COMMISSION HEARING

1 MR. PERALES: Good evening. Am I being 2 heard? Again, good evening. I'm delighted to be 3 here in Staten Island for the first public
4 hearing of the 2018 Charter Revision Commission.
5 Before we get into the substance of what we're 6 doing, I would like to call on our host 7 Commissioner Mendy Mirocznik to say a word or 8 two. Mendy.

9 MR. MIROCZNIK: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
10 Thank you honorable committee. Thank you
11 audience public who are here this evening.
12 Staten Island is a wonderful place. It's a 13 passionate community with hardworking people who 14 care about community, family, society and major 15 issues. And tonight we see a nice turnout of the 16 public who take civics very seriously. I served 17 as the president of COJO, which is the umbrella 18 organization for the Jewish community. And 19 besides working within our community, we do 20 interfaith outreach work. We bridge all the 21 communities together. And on behalf of Staten
22 Island and COJO and the JCC which serves as a 23 board member, we thank you Mr. Chairman. We 24 thank you honorable committee for coming out to 25 my island tonight. Thanks everybody.

COMMISSION HEARING

1 MR. PERALES: And we thank you for not just 2 hosting us tonight, but for agreeing to serve on 3 the commission. I know that the Mayor was very 4 pleased. I'm going to ask the commissioners to 5 introduce themselves. Why don't I start with 6 Marco on that end if I can. Tell the audience 7 what you do for a living or something.

8 MR. CARRION: Sure. Good evening everyone.
9 My name is Marco Carrion and I currently serve as 10 commissioner of the Mayor's community affairs 11 unit.

12 MS. GREENBERGER: Good evening. I'm Sharon 13 Greenberger. I'm the president and CEO of the 14 YMCA of Greater New York.

15 MS. SEECHARRAN: Hello and good evening. My 16 name is Annetta Seecharran. I'm the executive 17 director of CIA Community Development
18 Corporation.

19 MR. MIROCZNIK: It's Mendy Mirocznik again.
20 Good evening everybody.

21 MR. SCISSURA: Good evening. Carlo
22 Scissura. President and CEO of the New York
23 Building Congress.

24 MR. BRAGG: Good evening. I'm Kyle Bragg.
25 I'm the secretary and treasurer of 165,000 member

COMMISSION HEARING

1 SEIU 32BJ Property Service Union.

2 MR. PERALES: I failed to introduce myself.
3 I'm Cesar Perales. I'm honored to serve as chair
4 of the commission. I recently stepped down as 5 secretary of State of New York. But I've had a 6 number of positions in both government and civil 7 rights as an advocate.

8 MR. SIEGAL: Good evening. My name is John 9 Siegal. I'm a practicing lawyer in Manhattan.
10 Partner in the law firm of Baker and Hostetler.

11 MS. CLARKE: Good evening. I'm Una Clarke.
12 I am current trustee for the City University of 13 New York. A former member of the New York City
14 Council and pleased to able to serve on this 15 commission. But formerly I was the educational 16 consultant for Staten Island. So all of your 17 head start, I was the chief trainer.

18 MR. HO: Good evening. My name is Dale Ho.
19 I currently serve as the director of the ACLU 20 voting rights project.

21 MS. WEISER: Hello. I am Wendy Weiser. I 22 am the director of the democracy program at the 23 Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law.

24 MS. ANGELO: I'm Larian Angelo. I'm a 25 former budget person for the mayor and for the

COMMISSION HEARING

1 City Council. And I am currently a research
2 fellow of the institute for state and local 3 governance and a proud graduate of Curtis High 4 School.

5 MR. PERALES: Will Commissioner Fernandez
6 introduce yourself.

7 MS. FERNANDEZ: Good evening. Apologies for 8 my tardiness. My name is Angela Fernandez. I'm 9 the executive director and supervising attorney 10 of the Northern Manhattan Coalition for Immigrant 11 Rights. I also serve as a mayor's designee on 12 the CCRB, Civilian Complaint Review Board.

13 MR. PERALES: It is clear to me that we have 14 a quorum. We're almost all here, which rarely 15 happens. So I think it's a reflection of our 16 interest in hearing from the folks in Staten 17 Island.

