PROCUREMENT

“Compete To Win” More Contracts!

Thanks to a new City initiative - “Compete To Win” - the NYC Department of Small Business Services offers a new set of FREE services to help create more opportunities for minority and women-owned businesses to compete, connect and grow their business with the City. With NYC Construction Loan, Technical Assistance, NYC Construction Mentorship, Bond Readiness, and NYC Teaming services, the City will be able to help even more small businesses than before.

- Win More Contracts at nyc.gov/competetowin

“The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City’s prestige as a global destination. The contracting opportunities for construction/construction services and construction-related services that appear in the individual agency listings below reflect that commitment to excellence.”

HHS ACCELERATOR

To respond to human services Requests for Proposals (RFPs), in accordance with Section 3-16 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules of the City of New York (“PPB Rules”), vendors must first complete and submit an electronic prequalification application using the City’s Health and Human Services (HHS) Accelerator System. The HHS Accelerator System is a web-based system maintained by the City of New York for use by its human services Agencies to manage procurement. The process removes redundancy by capturing information about boards, filings, policies, and general service experience centrally. As a result, specific proposals for funding are more focused on program design, scope, and budget.

Important information about the new method

- Prequalification applications are required every three years.
- Documents related to annual corporate filings must be submitted on an annual basis to remain eligible to compete.
- Prequalification applications will be reviewed to validate compliance with corporate filings, organizational capacity, and relevant service experience.
- Approved organizations will be eligible to compete and would submit electronic proposals through the system.

The Client and Community Service Catalog, which lists all Prequalification service categories and the NYC Procurement Roadmap, which lists all RFPs to be managed by HHS Accelerator may be viewed at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/hhsaccelerator/html/roadmap/roadmap.shtml>. All current and prospective vendors should frequently review information listed on roadmap to take full advantage of upcoming opportunities for funding.

Participating NYC Agencies

HHS Accelerator, led by the Office of the Mayor, is governed by an Executive Steering Committee of Agency Heads who represent the following NYC Agencies:

- Administration for Children’s Services (ACS)
- Department for the Aging (DFTA)
- Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA)
- Department of Corrections (DOC)
- Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH)
- Department of Homeless Services (DHS)
- Department of Probation (DOP)
- Department of Small Business Services (SBS)
- Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD)
- Housing and Preservation Department (HPD)
- Human Resources Administration (HRA)
- Office of the Criminal Justice Coordinator (CJC)

ILLEGAL GUN MARKET STUDY - Negotiated Acquisition - Other -PIN# 00215MOCJ011 - Due 8-18-15 at 11:59 P.M.

MOCJ proposes a multifaceted effort to provide a detailed account of the varied transactions that comprise the supply lines of illegal guns to criminals in New York City. Identifying effective and feasible evidence-based approaches to disrupt these illegal transactions is thus a critical challenge in curbing gun violence. This project seeks to conduct research into the structure and dynamics of illicit firearms transactions in New York City, to ascertain how best to disrupt them. The research is intended to provide guidance in setting priorities in prosecutions, design undercover operations against gun transactions, craft new regulations, and related actions, all with the ultimate purpose of reducing gun violence.

The negotiated acquisition procurement has been chosen due to the limited number of vendors available and able to perform the work in accordance with PPB 3-04(b)(2)(ii). MOCJ will continue to accept expressions of interest to the extent required by the City of New York Procurement Policy Board Rules.

Use the following address unless otherwise specified in notice, to secure, examine or submit bid/proposal documents, vendor pre-qualification and other forms; specifications/blueprints; other information; and for opening and reading of bids at date and time specified above.

DPR is seeking to evaluate and pre-qualify a list of general contractors (a "PQL") exclusively to conduct non-complex general construction site work involving the construction and reconstruction of DPR parks and playgrounds projects not exceeding $3 million per contract ("General Construction").

By establishing contractor's qualification and experience in advance, DPR will have a pool of competent contractors from which it can draw to promptly and effectively reconstruct and construction its parks, playgrounds, beaches, gardens and green-streets. The vendors selected for inclusion in the General Construction PQL will be invited to participate in the NYC Construction Mentorship. NYC Construction Mentorship focuses on increasing the use of small NYC contracts, and winning larger contracts with larger values. Firms participating in NYC Construction Mentorship will have the opportunity to take management classes and receive on-the-job training provided by a construction management firm.

