there 10 that they regulate -- they're part of 11 these standards when regulators come
12 around and all the time I've worked,
13 I've never seen any workers use the 14 mask, which is required by NID law and 15 like hospital workers use. And if they 16 permit the use of gloves, it's only 17 to -- it's only for cases -- it's 18 when -- when a sick person comes, it's 19 not all the time that we get to use the 20 gloves. And even if we want to, they 21 don't allow it, they -- the employers
22 get annoyed, so I want to tell you one 23 incident.

24 There was a luxurious nail spa, 25 they would use the -- the files, they

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 would reuse the files, they would reuse
3 the -- they would use it with other
4 clients and other instruments as well,
5 they would reuse them, and there was a 6 case also where an employee that had to 7 clean the floor with a toothbrush and I 8 know that this is just unjust, we are 9 decent people and we deserve a better 10 just wage. We deserve it. Our wage is 11 included with tips, we need a real wage
12 apart from the tips. There are a lot 13 of tales like this regarding 14 discrimination in these nail salons.
15 When you go in as a client, you see 16 beautiful, but behind the scenes is a
17 horror story and we cannot work like 18 that.

19 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you.

20 (Applause.)

21 MS. MAXWELL: Okay. Amy
22 Plattsmier, Maggie Marron and Tito
23 Sinha.

24 Is Amy here?

25 (No affirmative response.)

2 MS. MAXWELL: Okay. Maggie.

3 MAGGIE MARRON: Hi, good evening.

4 My name is Maggie Marron, and I'm a
5 staff attorney, also known as a worker 6 and a proud union member at the 7 Community Development Project Justice
8 Center. I thank the union members who 9 are here. I just want to thank the 10 commissioners and the assistant 11 commissioners and also workers of the 12 CA who have made this night possible.
13 I'm here to speak to potential worker 14 co-ops, as an affirmative work to 15 strategy to combat worker exploitation,
16 particularly in this moment of intense
17 immigrant hostility in the country.

18 For more than ten years, CDP has 19 collaborated with community
20 organizations and worker sectors to New 21 Yorkers for work around cooperative 22 businesses, worker co-ops are 23 businesses that are owned and 24 democratically governed by their 25 workers. These centers, many of which

1
2 focus on sectors of the service
3 industry and contingent workforce,
4 including childcare, home healthcare,
5 house cleaning, services, have created 6 more stable jobs where primarily the 7 immigrant workforce is and these 8 traditionally low income, high
9 exploitation industries, worker co-op
10 jobs offer high pay, help develop 11 business skills and allow worker/owners
12 at all income levels asset building
13 opportunities. The benefits and 14 protections of worker co-ops are 15 becoming more pronounced in the new era
16 under the current president. Extreme
17 hostility of the federal administration
18 toward immigrants translates directly 19 into exploitation of workers on the 20 ground, where this abuse thrives on a
21 culture of fear and power imbalance.
22 In this environment, worker co-ops
23 offer sort of sanctuary workplace.
24 Free zones where worker/owners are 25 empowered with knowledge.

1
2 Workers have better footing to set
3 their own standards in the market, and 4 they have access to support information
5 networks among their other fellow 6 worker owners, they're not subject to 7 instability of less regular work.

8 Recognizing the potential for 9 worker co-ops to empower some of NYC's
10 most vulnerable workers, the city 11 council has invested $6 million in 12 their development over the last three 13 years, administered by SES, this year 14 alone, 27 new co-op businesses are 15 being developed through the incentive 16 and this represents the creation of 17 hundreds of meaningfully safer, more
18 stable jobs for primarily immigrant 19 workers in low wage industries across
20 NYC, at a time when these populations
21 are being targeted by federal policies 22 and survival of their families and 23 communities is made more precarious by 24 the day. If NYC is to be a true 25 sanctuary city, in simple terms, that

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 must include assuring New Yorkers ways
3 to make safe and sustaining livings
4 free of abuse and exploitation.

5 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you.

