CORRUPTION HAZARD ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dear Candidate:

As an applicant for the position of Correction Officer presently undergoing a character investigation to determine your suitability for appointment, you are hereby informed that it is unlawful for you to offer, give, or agree to give any money, gift, or service in any form in an attempt to influence the outcome of the determination, the member of the Department conducting your investigation has been instructed to make an arrest if any such influence is attempted. Fraternalization between Correction candidates and members of service who are assigned to the Applicant Investigation Unit is strictly prohibited and should be reported immediately to the Commanding Officer of the Applicant Investigation Unit. A candidate who tries to exert any influence on the outcome of an investigation in this manner will be liable for prosecution and/or disqualification.

Similarly, it would be unlawful for the member of the Department conducting the investigation to solicit any money, gift, or service in any form to influence him/her in their findings.

Such misconduct should be reported to the Commanding Officer of the Applicant Investigation Unit, by mail to 75-20 Astoria Blvd. East Elmhurst, NY 11370, or by telephone number (718) 546-3238, or in person.

ANY REPORT OF THIS NATURE IS CONFIDENTIAL AND SHOULD BE MADE IMMEDIATELY

It is the policy of the New York City Department of Correction not to discriminate based on actual or perceived age, alienage or citizenship status, color, creed, disability, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion or sexual orientation. Retaliation is prohibited and will not be tolerated.

An applicant should follow the same procedure if s/he believes s/he has been sexually harassed or otherwise harassed on any of the above listed basis by an employee of the Applicant Investigation Unit.

Applicants who believe that discrimination or sexual harassment has occurred, should file a complaint with the New York City Department of Correction, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity, 75-20 Astoria Blvd. East Elmhurst, NY 11370, or a supervisor, supervisory head or the Commanding Officer, Applicant Investigation Unit.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I hereby acknowledge that I have read and understand the above statement.

EXAM * LIST

Appointments to the position of Probationary Correction Officer for the New York City Department of Correction are scheduled to be made in the near future. Candidates will be appointed from available civil service lists and your character and your fitness to be a member of the New York City Department of Correction will be investigated thoroughly. This means that after appointment, your investigation as to character and fitness will continue.

Appointments will be made on the basis of: available information, information supplied by you during your personal interview and information supplied in your written notarized questionnaire.

Therefore you're strongly advised that:

- If the post-appointment investigation reveals a false statement or omission of fact, it will be probable cause for disqualification and can result in the termination of employment;
- Falsification of any statement made in the N.Y.C.D.O.C. candidate questionnaire booklet is an offense punishable by fine and/or imprisonment (NY Administrative Code 1151-9-0);
- If you do not wish to be appointed subject to investigation, you may request (in writing) that your appointment be deferred until completion of the character investigation.

NOTICE TO CORRECTION OFFICER CANDIDATES

You are now a candidate for the position of Correction Officer within the New York City Correction Department. You must keep the Applicant Investigation Unit Investigator assigned to your case fully informed of any events in your life which may have an impact upon your character investigation or your suitability for appointment as a Correction Officer, or which may impact the N.Y.D.O.C.'s ability to fully investigate your background and history.

Events or changes in your life that you must notify your investigator of include, but are not limited to: change of address; change of phone number; change of employment; change of marital status; whether you have received any summonses (traffic, criminal, or civil), have been arrested, or been involved in any way with any police department or law enforcement agency as a witness to, victim of, or suspect in any crime or violation of law.

FAILURE TO PROMPTLY INFORM YOUR INVESTIGATOR OF ANY SUCH CHANGES OR EVENTS MAY RESULT IN YOUR BEING DENIED EMPLOYMENT AS A CORRECTION OFFICER.

I understand my obligation to inform the New York City Department of Correction's Applicant Investigation Unit of any events or changes in my life as described above. I understand that my failure to promptly inform my investigator of any such changes or events may result in my being denied employment as a Correction Officer.