- (a) To be eligible for HRA HOME TBRA, a household must meet the following eligibility requirements:
 - (1) The household must:
 - (A) Consist of two or more individuals or a pregnant person, currently reside in a DHS Shelter or HRA Shelter, and have resided in shelter for more than 120 days as of the close of the application period established pursuant to subdivision (a) of section 10-04 of this chapter; or

 - (4) At least one member of the household must be either:
 - (A) a citizen; or
 - (B) a noncitizen with a qualifying immigration status under Section 1436a of Title 42 of the United States Code.
- (b) Eligibility will be determined via an application process. The number of eligible households that can be approved to participate in HRA HOME TBRA will be limited by the amount of available funding.

§ 10-04 Application Process, Lottery and Waitlist.

- (a) At HRA's discretion, when there is funding available to provide HRA HOME TBRA to applicant households, HRA will set an application period of at least 30 days, during which households may submit applications. HRA will disseminate notice of the application period, including on HRA's website. Applications must be submitted on a form and in a format established by HRA. A household may submit no more than one application per application period.

- (b) After the application period closes, HRA will randomly assign all applications received during the application period a number. HRA will review all applications in order of assigned number. Coupons will be issued in order of assigned number to applicant households that meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of section 10-03 of this chapter until coupons are no longer available. If HRA determines that an applicant household is ineligible for HRA HOME TBRA, HRA will notify such household that its application has been denied and the reasons for denial. Remaining applicant households that meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of section 10-03 will be placed on a waitlist in order of assigned number and notified in writing of their placement on the waitlist. Once placed on the waitlist, a household will retain its placement on the waitlist unless it is selected or removed from the waitlist pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.
- (c) Selection or removal of households from waitlist.
- (1) Subject to available funding and HRA HOME TBRA coupons, households will be selected for participation in HRA HOME TBRA from the waitlist in order of assigned number, provided such households continue to meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of section 10-03 of this chapter.
 - (2) Households that are unable to establish that they continue to satisfy the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of section 10-03 of this chapter will be removed from the waitlist and informed that their applications have been denied.
 - (3) HRA may request an applicant household on the waitlist to provide additional documentation regarding the household's income and composition and to establish that the household continues to meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of section 10-03 of this chapter. An applicant household that fails to timely or adequately respond to such a request will be removed from the waitlist and informed that its application has been denied.
 - (4) In the event that HRA does not have sufficient funding to select the household at the top of the waitlist for HRA HOME TBRA participation due to such household's unit size, HRA shall not select a household with a smaller unit size, but shall select the household at the top of the waitlist when sufficient funding is available.

§ 10-05 Coupon.

- (a) A household shall not receive a coupon until such household attends a briefing session provided by HRA. Failure to attend the briefing session will result in denial of the household's application for HRA HOME TBRA.
- (b) The initial term of a coupon will be 120 calendar days.
- (c) HRA may extend a household's initial coupon term for documented special circumstances, including if such extension is needed as a reasonable accommodation on the basis of disability.
- (d) If a household submits a request for unit approval pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 10-06 of this chapter, the coupon term will be stayed until HRA approves or denies the request.
- (e) HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments shall only be available if a household receives a unit approval pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 10-06 of this chapter prior to the expiration of the coupon term. A household that does not obtain a unit approval prior to the expiration of the coupon term may submit a new application for participation in HRA HOME TBRA if HRA re-opens the application period pursuant to subdivision (a) of section 10-04 of this chapter.
- (f) HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments shall only be available if a household complies with program obligations as outlined in the coupon.

§ 10-06 Leasing a Unit.

- (a) HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance shall only be provided for units approved by HRA. A household must submit a request for unit approval on a form and in a format established by HRA prior to the expiration of the coupon. A household may not submit more than one request for unit approval at a time.
- (b) Request for Unit Approval.
HRA will approve a request for unit approval if all of the following requirements are met:
 - (1) The unit has been inspected and is HQS-compliant;
 - (2) The lease complies with the requirements in Section 92.253(a)-(b) of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations;
 - (3) The rent is reasonable pursuant to standards set forth in Section 982.507 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and does not exceed the applicable rent standard amount established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 10-08 of this chapter;