6 MAGGIE MARRON: Thanks very much, I
7 appreciate it.

8 (Applause.)

9 TITO SINHA: Good evening, my name
10 is Tito Sinha. I am a fellow
11 coworker and an attorney with Maggie
12 Marrone at the Community Development
13 Project at the justice center. Thank 14 you, first of all, for the opportunity
15 to present this testimony. A major 16 problem we face is when we are able to 17 obtain a judgment for our clients, we 18 often are unable to collect damages, as 19 employers use a variety of things to 20 avoid paying judgments. In 21 collaboration of our partners, we are 22 always exploring and supporting new 23 mechanisms to enforce new labor laws 24 and hold employers accountable for 25 unpaid wages. Several of CP's

1
2 community partners, NCP, have been 3 discussing the potential role the 4 Department of Consumer Affairs can play
5 in enforcing labor laws. Given that 6 DCA licenses a wide variety of 7 businesses and employed workers, we 8 believe DCA has the potential to use 9 its licensing powers to help ensure 10 that licensed businesses comply with 11 judgments in three ways.

12 The first, DCA could work to gather
13 information about the employer's labor 14 law of compliance from the federal and 15 state departments of labor, the courts
16 and the public. Second, DCA would then 17 either deny licenses to and/or penalize 18 businesses that have failed to pay the 19 final judgment for wage theft issued by 20 a court or an agency. And third, DCA
21 can make information about licensees
22 labor law compliance available to the 23 public. We believe this transparency 24 to immigrant workers, as well as 25 consumers who will have this

1
2 information, to decide whether to work
3 for or support a particular business.

4 In these times of increased
5 immigration enforcement and harsh
6 anti-immigrant rhetoric, we are seeing 7 employers increasingly retaliate
8 against workers who seek to enforce 9 their labor law rights. Primarily,
10 they are threatening to report workers 11 to immigration or other governmental 12 authorities or actually doing so. We 13 would like to explore how City agencies 14 can play an affirmative role to protect 15 their workers from employers with 16 unfair practices, and think about how 17 City agencies can use their enforcement 18 powers.

19 For example, when employers
20 threaten to report workers to 21 immigration authorities in response to 22 their complaints of unpaid wages,
23 workers can turn to the New York State
24 Department of Labor. But we also ask 25 independently whether there's for the

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 commission on human rights, for 3 example, to initiate investigations
4 against employers who make such threats
5 in response to complaints of unpaid
6 wages as potential discriminatory
7 harassment under the City human rights
8 law on the basis of immigration status
9 while keeping the complainants' 10 identities confidential, now more than 11 ever, we are seeking new avenues for 12 potential enforcement of labor laws and 13 also seeking to --

14 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you for your 15 time, sir.

16 (Applause.)

17 MS. MAXWELL: The next three are 18 Pamela Hazel, Molly Weston Williamson,
19 Marguerite Dunbar and Nadia
20 Marin-Molina.

21 PAMELA HAZEL: Good evening.
22 Thanks for the opportunity. My name is 23 Pamela Hazel, I've been a caseworker
24 for more than 20 years. I know
25 everyone who needs a union, a union

1
2 could be a good thing, but there are 3 always two sides of the story. At 4 present, the union that I'm involved
5 in, caseworkers union, they have gotten 6 so relaxed that they do not represent 7 us in a lot of complaints that we have.

8 At present, where I'm working,
9 there are threats of asbestos, we have 10 complained to the union and nothing has 11 been done. We have complained to 12 health and safety and nothing has been 13 done. And I believe a lot of union
14 members, we have come to the conclusion
15 that the reason the union is either 16 ignoring us, relax, don't care or 17 whatever else you want to think about 18 is because we have to pay union dues, 19 regardless, whether they work for us or 20 not.

