

ELEVATOR REPLACEMENT

Jackson Heights/Roosevelt Ave 74 St-Broadway

Construction Bulletin

The MTA has initiated an elevator replacement project at Jackson Heights/Roosevelt Ave 74 St-Broadway Station to improve customer experience and modernize the transit system.

Construction Activities at Jackson Heights-Roosevelt/74 Street Station

Beginning on or about Wednesday, November 6, 2024

Citi Bike rack and curbside parking will be temporarily removed on 75th Street between Roosevelt Avenue and Broadway, in Queens, to accommodate a 90-foot construction staging area. The sidewalk and crosswalk will remain open at all times. Elevator 420 at Roosevelt Ave & 74 St (SE corner) to Manhattan-bound 7 mezzanine, Flushing Main St-bound 7 platform, and transfer mezzanine for access to E/F/M/R service will be removed from service for replacement. Elevator 423 from mezzanine to Manhattan-bound 7 platform will be removed from service for replacement. These temporary changes are anticipated to be in place until Q2 of 2025.

Location of construction staging area on 75th Street between Roosevelt Avenue and Broadway