- (4) The unit is located within the City of New York; and
 - (5) The unit will be the household's only residence.
- (c) Lease and Rental Assistance Contract Signing.
- (1) Upon approval of a unit pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, two contracts must be executed before HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments may be issued:
 - (A) An approved lease between the landlord and household; and
 - (B) A Rental Assistance Contract between HRA and the landlord.
 - (2) HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments shall be paid to the landlord in accordance with the terms of the Rental Assistance Contract and may only be paid to the landlord during the lease term and while the household is residing in the assisted unit.
 - (3) The term of the Rental Assistance Contract shall terminate on termination of the lease and may not exceed 24 months, but may be renewed, subject to the availability of funding.
 - (4) HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments to a landlord terminate when a landlord terminates the lease. However, if the landlord has commenced the process to evict the household but the household continues to reside in the assisted unit, HRA shall continue to make rental assistance payments to the landlord in accordance with the Rental Assistance Contract for the remaining term of the Rental Assistance Contract or until the landlord has obtained a court judgment or other process allowing the landlord to evict the household. HRA may continue such payments until the household moves or is evicted from the assisted unit but no later than the end of the Rental Assistance Contract term.
 - (5) A landlord may not terminate the lease or refuse to renew the lease of a household participating in HRA HOME TBRA, except in accordance with Section 92.253(c) of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

§ 10-07 Recertification and Ongoing Program Participant Obligations.

- (a) Recertification.
 - (1) Subject to the availability of funding, HRA shall recertify a household for continued participation in HRA HOME TBRA if:
 - (A) the household's annual income does not exceed 80 percent of the area median income;
 - (B) at least one member of the household is a citizen or qualifying noncitizen as set forth in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of section 10-03 of this chapter; and
 - (C) the household continues to reside in the assisted unit.
 - (2) HRA will determine a household's eligibility for recertification at the end of each year of the household's participation in HRA HOME TBRA and upon notification by the household of any changes in household composition or income. Prior to recertification, HRA will recalculate the household's total monthly household contribution and the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount pursuant to section 10-08 of this chapter. Except as provided in section 10-10 of this chapter, the total monthly household contribution and HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount will not change during the one-year recertification period, regardless of changes in household composition or income.
 - (3) A household's eligibility for recertification is conditioned on the household's timely cooperation with any requests by HRA for household information and documentation.
- (b) A household's participation in HRA HOME TBRA will be terminated during the Rental Assistance Contract term if:
 - (1) HRA determines that a household member knowingly permitted another individual who is not eligible for HRA HOME TBRA due to immigration status in accordance with Part 5 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Section 1436a of Title 42 of the United States Code to reside on a permanent basis in the assisted unit. In such an event, the household will be barred from submitting a new application for HRA HOME TBRA for not less than 24 months. This provision does not apply to a household if the ineligibility of the ineligible individual was considered in calculating the prorated HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount pursuant to subdivision (e) of section 10-08 of this chapter.

- (2) The household is absent from the assisted unit for a period of more than a total of 180 days in a 12-month period in any circumstance and for any reason.
- (3) The household is absent from the assisted unit for 90 consecutive days unless the household establishes:
 - (A) That the household intends to return to the assisted unit within 180 days of departure; and
 - (B) That the household is not maintaining an alternative residence.
- (4) The household fails to grant access to the assisted unit for an HQS inspection pursuant to section 10-09 of this chapter.
- (5) The household is responsible for an HQS failure related to the performance requirements and acceptability criteria set forth in Section 982.401 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and the household fails to remedy the HQS failure within the period specified by HRA. Such HQS failure may result from actions or inactions that include but are not limited to the household's failure to pay for any utilities for which the household is responsible for payment, or damage to the dwelling unit or premises beyond ordinary wear and tear caused by any member or guest of the household.
- (6) The household fails to comply with program obligations as outlined in the coupon.

§ 10-08 Calculating HRA HOME TBRA Rental Assistance Amount and Household Share of Rent.

(a) Unit Size.

- (1) A household will be assigned a standard unit size, corresponding to the number of bedrooms needed for the household size, as set forth in the table below. HRA shall assign such unit size at the time of coupon issuance and include it on the coupon issued to the household.