18 Just so you'll understand what our role is,
19 the mayor of the City of New York who served as a 20 mayor has the opportunity to appoint a 21 commission, which they do every several years, to 22 review the city charter. That's the city's 23 constitution in essence. And our role is to 24 listen to the people who come to our hearings and 25 who write us questions and to talk to experts and

COMMISSION HEARING

1 to come up with recommendations for amending the 2 city charter. Those recommendations are then 3 presented to the citizens in November when they 4 vote. So that we recommend and ultimately you 5 the citizens of our city decide whether or not 6 you will adopt our recommendations to revise or 7 amend the charter.

8 Having said that, we review the entire 9 charter. Everything that is in the charter. But 10 every mayor has a particular interest. Mayor De 11 Blasio is interested in how our democracy works, 12 how our elections work. And he's looking to us
13 to engage you on questions of how our elections 14 ought to be held. How much money should be 15 involved. How could we get more people to vote.
16 Those issues are of particular interest, and 17 we're hoping to learn as much as we can about how 18 to make our city more democratic.

19 For the record, we have conducted extensive 20 outreach in advance of this meeting. We have 21 filed all the legal notices. We've posted public 22 notices in the city record. Posted hearing 23 notices on our own website. And we've sent 24 notices to media outlets, not just to Staten 25 Island, but throughout the city. We are now on

COMMISSION HEARING

1 Facebook and Twitter. You can follow us on 2 Twitter at NYCCharter. And rest assured we're 3 going to continue to ensure that we get as much 4 outreach as possible. As an example, we've 5 already posted a video of our first 6 organizational meeting. It is now available on 7 our website. We also have sign language
8 interpreters. And for those who need it, we have 9 Spanish language interpreters. I want to thank 10 the staff. I'll just run through their names to 11 assure you that they are very important to our 12 function. Candace Cho, Josh Stitz, Sabrina Fong, 13 Christine Billing, Aaron Bloom, Quami Acuasha, 14 Essence Franklin, Michael Shacki and Bruce 15 Thomas.

16 We're going to have four other meetings 17 after this. We're going to in the Bronx at the 18 Bronx Community College. In Queens, Queens
19 library in Flushing. Brooklyn at the Botanical 20 Garden in Brooklyn and in Manhattan at the New 21 York Public Library. We're also hoping to hold 22 neighborhood meetings after the first round of 23 what we call our borough hearings. I don't want 24 to go through the rest of the schedule. It is 25 available on our website.

COMMISSION HEARING

1 I'm looking forward to hearing testimony.

2 What we're going to do is, we're going to 3 call three at a time. You'll come and take the 4 chairs there and we will hear from each of you.

5 Alex Camarda from the Reinvent Albany.

6 Linda Baran from the Staten Island Chamber of 7 Commerce, and Mary Bourne from the Housing
8 Dignity Coalition. If you'll come forward. You 9 have the floor.

10 MR. CAMARDA: Good evening. I just want to 11 make sure this is on. Good evening Chair Perales 12 and members of the charter revision commission.
13 My name is Alex Camarda. I'm the senior policy
14 advisor for Reinvent Albany. Reinvent Albany 15 advocates for transparency and accountability in 16 state government. We are the leading champions
17 for transparency of New York City government, 18 particularly the freedom of information law and 19 open data. We will present detailed 20 recommendations at future hearings of the 21 commission, but wanted to comment tonight on two 22 overarching issues as the commission begins its 23 work.

24 First is the scope of the work that the 25 commission takes on. The second when changes to

COMMISSION HEARING

1 campaign finance law should become effective. So
2 first I'm going to talk about the commission
3 scope of work. As was mentioned, the municipal 4 home rule law requires the commission review the 5 entirety of the city charter. Although Mayor De 6 Blasio has requested the commission particularly 7 focus on campaign finance reform and increasing 8 public funding of campaigns. The good news is 9 that the city's campaign finance system, 30 years 10 in the making, is a model for governments across 11 the country. We support changes to improve the 12 city's already strong campaign finance system.
13 But New York City has a ways to go before it 14 curbs the perception of an undue influence of 15 money on government decision making. As the 16 city's campaign finance system has gotten 17 stronger over the years, money has flowed outside 18 of the system. Today we believe the fastest 19 growing area of outside influence, and in some 20 instances corruption risk, is from people doing 21 business for seeking favors from government
22 contributing to nonprofit organizations 23 affiliated with government. We ask the 24 commission to take a close look at the large 25 unregulated contributions. In some instances

