Old Business

Arthur Kill Road flooding continues to cripple Tottenville. In December the entire road was flooded by Mill Creek. Applications for warehouse development bringing truck traffic to the neighborhood should not be permitted.

New Business

- There is confusion regarding mapped city streets that the city does not have title to. Many of these streets are in disrepair and the Staten Island DOT Borough Commissioner maintains that DOT is not responsible to maintain them.
- Owen Reiter announced the passing of Joe Albano, a prominent figure in the Staten Island DOT office many years ago. He cared about Staten Island very much and was very helpful with DOT matters.
- Is the City still installing Speed Humps? Yes, you must contact DOT directly. Requests to not come through the Community Board anymore.

Respectfully submitted,

Danny Venuto, Chair