Household Size	Unit Size
1	SRO/Studio
3 or 4	2
5 or 6	3
7 or 8	4
9 or 10	5
11 or 12	6
13 or 14	7

- (2) For purposes of determining unit size:
 - (A) The household consists of all individuals who intend to reside in the assisted unit;
 - (B) A child who is temporarily away from the home for no more than 90 consecutive days because of placement in foster care is considered a member of the household;
 - (C) A household that consists solely of a pregnant woman is treated as a two-person household;
 - (D) Any live-in aide approved by HRA to reside in the assisted unit to care for a household member who is disabled or elderly is considered a member of the household.
 - (E) An individual who is absent from the assisted unit for more than 90 consecutive days will not be considered a member of the household unless such individual is absent due to a hospitalization for a medical condition for no more than 180 consecutive days.
- (3) If a household includes a household member with a disability, HRA may assign the household a higher unit size as a reasonable accommodation for such member.
- (4) The household may lease an otherwise acceptable unit with fewer bedrooms than the assigned unit size provided the unit meets the applicable HQS space requirements.
- (5) The household may lease an otherwise acceptable unit with more bedrooms than the assigned unit size.

(b) Rent Standard Amount and Schedule.

- (1) The HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amount shall be based on unit size. HRA shall set the HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amount for each unit size at an amount that is between 95 and 110 percent of the fair market rent applicable in New York City for the unit size as published annually by HUD pursuant to Part 888 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. HRA shall publish current HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amounts on HRA's website.

- (2) A household's rent standard amount shall be the HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amount established pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision for the household's assigned unit size.
- (3) For the initial occupancy of an assisted unit, the household's gross rent, including heat and hot water, shall not exceed the household's rent standard amount.
- (c) The HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount paid on behalf of a household shall equal the household's gross rent, not to exceed the household's rent standard amount, minus the total household contribution calculated pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section.
- (d) Income Contribution and Household Share of Rent.
 - (1) The household's total monthly household contribution to rent shall be the highest of the following amounts, rounded to the nearest dollar:
 - (A) The household's adjusted income multiplied by 30 percent and divided by 12;
 - (B) The household's annual income multiplied by 10 percent and divided by 12;
 - (C) The amount of the household's public assistance shelter allowance as calculated and received pursuant to Section 352.3 of Title 18 of the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations; or
 - (D) Fifty dollars.
 - (2) If a household is unable to pay the minimum total household contribution of fifty dollars because of financial hardship, HRA may grant an exception reducing the amount of such household's total household contribution.
- (e) If a household includes a member who is ineligible for HRA HOME TBRA on the basis of immigration status in accordance with Section 1436a of Title 42 of the United States Code, the household's HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount will be prorated by multiplying the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount as calculated in subdivision (c) of this section by a fraction, the denominator of which is the total number of household members and the numerator of which is the total number of household members who are not ineligible for HRA HOME TBRA on the basis of immigration status.
- (f) Change in the HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amount during the Rental Assistance Contract Term.
 - (1) If the HRA HOME TBRA rent standard amount for the household's assigned unit size is increased during the term of the Rental Assistance Contract, the increased rent standard amount shall be used to calculate the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount for the household beginning on the effective date of the household's next annual recertification on or after the effective date of the increase in the rent standard amount.
 - (2) A decrease in the HRA HOME TBRA rent standard will not be applied to a household during the Rental Assistance Contract term and the household's rent standard amount will remain the same for purposes of calculating the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount at the household's next annual recertification.
- (g) Change in household composition during Rental Assistance Contract Term.

If during the Rental Assistance Contract term, the household's composition increases or decreases so as to affect the household's unit size pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, the new unit size must be used to determine the household's rent standard amount at the household's next annual recertification following the change in the household's unit size.

§ 10-09 Inspections.

- (a) A unit for which a household requests approval pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 10-06 of this chapter must pass an HQS inspection and will be subject to inspections in accordance with Section 92.209 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Additional inspections may be conducted to ensure continued compliance with HQS based on complaints from the household, landlord, interested third parties or the general public.
- (b) The landlord must maintain the assisted unit in accordance with HQS. If the landlord fails to maintain the assisted unit in accordance with HQS and fails to remedy any HQS failure related to the performance requirements and acceptability criteria set forth in Section 982.401 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations within the period specified by HRA, HRA shall either abate HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments in their entirety until such time as the landlord remedies the HQS failure as determined by HRA, or terminate the Rental Assistance Contract and cease HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments. This provision does not apply if the landlord is not responsible for the HQS failure. If HRA abates HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments to the assisted unit or terminates the Rental Assistance Contract pursuant to this subdivision, HRA shall allow the household to move pursuant to section 10-10 of this chapter.

