

NYC Office of Civil Justice’s Programs to Provide Universal Access to Legal Services for Tenants Facing Eviction

In 2017, the New York City Council passed local law 136, now codified as Chapter 13 of Title 26 of the NYC Administrative Code, also known as New York City’s historic Universal Access to Counsel Law, which tasks the Office of Civil Justice (OCJ) with providing access to legal services for tenants facing eviction in housing court or termination of tenancy in New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) administrative proceedings. The law requires that the Civil Justice Coordinator hold an annual public hearing to receive recommendations and feedback about these programs.
