

Every New Yorker, without exception.

City services are available to all New Yorkers, regardless of your immigration status, ability to pay, employment status, or ability to speak English.

Every New Yorker:

- Has the right to quality health care
- Is entitled to insurance coverage for emergency health care
- Has the right to health privacy
- Is entitled to City services
- Has the right to receive services in their preferred language

Learn more about your rights and find resources at nyc.gov/immigranthealth.