- (c) If the household is responsible for an HQS failure related to the performance requirements and acceptability criteria set forth in Section 982.401 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and the household fails to remedy the HQS failure within the period specified by HRA, HRA shall terminate the household's participation in HRA HOME TBRA.

§ 10-10 Moves.

- (a) A household participating in HRA HOME TBRA may not move to a new unit and maintain eligibility for HRA HOME TBRA except with the prior approval of HRA. HRA may grant such approval and issue a new coupon to the household on the following grounds:

- (1) The household is overcrowded in the assisted unit;
- (2) HRA abates HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments to the assisted unit or terminates the Rental Assistance Contract pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 10-09 of this chapter;
- (3) The lease for the assisted unit has terminated by mutual agreement of the household and landlord and the landlord signs a release of the lease and the Rental Assistance Contract;
- (4) The landlord has obtained a court judgment or other process allowing the landlord to evict the household; or
- (5) The need for the move is a direct result of a documented health and safety concern or other good cause, as determined by HRA on a case-by-case basis.

- (b) All requirements of section 10-06 of this chapter must be met before a household may move to a new assisted unit.
- (c) If HRA has approved a move to a new unit, HRA shall reassign the household a unit size, re-determine the household's rent standard amount, and recalculate the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount and the household's total monthly household contribution pursuant to section 10-08 of this chapter.
- (d) Upon an approved move to a new unit, the household shall be recertified pursuant to subdivision (a) of section 10-07 of this chapter. The household's annual recertification cycle shall coincide with the new lease term.
- (e) If a household moves from an assisted unit, HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments for such unit shall cease as of the month after the month that the household moves from such unit. The landlord may keep the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payment for the month during which the household moves from such unit.

§ 10-12 Agency Review Conference and HRA Administrative Appeal Process.

- (a) Agency Review Conference.
- (1) If an applicant or program participant requests an agency review conference, HRA shall informally review and attempt to resolve the issues raised.

- (2) An applicant or program participant may request an agency review conference without also requesting an HRA administrative hearing. Requesting an agency review conference will not prevent an applicant or program participant from later requesting an HRA administrative hearing.
- (3) An agency review conference must be requested within fourteen days after the challenged determination or action.

- (b) Request for an HRA Administrative Hearing.

- (1) An administrative hearing must be requested in writing. Such written request must be submitted by mail, electronic means or facsimile, or other means as HRA may set forth in an appeals notice.
- (2) A request for an administrative hearing must be made by the later of twenty-one days after the challenged determination or action or seven days after the date of the agency review conference.

- (c) Authorized Representative.

- (1) Except where impracticable to execute a written authorization, a person or organization seeking to represent an applicant or program participant must have the applicant's or program participant's written authorization to represent him or her at an agency review conference or administrative hearing and to review his or her case record, provided that such written authorization is not required from an attorney retained by such applicant or program participant. An employee of such attorney will be considered an authorized representative if such employee presents written authorization from the attorney or if such attorney advises HRA by telephone of such employee's authorization.
- (2) Once HRA has been notified that a person or organization has been authorized to represent an applicant or program participant at an agency review conference or administrative hearing, such representative will receive copies of all correspondence sent by HRA to the applicant or program participant relating to the conference and hearing.

- (d) Aid Continuing.

- (1) If a program participant requests an administrative appeal of a determination by HRA that HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments are to be reduced, restricted, suspended or discontinued, such program participant shall have the right to continued receipt of HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments at the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount in effect at the time of the determination until the hearing decision is issued pursuant to subdivision (k) of this section or the end of the term of the current Rental Assistance Contract, whichever is earlier, provided that:
 - (A) The program participant requests the administrative appeal within ten days of the mailing of the notice of such determination; and
 - (B) The appeal is based on a claim of incorrect computation or an incorrect factual determination.
- (2) There is no right to continued HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance payments pursuant to this subdivision where the sole issue on appeal is one of local, State or Federal law or policy, or change in local, State or Federal law.
- (3) Rental assistance payments will not continue pending the issuance of a hearing decision when:
 - (A) The program participant has voluntarily waived his or her right to the continuation of such assistance in writing; or
 - (B) The program participant does not appear at the administrative hearing and does not have a good cause reason for not appearing.
- (4) If a program participant requests an additional appeal pursuant to subdivision (m) of this section, rental assistance payments will continue uninterrupted after issuance of the hearing decision until a written decision is issued pursuant to subdivision (k) of this section.

