PRESIDENT'S SON FACES INDICTMENT ON TAX CHARGES

9 COUNTS OF EVASION

Republicans on Cusp of Biden Impeachment
Inquiry Vote

By GLENN THRUSH and MICHAEL S. SCHMIDT
WASHINGTON — A federal grand jury charged Hunter Biden on Thursday with a scheme to evade federal taxes on millions in income from foreign businesses, the second indictment against him this year and major new development in a case Republicans have made the cornerstone of a possible impeachment of President Biden.
Mr. Biden, the president's son, faces three counts each of evasion of a tax assessment, failure to file and pay taxes, and filing a false or fraudulent tax return, according to the 56-page indictment — a withering play-by-play of personal indulgence with potentially enormous political costs for his father.
The charges came five months after he appeared to be on the verge of a plea deal that would have avoided jail time and potentially granted him broad immunity for any crimes stemming from his business dealings. But the agreement collapsed at the last minute, and in September, he was indicted in Delaware on three charges stemming from his illegal purchase of a handgun in 2018, a period when he used drugs heavily and was prohibited from owning a firearm.
The tax charges have always been the more serious element of the inquiry by the special counsel, David C. Weiss, who began investigating the president's son five years ago as the Trump-appointed U.S. attorney for Delaware. Mr.

Secrets Recovered on Battlefield Assist Israel's Pursuit of Hamas

By ADAM GOLDMAN
TEL AVIV — Since the terrorist attacks on Oct. 7, Israel has recovered a trove of intelligence that its military has used to assess the extent of Hamas's plans, as well as its battle tactics and abilities, information that Israeli officials say has helped shape the war in Gaza.
At the sites of attacks in Israel and battles in Gaza, the military has found items that detail the location of Hamas training sites and tunnels, including the use of a...

Texas Abortion Gets Approval, In a Rare Case

One of First Court Tests in Post-Roe Nation

By NICHOLE LINDQUIST

HOUSTON, Tex. — A Texas judge granted approval Thursday to allow an abortion, despite the state's strict ban, marking the first of a handful of similar rulings since the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade.

The case is believed to be among the first to be decided by a state court in the wake of the Supreme Court's decision. It is the first time a state court has ruled in favor of an abortion since the Supreme Court's decision.

The judge, Judge Robert Parker, ruled that the state's ban on abortions after 15 weeks of pregnancy was unconstitutional. He said the ban violated the state's constitution, which guarantees the right to privacy.

The judge's decision is expected to be appealed to the state supreme court. The state supreme court is expected to hear the case in the coming months.

Secrets Recovered on Battlefield Assist Israel's Pursuit of Hamas

Real-Time Intelligence Includes Tunnel Sites and Attack Plans

TEL AVIV — Israeli forces have recovered a cache of intelligence that includes real-time information on Hamas' military operations, including the locations of tunnels and attack plans, according to a senior Israeli official.

The intelligence was recovered from a cache of documents and other materials found on a battlefield in Gaza. It includes information on Hamas' military structure, including the names of commanders and the locations of their bases.

The intelligence also includes information on Hamas' attack plans, including the locations of tunnels and the timing of attacks. This information is expected to be used by Israeli forces to target Hamas' military operations.

PRESIDENT'S SON FACES INDICTMENT ON TAX CHARGES

9 COUNTS OF EVASION

Republicans on Camp of Biden Impairment Inquiry Vote

By GLENN THORNTON and MICHAEL S. SCHMIDT

WASHINGTON — A federal grand jury charged President Biden's son, Hunter Biden, with a variety of tax evasion charges on Thursday, including failing to report income and concealing assets.

The charges include nine counts of tax evasion, including failing to report income and concealing assets. The charges are expected to be filed in the coming days.

The charges are part of a larger investigation into Hunter Biden's financial activities. The investigation is being led by the Department of Justice and the Internal Revenue Service.

The charges are expected to have a significant impact on the Biden family's reputation. They are also expected to have a significant impact on the Biden family's political prospects.
