About the Program

1. What is Fair Fares NYC?

Fair Fares NYC is a City program that helps New Yorkers with low incomes manage their transportation costs. Using Fair Fares NYC, eligible New York City residents receive a 50% discount on subway and eligible bus fares, or 50% off Access-A-Ride Paratransit trips.

Back to Top

2. Is Fair Fares NYC (FFNYC) switching from MetroCard to a One Metro New York (OMNY) Card?

Yes. FFNYC is no longer sending Fair Fares MetroCards (FFMs). If you have an FFM, you may use it until one of the following happens (whichever happens first):

- a) the card expires (the expiration date is on the back of the card);
- b) the card no longer works;
- c) the card gets deactivated; or
- d) you are no longer enrolled in the Fair Fares program.

You will receive your OMNY card in one of these ways:

- When you renew your FFNYC enrollment, we will send you a Fair Fares NYC OMNY Card (FFOC).
- If you report your MetroCard as lost, stolen, or damaged, FFNYC will replace it with an OMNY card.
- You may switch from MetroCard to OMNY at any time on ACCESS HRA.

Back to Top

3. Do I have to switch my FFNYC discount to OMNY?

Yes. OMNY is the new payment method and will replace MetroCard. You will need to use OMNY to ride on NYC Transit subways and local, limited and Select Bus Service (SBS) buses, Staten Island Railway, the Roosevelt Island Tram, and Hudson Rail Link bus service.

4. Can I transfer money from MetroCard to OMNY Card?

No. You cannot transfer money from your FFM to your FFOC. However, any balance on your FFM will remain available to you and can be used to ride subways and local, limited and Select Bus Service (SBS) buses, the Staten Island Railway, the Roosevelt Island Tram, and Hudson Rail Link bus service.

You must use the remaining balance on your MetroCard before the card expires or is canceled. Simply swipe or dip your MetroCard as you do today. You cannot transfer a balance from a full-fare MetroCard or a full-fare OMNY card to a FFM or FFOC.

Back to Top

5. How does Fair Fares NYC discount work?

Fair Fares NYC gives you a 50% discount on subway, eligible buses, or Access-A-Ride fares.

- Subways and Buses

With your Fair Fares NYC OMNY Card (FFOC), you can ride the subway and eligible buses for half price!

If you are eligible for Fair Fares NYC and you select the subway and bus discount, the City will give you an FFOC. The card will not have any money on it. You cannot use your FFOC until you add money to it.

Here are the ways that you can add money to your FFOC:

- In a subway station using an OMNY vending machine (just tap your card on the screen to get started).
- A store, pharmacy or check cashing location in your neighborhood (visit omny.info/retail to find one near you).
- Online or by phone with an OMNY account. Create a free account at omny.info/register or call 877-789-6669.

When you add money to your FFOC and tap the OMNY reader on the bus or subway it will deduct half the current fare. Each time you tap your card, you will only be charged half the current price for a single ride. That half-fare cost is deducted from your balance.

- Access-A-Ride

Access-A-Ride (AAR) customers do not use a Fair Fares OMNY card. Their discount is applied automatically! AAR cards are distributed by the MTA. If you have any questions about AAR, visit their website at <https://new.mta.info/accessibility/access-a-ride> or call 877-337-2017.
