“SPRING INTO HEALTH FAIR” TO BE HELD IN ALL FIVE BOROUGHS FROM APRIL 10 THROUGH APRIL 14

Health-related activities to focus on awareness, education, screening, and demonstrations

NEW YORK—The New York City Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD), in conjunction with the New York City Department for the Aging (DFTA), the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA), NYC Health + Hospitals, New York City Parks Department, the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH), and the New York City Human Resources Administration (HRA), will host the “Spring into Health Fair” at 34 locations from Tuesday, April 10 through Saturday, April 14.

Participating sites will engage local community-based organizations and other community partners in a day of activities that will include medical screenings, lifestyle information, physical activities, and health-related demonstrations. Locations include DYCD-funded Cornerstone and Beacon sites. Cornerstone programs provide year-round programs for adults and young people at NYCHA Community Centers; Beacon programs are school-based centers serving children age six and older, and adults.

For a complete list of dates and locations, visit DYCD’s Facebook page (www.facebook.com/nycyouth/) and click EVENTS, or see below.
