To prevent customers from smoking outside in areas where smoke could enter apartments or businesses nearby, the dispensary can implement several measures:

1. Post clear and prominent signs outside the dispensary and in nearby areas prohibiting smoking, especially near entrances, windows, and ventilation systems of apartments and businesses.
2. Employ staff to monitor the exterior of the dispensary. They can politely remind customers of the no-smoking policy and direct them to appropriate smoking areas if necessary.
4. Educate customers about the importance of respecting the local community by not smoking in inappropriate areas. This can be done through verbal reminders, printed materials, or digital signage within the dispensary.
5. Work with local businesses and residents to address any concerns about smoking. Regularly review and update policies based on feedback from the community to ensure they remain effective.
6. Ensure compliance with local laws and ordinances regarding smoking in public spaces. Partner with local authorities to enforce these regulations if needed.

These measures will help maintain a positive relationship with the local community and prevent smoke from becoming a nuisance to nearby residents and businesses.

Community Impact Plan

We aim to support residents of our local community who have been disproportionately impacted by past cannabis laws, especially low-income individuals and minorities.

Community Benefits

We will provide workforce opportunities by prioritizing local hires, community resources through partnerships and educational programs. Additionally, we'll partner with local organizations to support educational programs and community events. Through these initiatives, we aim to create meaningful economic and social benefits for the community.

Implementation Plan

We will hold monthly workshops, quarterly job fairs, and maintain ongoing partnerships with local nonprofits to engage the community. Additionally we will collaborate with other dispensaries to create advocacy for individuals, particularly those most affected by cannabis-related convictions. Our plan addresses economic and social disparities by providing jobs and resources to those impacted by past cannabis laws.

Measuring Success

Success will be measured through quarterly tracking of job placements, workshop attendance, and community feedback. Both qualitative and quantitative metrics will guide our approach such as:

- Number of jobs created within the community.
- Attendance at workshops and events.
- Number of individuals receiving legal aid or counseling services.
- Community feedback through surveys.
- Success stories from program participants.

We'll compile and review data every three months to assess progress and make necessary adjustments.

Record keeping:

- Partnerships: Signed agreements with local groups and Community-Based Organizations.
- Sign-in sheets, photos, and summaries of workshops and job fairs.
- Feedback: Surveys and comments from community members