- (e) Notice.

HRA shall provide the applicant or program participant with notice of the date, time, and location of the administrative hearing no fewer than seven calendar days prior to the scheduled date of the administrative hearing, unless the issue underlying the request for an administrative hearing has been resolved and the applicant or program participant has withdrawn his or her hearing request.

- (f) Examination of Case Record.

The applicant or program participant or his or her authorized representative has the right to examine the contents of his or her HRA HOME TBRA case file and all documents and records that HRA intends to use at the administrative hearing. Upon request by telephone or in writing, HRA shall provide such applicant or program participant with copies of all such documents, and copies of any additional documents in the possession of HRA that the applicant or program participant identifies and requests for purposes of preparing for the administrative hearing. HRA shall provide such documents at no charge reasonably in advance of the administrative hearing. If the request for such documents is made less than five business days before the administrative hearing, HRA must provide the applicant or program participant with copies of such documents no later than at the time of the administrative hearing.

(g) Adjournment.

The administrative hearing may be adjourned for good cause by the administrative hearing officer on his or her own motion or at the request of the applicant or program participant, or HRA.

(h) Conduct of Administrative Hearing.

- (1) The administrative hearing shall be conducted by an impartial hearing officer appointed by HRA who shall have the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas and who shall have no prior personal knowledge of the facts concerning the challenged determination or action.
- (2) The administrative hearing shall be informal, all relevant and material evidence shall be admissible and the legal rules of evidence shall not apply. The administrative hearing shall be confined to the factual and legal issues raised regarding the specific determination(s) for which the administrative hearing was requested.
- (3) The applicant or program participant shall have a right to be represented by counsel or other representative, to testify, to produce witnesses to testify, to offer documentary evidence, to offer evidence in opposition to the evidence presented by HRA, to request that the hearing officer issue subpoenas, and to examine any documents offered by HRA.
- (4) An audio recording, an audio visual recording or written transcript of the administrative hearing shall be made.

(i) Abandonment of Request for Administrative Hearing.

- (1) HRA will consider an administrative hearing request abandoned if neither the applicant or program participant nor his or her authorized representative appears at the administrative hearing, unless either the applicant or program participant or his or her authorized representative has:
 - (A) contacted HRA prior to the administrative hearing to request rescheduling of the administrative hearing; or
 - (B) within fifteen calendar days of the scheduled administrative hearing date, contacted HRA and provided a good cause reason for failing to appear at the administrative hearing on the scheduled date.
- (2) HRA will restore the case to the calendar if the applicant or program participant or his or her authorized representative has met the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(j) Hearing Record.

The recording or written transcript of the hearing, all papers and requests filed in connection with the hearing, and the hearing decision collectively constitute the complete and exclusive record of the administrative hearing.

(k) Hearing Decision.

- (1) The hearing officer shall render a decision based exclusively on the hearing record. The decision must be in writing and must set forth the administrative hearing issues, the relevant facts, and the applicable law, regulations and approved policy, if any, upon which the decision is based. The decision must identify the issues to be determined, make findings of fact, state the reasons for the determinations, and when appropriate, direct HRA to take specific action.
- (2) A copy of the decision, accompanied by written notice to the applicant or program participant of the right to further appeal and the procedures for requesting such appeal, will be sent to each of the parties and to their authorized representatives, if any.

(l) Effect of Hearing Decision.

- (1) HRA is not bound by a hearing decision:
 - (A) concerning a matter for which HRA is not required to provide an opportunity for a hearing under this section, or that otherwise exceeds the authority of the person conducting the hearing under this section; or

- (B) contrary to HUD regulations or requirements, or otherwise contrary to federal, State, or local law.

- (2) If HRA determines that it is not bound by a hearing decision, it shall promptly notify the family of the determination, and of the reasons for the determination.

(m) Additional Appeal.