COMMISSION HEARING

1 over a million dollars and often tens of 2 thousands given by companies, individuals and 3 others doing business with the city to the city
4 affiliated nonprofits, city agencies and other
5 city offices. We believe there are well over a 6 hundred city affiliated nonprofits. However,
7 there's no public listing. We ask the commission
8 to consider significantly restricting donations
9 to city affiliated nonprofits and city agencies 10 by companies and individuals doing business with 11 the city, and greatly increase the transparency 12 of these donations. Currently there's not nearly 13 enough transparency for contributions to 14 nonprofits tied to city government.
15 Contributions of $5,000 or more are disclosed 16 every six months. And the amounts reported are 17 provided in seven broad ranges rather than the 18 actual amount of the donation. In some instances 19 contributions are not disclosed by agencies to 20 the public at all. There's a separate process 21 for making contributions anonymous.
22 Additionally, the conflicts of interest board, 23 which regulates this, releases the information in 24 a very large 500 plus page PDF instead of a
25 tabular form that can be reviewed in a

COMMISSION HEARING

1 spreadsheet. Thereby making it very difficult 2 for outside groups and journalists to analyze the 3 donations. We also urge the commission to review 4 conflicts of interest potentially created when 5 city officials help fund raise for city 6 affiliated and unaffiliated nonprofits and also 7 city agencies. The current restrictions on fund
8 raising for city agencies, city affiliated 9 nonprofits and unaffiliated nonprofits are 10 nuanced and complicated, but ultimately too
11 permissive and very challenging to enforce.
12 Reinvent Albany is particularly concerned about 13 the role of volunteer fundraisers for city 14 affiliated nonprofits who are not subject to 15 conflicts of interest board laws or advisory 16 opinions. Second issue I wanted to go over was 17 the effective dates of any campaign finance
18 reform. We expect the commission will propose 19 changes to the campaign finance system, given the 20 priority by the Mayor. We ask the commission to 21 keep in mind the unprecedented administrative 22 challenges faced by the campaign finance board in 23 2021, the next regular city election. 41 council 24 seats and all citywide borough wide offices will 25 be vacant. We anticipate as many as 300 to 400

COMMISSION HEARING

1 candidates are expected to run for office, which 2 will require the campaign finance board to 3 provide extensive candidate services and handle 4 an enormous volume of post election audits of 5 every campaign. Because of this extraordinary
6 workload, Reinvent Albany recommends that major
7 proposed changes to the city's campaign finance 8 system made by the commission be phased in over 9 time. This could be done by eliminating the 10 implementation of changes to city wide offices in 11 2021 or in all offices in 2023. The 12 redistricting term of two years from 2022 to 2023 13 limits the delay in implementing changes while 14 reducing the burden on the campaign finance board 15 to smoothly administer the 2021 elections. We 16 believe it is better to implement changes 17 smoothly when the campaign finance board has 18 adequate time and organizational capacity rather 19 than overwhelm the agency during an unprecedented 20 election in 2021. There's no pressing needs to 21 hurry changes in 2021 instead of just two years
22 later. Thank you for the opportunity to testify 23 this evening and for your service. And we 24 welcome any questions you may have.

25 MR. PERALES: I'm going to ask the

COMMISSION HEARING

1 commission if they have any questions? But I
2 just want you to clarify something for me. You
3 are suggesting that we not change anything
4 related to campaign financing before this coming
5 election? I'm not sure I understood your point 6 about making gradual changes.

7 MR. CAMARDA: We support improvements to the 8 City's campaign finance law. What we're 9 suggesting is that the effective date of those 10 solutions, not the entire, wait for the next 11 regular city election which is in 2021, because 12 of the number of vacant seats and hundreds of 13 candidates potentially running for office.

14 MR. PERALES: I understand. In other words, 15 you're saying we should look at it, but not put 16 them in place for the next election in 2021?
17 Phase them in somehow?

18 MR. CAMARDA: Yes. We think maybe just 19 making changes for citywide offices is one way of 20 limiting the burden on the campaign finance 21 board. And we think that because of the 22 redistricting terms that's two years that takes 23 place every ten years. That's actually 24 convenient in that delaying the changes two more 25 years in the long run doesn't matter so much. It

COMMISSION HEARING

1 won't be delayed four years as it otherwise would 2 be.