21 We are also mandated to join the 22 union. At this point, we are -- we 23 want to make people aware that even 24 though the union is good, people who 25 are in union right now, for a lot of

1
2 years, we are asking for union reform
3 because union members are being taken
4 advantage of. A few people came to me
5 because I'm African, from Jamaica,
6 Queens, and people know me, and people
7 came to me, in particular bus drivers
8 have come to me, I take the bus every 9 day, from the bus I take the subway and 10 drivers have come to me and they have 11 said they have to urinate in a pack or 12 in a bucket that's because they have no
13 choice, this is what you have to do,
14 nobody will go to the union, the union 15 taking advantage of their members, of 16 their membership because, as I said
17 before, it's mandated that we have to 18 join a union, we don't have a choice, I 19 believe it's time for union reform and 20 people should have a choice to join or 21 not join, you cannot say it's a free 22 country and at the same time, you have 23 to join into an organization that do
24 not satisfy your needs.

25 Also, there are some misconception,

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 people believe that because you're in a
3 union, you know, like maybe you have 4 healthcare and so forth, as long as 5 you're in a union, I just want to let 6 people know, that's not so. As long as 7 you're off payroll, if you're on 8 vacation, if you're on maternity leave
9 and so on and so forth, you do not --

10 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
11 is up.

12 (Applause.)

13 MOLLY WESTON WILLIAMSON: Hi, thank 14 you for this opportunity.

15 My name is Molly Weston Williamson
16 and I'm a staff attorney with A Better 17 Balance. One of the organizations that 18 help write, fight for and the New York
19 City Earn Sick Time Act, we now provide 20 free and confidential legal services
21 under this law, and still regularly 22 hear from workers whose rights under 23 the law are being violated, who are not 24 being paid for sick time they earn or 25 being retaliated against, including

1
2 being fired, to -- under the law,
3 abuses are particularly in exactly the 4 industries we heard about tonight, home
5 care, retail, restaurant and 6 construction. Under the experienced
7 leadership of Commissioner Lorelei
8 Salas and the office of labor policy
9 and standards has made, worker
10 responsive agency, we look forward to 11 continuing to work with -- to build --
12 including the building law requirement
13 to resolve in arbitration, including 14 complaints, both parties, with equal
15 status as their law breaking requires, 16 for workers who may be undocumented or 17 otherwise vulnerable, we strongly urge 18 OLPS to create an effective process for 19 receiving and acting on tips and 20 anonymous complaints, such a process
21 would support on proactive
22 investigations and enforcement, we also 23 urge renewed attention for worker
24 application to outreach, to ensure that 25 all workers know about and can use

1
2 their rights under the law. We also 3 call on the mayor and city council in 4 providing a private right of action
5 under the Earned Sick Time Act, workers 6 whose rights are violated need and 7 deserve the right to bring action to 8 court, of the 37 jurisdictions in this 9 country who now have paid sick days on 10 laws on the books, only seven,
11 including New York, do not provide any 12 right to go to court, it is time to 13 pass that. Workers deserve fair and 14 predictable schedules, without a work
15 schedule, workers have difficulty
16 making childcare and eldercare
17 arrangements, provide obstacles in 18 pursuing their education and experience
19 adverse financial and health effects,
20 we urge passage of the entire package
21 currently pending bills to address
22 these problems. Under the leadership, 23 the commissioner of human rights has 24 become a powerful force for the 25 workers, we look forward to continue to

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 work with the commission to enforce 3 important protections, like the 4 Pregnant Workers Fairness Act and call
5 upon the City to significantly increase
6 funding, particularly to hire much 7 needed staff. Now more than ever, the 8 nation needs New York's leadership in 9 the fight over her rights, we have 10 agencies, Justice for Workers, through 11 vigorous enforcement of existing laws
12 and keen attention to the need for new 13 protections. We look forward to 14 continuing cooperation in both efforts.

15 (Applause.)