- (1) An appeal from a decision of a hearing officer may be made in writing to the Commissioner of HRA or his or her designee provided it is received by HRA through the procedures described in the notice accompanying the hearing decision no later than fifteen business days after HRA sends the hearing officer's decision. The record before the Commissioner shall consist of the hearing record, the hearing officer's decision and any affidavits, documentary evidence, or written arguments that the applicant or program participant may wish to submit.
- (2) The Commissioner or his or her designee shall render a written decision based on the hearing record and any additional documents submitted by the applicant or program participant and HRA.
- (3) A copy of the decision, accompanied by written notice to the applicant or program participant of the right to judicial review, will be sent to each of the parties and to their authorized representatives, if any.
- (4) Upon issuance, the decision of the Commissioner or his or her designee made pursuant to an appeal under this section is final and binding upon HRA and must be complied with by HRA.

§ 10-13 Additional Provisions.

(a) Applicants and program participants must:

- (1) provide accurate, complete and current information on household income and household composition;
- (2) furnish documentation to verify information needed to determine eligibility and the HRA HOME TBRA rental assistance amount; and
- (3) report to HRA any changes in household income or household composition within ten (10) days of such changes occurring.

- (b) An applicant household does not have any right or entitlement to have its application selected for review, to be listed on the HRA HOME TBRA waitlist, or to any particular position on such waitlist, or to selection for participation in HRA HOME TBRA. The preceding sentence does not affect or prejudice any right, independent of this chapter, to bring a judicial action challenging a violation of a constitutional or statutory requirement.

- (c) Applicants and program participants must execute consent forms in accordance with Section 5.230 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

- (d) Rental assistance provided under the HRA HOME TBRA Program cannot be combined with any other rent subsidies other than a public assistance shelter allowance provided pursuant to Section 352.3 of Title 18 of the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations, except with the prior approval of HRA on a case-by-case basis.

- (e) Applicant households are responsible for identifying potential housing. However, shelter staff may provide assistance to such households in their housing search.

- (f) A landlord who signs a lease with a household participating in HRA HOME TBRA is prohibited from demanding, requesting, or receiving any amount above the rent or fees as stipulated in the lease agreement regardless of any changes in household composition, except that a landlord may charge fees customarily charged in rental housing in accordance with Section 92.214(b)(3) of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations subject to prior approval from HRA. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, a landlord who demands, requests or receives any amount above what is set forth in the lease will be barred from further participation in any HRA rental assistance programs and may be barred from other rental assistance programs administered by the City of New York. Before placing a landlord on a disqualification list, HRA will provide notice to the landlord and an opportunity for the landlord to object in writing.

- (g) If a program participant moves or is evicted from an assisted unit, the landlord must return any over-payment to HRA except as otherwise provided in section 10-10 of this chapter.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Emergency Rule

In order to implement the Mayor's priority of assisting families and individuals experiencing homelessness in securing and maintaining stable and permanent housing in the community, the Commissioner of the New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA) adds Chapter 10 to Title 68 of the Rules of the City of New York to establish the HRA HOME Tenant-Based Rental Assistance (HRA HOME TBRA) Program. The program will provide rental assistance to a limited number of families with children, adult families and pregnant women currently residing in New York City Department of Homeless Services (DHS) and HRA shelters, as well as chronically street homeless individuals, who are in receipt of supplemental security income, social security disability insurance benefits, social security survivors insurance benefits or social security retirement benefits.

There is an urgent need for this program. Shelter census data shows that the number of families with children and adult families in the DHS shelter system remains extremely high, even taking into account the hundreds of families who have already been able to leave shelter under existing HRA rental assistance programs targeted to families.

Specifically, between January 1, 2002 and December 31, 2013 the number of families with children in the DHS shelter system increased by 63 percent, including an 80 percent increase in the number of children. As of May 29, 2015, there were 11,689 families with children in the DHS shelter system, including 23,331 children. Similarly, the number of adult families in the DHS shelter system increased by 59 percent between July 1, 2004 and December 31, 2013.

As shelter census has increased, the DHS shelter system has continued to experience extremely low vacancy rates. Indeed, on June 11, 2015, the vacancy rate for shelters for families with children was 0.26 percent and the vacancy rate for adult family shelters was 1.92 percent.

Census data also demonstrates the urgent need for an additional program available to chronically street homeless individuals. In addition to the men and women in DHS shelters for single adults and adult families, the City estimates that as of January 2015 there were over 3,000 unsheltered individuals living on the streets, in parks, and in other public spaces of the City, including the subway system.