3 MS. FERNANDEZ: I have a question. Angela
4 Fernandez.

5 How does Reinvent Albany define a city
6 affiliated nonprofit?

7 MR. CAMARDA: So it's not so much how we 8 define it. I think it's more important as to how 9 the city defines it. And that's something that 10 we were seeking clarity on. We've looked at this 11 issue at some level of depth. But I think 12 obviously a greater examination is needed by the 13 commission. But I think that's a key issue. I 14 think for us the affiliation means the control.
15 So we would look for factors like elective
16 officials or city officials choosing board
17 members, serving as board members, providing a 18 disproportionate amount of funding. Whether the 19 nonprofits were carrying a governmental purpose.
20 Whether the nonprofits are subject to some of the 21 laws that an agency would otherwise be subject 22 to. For example, the freedom of information law, 23 open meetings laws, procurement practices, these 24 are all factors we think should be looked at, if 25 they're not already. I imagine there's an

1 official city definition affiliated, but I think 2 that's a very important point, and obviously the 3 stronger the affiliation the more concern about 4 contributions. We are not concerned about 5 donations to unaffiliated nonprofits by people
6 who don't have ties to the city. And similarly 7 we're not concerned about donations by companies 8 or individuals to the city who do not have 9 business with the city.

10 MR. PERALES: I was about to ask a followup
11 question on your question.

12 Can you give me an example of an affiliated 13 nonprofit that comes to mind?

14 MR. CAMARDA: Sure. We believe there's over 15 a hundred city affiliated nonprofits.

16 MR. PERALES: Give me the name of one I 17 might be familiar with.

18 MR. CAMARDA: Sure. The mayor's fund is an 19 example. Another example is the -- there's -- 20 I'm forgetting the name, but there's an 21 association tied to the NY PD. That's a major 22 city affiliated nonprofit. There's several ties
23 to the Parks Department.

24 MS. WEISER: This is Wendy Weiser. With one 25 followup question on the city affiliated

1 nonprofits.

2 Do you have recommendations relating to 3 officeholder affiliated nonprofits separate from 4 city affiliated ones or do you define that as 5 part of city affiliated.

6 MR. CAMARDA: There was council legislation
7 passed in recent years that we think mostly 8 addresses elective officials' ties to nonprofits.
9 We're really looking at the nonprofits that are 10 tied to city agencies.

11 MR. SIEGAL: John Siegal. I have a question
12 about your suggestions regarding the campaign
13 finance board which I practice in front of a lot 14 over several decades. I was not surprised to 15 hear somebody argue that any changes in campaign 16 finance law should take place following the next 17 election. I've already been contacted by several 18 elected officials who will be candidates in 2121
19 making the same suggestion, but for a different 20 reason that they are now conducting themselves 21 based on the expectations of current law.
22 There's some real issues about retroactivity if 23 we're going to change them on this cycle. But I 24 am surprised to hear you say this is 25 administratively necessary for the campaign

1 finance board. Its audit function takes place
2 largely after the next election. I'm not clear 3 on what you think they can't implement. If we 4 were to change, for example, the contribution 5 limits or any other line item, why is that hard 6 for their auditors to do. They're just applying 7 whatever rule is in effect as of the audit date.
8 So I don't understand the workload argument?

9 MR. CAMARDA: I think you're right, for 10 example, with contributions where that would 11 probably pose less of a burden than other 12 changes. There are other proposals that are put 13 forth before the City Council that I think the 14 changes would be a tougher task for the campaign 15 finance board to take on. I do want to make 16 clear, we're simply saying that the commission 17 should consider the administrative workload.
18 We're not saying that the commission should not 19 put forth reforms and that some of those reforms
20 should not take place in the next election.
21 We're just saying that it's something to keep 22 into account as you decide which reforms to put 23 before the voters.

24 MR. PERALES: Right. One of the issues I 25 always had with the campaign finance board is

1 that their resources are relatively constant
2 during a four year cycle and need to ramp up
3 around election years and just after election
4 years. And certainly we should keep that in mind 5 in terms of the impact and anything that we do we 6 should support their ability to get the job done,
7 which may result in other issues. So I
8 appreciate the suggestion in that regard.

9 MR. CAMARDA: Thank you.

10 MR. PERALES: Are there any other questions?
11 Thank you for your testimony.

12 MR. CAMARDA: Thank you.

13 MS. BARON: Good evening, Commissioner. I
14 would like to thank Chairman Perales and the team 15 that's up here today for listening to us tonight.
16 I'm going to go in a little bit of a different 17 direction.

