who we are & what we do

Who we are, what we do

LIC Artists, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit arts advocacy organization founded by artists and incorporated in 1986 in Long Island City. Originally located in a studio/ loft complex above a paper factory, LIC-A began producing art exhibitions and events, originated the Open Studios Annuals in 1985 and has continued since in providing professional development opportunities for artists.

Our members are professional artists from Long Island City as well as elsewhere in Queens. Their creative art is as diverse and exciting as the borough in which they work.

LIC-A's programs are enabled largely through the volunteer work of our member artists and supported by grants and donations. Our achievements for more than a quarter of a century as a Queens organization have been extensive. We are committed to broadening our community of artists, and expanding the audience for art produced in Queens through exhibitions, classes, and special projects and events.

We invite you to explore the examples of our members' works and their personal statements:
www.licartists.org

We welcome you to join LIC-A and share your creative ideas and efforts in building a strong and unique artists' community.

Working with local organizations

LIC-A strives to collaborate with other local organizations to increase the visibility and opportunities for local artists and arts organizations. Working with a variety of arts organizations and curators gives us a variety of perspectives and evolving mix of creativity that can be shared with our communities.

For our last two exhibitions we partnered with LIC Arts Open & Fountain House.

LIC-A has always had exhibitions in a variety of spaces including, Atlantic Gallery in Chelsea, Flushing Town Hall in Queens, Queens College, LaGuardia Community College, The Falchi Building, LIC, Citibank Community Windows, Plaxall Gallery, and Local Project etc.