Finally, shelter census data also shows the urgent need for a rental assistance program targeted to those in receipt of various forms of social security benefits. Households in receipt of such benefits comprise approximately 24 percent of the families with children and approximately 40 percent of the adult families in the City shelter system. A number of individuals served in DHS Street Homeless Programs who are in receipt of social security benefits may also benefit from this program.

Over a two-year period, the HRA HOME TBRA Program will assist approximately 1,250 households to obtain permanent housing and become securely housed in the community.

HRA's authority for this emergency rule may be found in Sections 92.205 and 92.209 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations; the City of New York's Consolidated Plan, promulgated pursuant to Part 91 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations and approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development on May 29, 2015; Sections 34, 56, 61, 62, 77, and 131 of the New York Social Services Law; and Sections 603 and 1043 of the New York City Charter.

Finding of Imminent Threat Pursuant to New York City Charter Section 1043(i)(1)

IT IS HEREBY CERTIFIED that the immediate effectiveness of this emergency rule establishing the New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA) HOME Tenant-Based Rental Assistance (HRA HOME TBRA) Program is necessary to address the immediate need to relocate homeless families from Department of Homeless Services (DHS) shelters and HRA domestic violence shelters. The shelter system for families with children and adult families is currently experiencing an extremely high need for capacity. Providing sufficient shelter capacity to meet the needs of families who do not have permanent housing is a necessary City service. Without the immediate implementation of this rent subsidy program to relocate families with children and adult families to stable housing, other emergency measures would be required to meet the need for increased shelter capacity. It is therefore necessary to act by emergency rulemaking so that the City of New York and its agencies can immediately begin to use available rent subsidies to relocate specific numbers of families from shelters to stable housing in the community, thereby taking immediate action with respect to shelter system capacity, pending the adoption of a final rule.

The number of families with children and adult families in the DHS shelter system remains extremely high, even taking into account the hundreds of families who have already been able to leave shelter under existing HRA rental assistance programs.

Specifically, between January 1, 2002 and December 31, 2013 the number of families with children in the DHS shelter system increased by 63 percent, including an 80 percent increase in the number of children. As of May 29, 2015, there were 11,689 families with children in the DHS shelter system, including 23,331 children. Similarly, the number of adult families in the DHS shelter system increased by 59 percent between July 1, 2004 and December 31, 2013.

As shelter census has increased, the DHS shelter system has continued to experience extremely low vacancy rates. Indeed, on June 11, 2015, the vacancy rate for shelters for families with children was 0.26 percent and the vacancy rate for adult family shelters was 1.92 percent.

Census data also demonstrates the urgent need for an additional program available to chronically street homeless individuals. In addition to the men and women in DHS shelters for single adults and adult families, the City estimates that as of January 2015 there were over 3,000 unsheltered individuals living on the streets, in parks, and in other public spaces of the City, including the subway system.

Finally, shelter census data also shows the urgent need for a rental assistance program targeted to those in receipt of various forms of social security benefits. Households in receipt of such benefits comprise approximately 24 percent of the families with children and approximately 40 percent of the adult families in the City shelter system. A number of individuals served in DHS Street Homeless Programs who are in receipt of social security benefits may also benefit from this program.

No price can be put on the human costs of homelessness, and the record level of homelessness has a substantial fiscal impact for government. By immediately establishing the HRA HOME TBRA Program, HRA can immediately increase efforts to assist families who are currently living in DHS shelters and in HRA domestic violence shelters and individuals who may be living on the streets to relocate to stable housing. The program established under this rule provides an important new option for families that will increase the number of exits from shelter, helping to address and alleviate current demands on the shelter system.

Delaying implementation of this rule pending non-emergency rulemaking would result in longer stays in shelters for currently families, increasing the strain on the shelter system, which, as indicated, provides a necessary service to large numbers of such families.

Pursuant to section 1043(i)(2) of the Charter, the emergency rule will remain in effect for not more than 120 days while HRA prepares a permanent rule.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY CERTIFIED that the immediate effectiveness of a rule providing for establishment of the New York City Human Resources Administration HOME Tenant-Based Rental Assistance (HRA HOME TBRA) Program is necessary to address an imminent threat to a necessary service.