18 My name is Linda Baran, I'm the president of 19 Staten Island Chamber of Commerce. We represent 20 about 700 businesses here with about 20,000
21 employees. I would like to ask that you take a 22 comprehensive look at the charter. One of the 23 main issues that we see here on Staten Island is 24 the lack of local control. And that's across all 25 five boroughs. We've had numerous situations out

COMMISSION HEARING

1 here where -- we have very limited
2 representatives. We have three City Council
3 members. We have a borough president. I know 4 that when the board of estimate was in place, the 5 borough president had a lot more power. We can't 6 get things done. I'm sure the situation is 7 similar in other boroughs. You get a stop sign 8 put in or a street wide without waiting an 9 enormous amount of time. After Super Storm Sandy 10 hit Staten Island, there were numerous 11 recommendations from Borough Hall in terms of how 12 to handle that situation with the actual, like, 13 relocation of some of the housing. Five years 14 later, some of those people are even back in 15 their houses right now. Transportation 16 infrastructure planning. I would like to 17 recommend that the commission look at giving some 18 local control back to the boroughs and also 19 looking at a master plan for each of the 20 boroughs. Creating some type of a situation 21 where we can have a master plan so that we 22 literally can look into and make recommendations 23 for our own boroughs, because one size does not 24 fit all. Staten Island has been left out of the 25 five borough -- well, it's now called the five

COMMISSION HEARING

1 borough ferry plan, but the fast ferries. We 2 have limited transit options. We have a lot of 3 development here, but we don't have the 4 infrastructure to support it. In terms of 5 getting more people engaged, I think a lot of the 6 public hearings that we have out here, the reason
7 that people don't come out and vote and attend 8 some of the hearings, because they're disengaged.
9 They feel like it doesn't make a difference if 10 they show up to say anything. Because they feel 11 like the powers that be in Manhattan are making 12 the decisions and no matter what they say is not 13 heard. Thank you very much. I appreciate the 14 time tonight.

15 MR. PERALES: Let me just take the first 16 question so I understand.

17 When you talk about local control in the 18 past, your borough president had more control 19 over things like stop signs et cetera?

20 MS. BARAN: From what I understand, this is 21 before my day, there was a board of estimate that 22 was in place. And the board of estimate, the 23 borough president sat on that and had a very 24 specific say. Now a lot of the say, especially 25 when it comes to planning, goes through the

1 community board with a recommendation through the 2 City Council. There's a process for it, but the 3 borough president's office has become more of a 4 cheerleader for the borough. Where legislatively
5 they can't do much to make change.

6 MR. PERALES: Right.

7 MR. SCISSURA: Hi, Linda. I had the 8 pleasure of working with Linda when I was at the 9 chamber. Carlo Scissura.

10 I think one of the things we've heard over 11 the years, and this was brought up in the 2010
12 charter review commission, was how do you 13 strengthen maybe not necessarily the role of the 14 borough president or the role of the council or 15 the role of the community board. But how do you
16 bring it more together. So one of the byproducts 17 of the 89 big charter review was to create 18 something called borough boards. And the borough 19 boards were created to do exactly that. To have 20 local input with the borough president, with the 21 council, and with other state office holders. I 22 think it is worth this commission looking at what 23 is the role of the borough board? And is there a 24 way of making that more of a locally strengthened 25 entity? And I think this is something that we

COMMISSION HEARING

1 will hear in other boroughs. I think you will 2 hear it more in Staten Island when he come back.
3 But it is something that I know we've commented 4 on in our finding sections in 2010.

5 MR. PERALES: We have the advantages of 6 somebody who served on the charter revision
7 commission last time around in 2010. So I think 8 it's useful. But thank you very much for your 9 comments.

10 MR. SCISSURA: Thank you, Linda.

11 MR. BARAN: Thank you.

12 MS. BOURNE: Good evening, Commissioner.
13 Good evening everyone. Thank you for this 14 opportunity to testify before you. My name is 15 Mary Bourne. I am a deacon at First Central 16 Baptist Church and a member of the Housing 17 Dignity Coalition. The coalition is a group of 18 faith based leaders. Our goal is to make sure 19 that affordable housing is maintained on Staten 20 Island. We're currently in the process of a lot 21 of planning for rezoning especially around the 22 Bay Street area. And the coalition has discussed 23 the plan that the department of city planning has 24 setup. In discussing this with a lot of the 25 members of our churches, we get a lot of concern

