

Solutions to Save Small Businesses A Community Forum

Judson Memorial Church 55 Washington Square South
New York City

Thursday 7-9 PM, March 5; Doors open 6:30

Join neighbors, local businesspeople, and a panel of experts to save and protect small businesses that are the lifeblood of our community.

Panelists:

Sung Soo Kim – Former Chair: Mayor’s Small Business Advisory Board

Alfred Placeres – Founder, NYS Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

Jenny Dubnau – Spokesperson for The Artist Studio Affordability Project

Jack Segan – Community Affairs Representative for Jetro Foods

Robert Perl - President of Tower Brokerage

Mark Crispin Miller – Professor of Media Studies; Critic of NYU overdevelopment

Moderated by Lincoln Anderson, The Villager Editor-in-Chief

Sponsored by The Villager and Village Independent Democrats

Landlords now have all the rights...rights that determine the destiny of owners, their workers, and the character and culture of an entire community. Because the gateway to the American Dream has been locked, the key freely given to big Real Estate...let’s throw a life line and empower our struggling small businesses drowning in a sea of greed.

Visit TheVillager.com and VillageDemocrats.org for details