

NYC Department of Correction

Monthly Report: October 2016 (Covering the period of October 1 – October 31)

Variance Conditions (Minimum Standard 1-16(c)(1)(ii))

November 7, 2016

a. Monthly young adult census showing in which housing units and jails young adults are housed¹; See attached chart.

b. For each ESH placement of a young adult, the reason for placement; whether the placement was approved or disapproved by the Chief of the Department, or designee; and the housing category in which the inmate was housed prior to placement (e. g., GP, SCH, TRU, Secure, ESH, REST, APU)

Reason for ESH Placement	Chief's Determination	Housing Unit Prior to Placement
Repeated assaults; possession of a weapon	Approved	General Population
Possession a weapon	Approved	General Population
Repeated assaults	Approved	Administrative Segregation
Repeated assaults; possession of contraband; arson	Approved	General Population
Repeated assaults; possession of a weapon	Approved	Secure Unit
Repeated assaults	Approved	General Population
Repeated assaults; possession of contraband; demonstrations	Approved	Punitive Segregation

c. A monthly summary of the young adults in SCH, TRU, Secure Unit, and ESH. The summary shall include, for each of these housing areas:

i. Average Daily Population

Second Chance	TRU	Secure Unit	ESH
7.6	3.6	2.5	7.8

¹ This information is based on census data on October 15, 2016 as prescribed by the variance conditions.

ii. Number of Young Adults Placed:

Second Chance Housing (SCH)

During the reporting period, twenty-three (23) young adults were placed in SCH.

Transitional Restorative Unit (TRU)

During the reporting period, twenty-two (22) young adults were placed in TRU.

Secure Unit

During the reporting period, three (3) young adults were placed in Secure Unit.

Enhanced Supervision Housing (ESH)

During the reporting period, seven (7) young adults were placed in ESH.

iii. Number of Young Adults Released:

Second Chance Housing (SCH)

During the reporting period, seven (7) young adults were released from SCH.

Transitional Restorative Unit (TRU)

During the reporting period, six (6) young adults were released from TRU.

Secure Unit

During the reporting period, three (3) young adults were released from Secure Unit.

Enhanced Supervision Housing (ESH)

During the reporting period, no young adults were released from ESH.

iv. The number of young adults who had a previous placement(s) in ESH, TRU, Second Chance, or the Secure Unit, other than a step-down from TRU or Secure Unit during their current incarceration:

During this reporting period, there were seven (7) young adults who met this criteria:

- Two (2) young adults were placed in TRU for the first time, placed in general population, and placed again in TRU.
- Two (2) young adults had a previous placement in Second Chance, placement in punitive segregation, and were placed in ESH.

NYC Department of Correction

Monthly Report: October 2016 (Covering the period of October 1 – October 31)

Variance Conditions (Minimum Standard 1-16(c)(1)(ii))

November 7, 2016

- One (1) young adult had a previous placement in Second Chance, placement in general population, and was placed in Secure Unit.
- One (1) young adult had a previous placement in Second Chance, placement in general population, and was placed in TRU.
- One (1) young adult had a previous placement in TRU, placement in administrative segregation, placement in general population, and was placed in TRU.

v. The number of young adults who met the criteria for a timely case review;

All young adults placed in Second Chance and TRU receive their first Support Team review after being in the unit for two weeks. From that point forward, the young adults receive weekly Support Team reviews. All young adults placed in the Secure Unit receive weekly Support Team reviews.

During the reporting period, thirty-three (33) young adults met the criteria for case reviews:

- Second Chance: Ten (10) young adults met the criteria for case reviews.
- TRU: Twelve (12) young adults met the criteria for case reviews.
- Secure Unit: Nine (9) young adults met the criteria for case reviews.
- ESH: Two (2) young adults met the criteria for case reviews.

vi. The number of young adults who received such review;

During the reporting period, thirty-three (33) young adults received case reviews:

- Second Chance: Ten (10) young adults received their case reviews.
- TRU: Twelve (12) young adults received their case reviews.
- Secure Unit: Nine (9) young adults received their case reviews.
- ESH: Two (2) young adults received case reviews.

vii. The number of reviews that resulted in placement in an alternative housing area:

During the reporting period, seven (7) young adults received case reviews that resulted in their placement in an alternative housing area:

- Second Chance: Three (3) young adults were placed in an alternative housing area as a result of their case review.
- TRU: Two (2) young adults were placed in an alternative housing area as a result of their case review.
- Secure Unit: Two (2) young adults were placed in an alternative housing area as a result of their case review.