16 MARGUERITE DUNBAR: Good evening.
17 I'm here speaking on behalf of the New 18 York Committee for Occupational Safety
19 and Health, NYCOSH, we work to extend 20 and defend every person's right to a
21 safe and healthy workplace, on Friday, 22 we're going to be holding our annual 23 commemoration of workers' Memorial Day 24 and remembering workers who died on the 25 job in mostly preventable workplace

OPEN TESTIMONY

1 incidents. From January 2016 to today,
2 34 New York City workers have been 3 killed on the job, and this doesn't 4 begin to count the workers who suffered 5 long-term illnesses and death due to 6 exposure to chemicals and substances,
7 such as asbestos, silica or a toxic mix 8 of substances after 911, workers are 9 still dying today because of that. It 10 also doesn't count hundreds of 11 thousands who are injured and that 12 become ill because of the working 13 conditions.
14

15 Previously, people have already 16 mentioned that the crackdown on the 17 immigrant community is one of the 18 dangers that is endangering workers'
19 rights and in particular their health
20 and safety. The previous 21 administrations have had some level of 22 worker-friendly policies or encouraging 23 workers to come forward and under the 24 current administration, this is being 25 replaced by Draconian measures that are

1
2 criminalizing workers. But in addition
3 to that, the budget proposals are going 4 even further to endanger worker safety
5 and health, so the Trump administration 6 budget proposes a 21 percent across the 7 board cuts to the U.S. Department of 8 Labor, which includes the Occupational 9 Safety and Health Administration, which 10 is charged with protecting the 11 workplace and most of the workers who 12 are here today. OSHA is already 13 severely understaffed, it has 66
14 inspectors for the entirety of New York 15 state, and so they don't have, even 16 now, under the best circumstances, the 17 ability to do the work and to cover the 18 mission of protecting workers here on 19 the job. So we just have a few 20 recommendations, with regard to how the 21 City can step up, in terms of its 22 protection of workers.

23 One is, as others have mentioned,
24 to ensure to protect workers'
25 identities, regardless of immigration

1
2 status, and in particular,
3 collaborating with local agencies or 4 with State, rather than with federal 5 agencies and we don't know exactly how 6 the information is going to be used.
7 Two, to use your local authority, as 8 others have mentioned, to prosecute and 9 penalize law-breaking employers and to 10 suspend or revoke business licenses for 11 those who are engaging in wage theft or 12 negligent health and safety practices.
13 Three, to protect workers from ICE 14 operations in their homes, on the 15 street or in their workplaces. Four,
16 to provide funding in collaboration
17 with organizations that are actually 18 reaching out to these workers. And the 19 last thing I would mention is to take 20 an affirmative stance to protect 21 workers at every opportunity that you 22 have, on February 18th, the day of 23 workers -- A Day Without Immigrants,
24 thousands of workers came out and stood 25 up for their rights.

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
3 is up.

4 MARGUERITE DUNBAR: And May 1st is 5 an opportunity for you to make a 6 statement about --

7 (Applause.)

8 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: Hi, thank 9 you for this opportunity. I'm a 10 freelancer working in nonfiction TV and 11 my job title is associate producer and 12 I've been involved with the Writers
13 Guild industrywide organizing campaign
14 and in working extremely long hours
15 with no overtime pay in this industry
16 and my understanding is in my position,
17 as an associate producer, I'm entitled 18 to overtime pay, but in reality, my 19 bosses often tell me that I cannot 20 get -- in reality, my bosses tell me
21 often that I can't get paid overtime,
22 no matter how long I work. At times,
23 there's a case when I was at ITV, one 24 of my bosses wanted me to work at night
25 and over weekends, while my other boss

1
2 who was in charge of pay told me I
3 couldn't get paid for those hours, I 4 was told that I couldn't write it on my 5 timecard the actual hours that I
6 worked. As is supported by the recent 7 Guild survey, many of us in this 8 industry are told to fill out our 9 timecards just what I worked or to 10 refer to eight hours every day, even if 11 we worked longer hours. I left the -- 12 I filled out my timecard the same every 13 day, regardless of how late I stayed.
14 And at ITV, I was also told that when I 15 was working in the photo shoots, I was 16 then entitled to overtime pay. The 17 other producers and I would get up
18 early, film during the day, and then 19 when we would get back to the hotel, we 20 were considered off the clock, but we 21 might have hours of work to do for the 22 next day, but our hours were only
23 counted from when we left to start 24 filming to when we returned from 25 filming and also other productions, we

1 OPEN TESTIMONY

2 would end up sleeping very few hours
3 and then be driving around in vans,
4 which is also a safety issue. Many 5 producers worked long hours and did not 6 get compensated for those hours, we're 7 expected to work for free.

8 No one is monitoring to make sure
9 we are not being exploited. We're 10 excited about the formation of the 11 office of labor policy and standards
12 and hope this will help to monitor how 13 many hours we're being expected to work
14 and how many hours we are actually 15 working, thank you.

16 (Applause.)

17 MS. MAXWELL: Amir Sircan[ph].

18 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: Good
19 evening. My name is Juan
20 Matusully[ph], organizing with New York 21 taxi worker the last 15 years and 22 driving a taxi last 15 years and as I
23 was representing my fellow Uber driver,
24 now I'm talking about in the driving
25 issue, it is me actually.

1
2 So driver in that particularly 3 Uber, green cab, cab, I should talk, 4 over a hundred thousand driver and the 5 TLC represented it right here, he know
6 exactly that well, but he also know
7 exactly that driver making the money
8 and it is not even minimum wage, it's 9 all driver, it's all driver, doesn't 10 matter which category taxi they are 11 driving, is it yellow, green, livery,
12 Uber and also look at the Uber, the way 13 they race on the chase actually, they 14 are race with the other yellow, green,
15 livery, who -- the Lyft, this chase
16 needs to be stopped, which chase that 17 is $10 today, tomorrow will be $8, the 18 next day will be $6, all that race to 19 the bottom, but we need a liveable
20 income, we need to think about the 21 minimum wage, we need to be survivor,
22 we have more than hundred thousand 23 driving in the city, it's over the 24 night, and they all need to act as soon 25 as possible, this government need to

1
2 react, the mayor need to react, peoples 3 need to react, legislators need to 4 react to bring this -- taxi driver in 5 the minimum, we have a half a million
6 family member in New York City, hundred 7 thousand driver, each member, two 8 member, three member, is 200,000, 9 300,000, half a million member, they 10 are going tonight under the poverty, 11 and how long we will do this, we drove 12 the TLC, we drove the street, we drove 13 the TLC, we do the public hearing, how 14 long we have to do this public hearing 15 to keep our minimum wage? This is 16 long, long due, it is need to be really 17 act right now. Take my method as 18 personal, think about it, you are the 19 wife or you are the mother of the taxi 20 driver, think about it how they will 21 survive on a $2, that's my family, I go
22 Brooklyn College, I lived here, being a 23 taxi worker last 15 years, I hear every 24 single day, for the driver, loose,
25 overcharging, garage.

1 CLOSING REMARKS

2 MS. MAXWELL: Thank you, your time
3 is up.

4 MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC: Thank you so
5 much. I get emotional, I'm so sorry.
6 Thank you.

7 MS. MAXWELL: That concludes
8 everybody who signed up. Is there 9 anybody else who did not sign up and 10 who would like to speak?

11 (No affirmative response.)

12 MS. MAXWELL: Okay. Great.
13 Commissioners, any final thoughts or 14 words?

15 MS. SALAS: Thank you to everyone
16 who came to testify today and everyone 17 who stayed to hear the testimony, which 18 at times was very emotional, we 19 definitely have our work cut out for 20 us, but thank you, thank you, everyone.

21 MS. MALALIS: It's been a long
22 night, I appreciate all the folks who 23 stayed to the very end. As you can 24 see, this hearing is also being 25 transcribed, so we look forward to

1 CLOSING REMARKS

2 being able to go through the transcript
3 and to seeing what are the areas that 4 we can be working on and getting back
5 to the public.

6 MS. PAWRIA-SANCHEZ: Thank you.

7 MS. SALAS: So we'll officially 8 close.