COMMISSION HEARING

1 from the congregates that the prospect of being 2 able to afford to live after this rezoning is 3 done to afford the rent is becoming more scarce.
4 We've met with several people in the families who 5 already complained that landlords are already 6 increasing rent. And as you know, there are so 7 many families that are on this north shore that 8 are already rent burdened. So we're really 9 concerned about the effects of this rezoning and 10 how it will affect our north shore families that 11 have been here for so many years. I also want to 12 include the fact that the public -- the use 13 public land. And we're also concerned that 14 public land, and we have very few pieces of 15 public land left that's owned by the city, that 16 they're not giving over to private developers so 17 that they can create affordable housing. And our 18 target is to not only have affordable housing, 19 but deep affordable housing as this plan goes 20 forward.

21 MR. PERALES: Any comments from any of the 22 commissioners?

23 I think we know the issue of housing 24 affordability is a major issue in the city. It's 25 something we expect to hear wherever we go. But

COMMISSION HEARING

1 I thank you for your testimony.

2 We may have a question.

3 MR. BRAGG: I have a question. Thank you.

4 Kyle Bragg.

5 I was wondering if there's an issue with the 6 revitalization of current affordable housing. Is 7 that also of equal concern and is the current 8 affordable housing adequate for the current 9 population?

10 MS. BOURNE: Well, according to the plan,
11 the affordability is not deep enough. We're 12 talking families that earn an income between, I 13 would say, $25,000 and $35,000 annually. And the 14 plan targets families that are earning $52,000
15 annually. So it leaves a pretty large percentage 16 of the families that currently reside on the 17 north shore.

18 MR. PERALES: Thank you all very much.

19 I'm going to call three other people to the 20 desk. Brendon Clarke from NYPIRG. Marjorie 21 Gardner, the organization is Black Homes is a 22 Thing, and Kim Hinkson.

23 MR. CLARKE: Good evening. Thank you for 24 holding this public hearing. My name is Brendon 25 Clarke. I'm the project coordinator at the

1 College of Staten Island for New York public
2 interest research group or NYPIRG. I'm 3 delivering testimony on behalf of Megan Adhern,
4 NYPIRG's program director. I will briefly review
5 five keys ways the city can offer greater 6 services and opportunities for voters with a 7 passage of amendment to the city's charter. More 8 information is provided in the printed testimony.

9 First establish same day voter registration
10 for city elections. Each year just as interest 11 in elections and candidates begins to peak 12 potential voters fight the deadline for 13 registering to vote has already passed. We 14 already know that participation has fallen to 15 shocking low levels.

16 MR. PERALES: Would you turn the mic to you.

17 MR. CLARKE: Is that better?

18 MR. PERALES: Much better. What did you say 19 about getting voters to do what?

20 MR. CLARKE: Yes. Absolutely. The first 21 thing is to establish same day voter registration 22 for city elections. Each year just as the 23 elections and interest in them is beginning to 24 peak, potential voters find that the deadline for 25 registering to vote has already passed. And we

1 all do know that voter participation in New York
2 City has fallen to shockingly low levels. We 3 would encourage the city to do the same day or no
4 registration as states that have inputted them 5 traditionally have the highest voter turn out in 6 the country.

7 Second, to establish automatic registration
8 for city elections by automatically registering
9 eligible clients who interact with city agency 10 databases. The system enfranchises many who 11 might not register in time before the election.
12 Provisions would have to be made to accommodate a 13 dual registration system. But automatic 14 registration is particularly important for the 15 city due to the shortcomings that exist with the 16 states motor voter law implementation. While 17 voters who interact with DMV enjoy a form of 18 automatic registration. This opportunity maybe 19 depressed for voters in the city who hold fewer 20 licenses. Third, implement instant runoff voting
21 for citywide primary elections. Allowing primary 22 voters to not only vote for the candidate of 23 their choice, but to rank in order of preference
24 the other candidates as well would enfranchise
25 absentee voters. There's simply not enough time

COMMISSION HEARING

1 for the board of elections to turn around and 2 runoff absentee ballots by the election. In low 3 turnout elections, such as a municipal runoff, is 4 absentee voters can easily be the margin of 5 victory or defeat. The commission should propose
6 the implementation of the IRV for citywide
7 municipal primaries at an absolute minimum IRVs 8 should be introduced for all absentee ballots.
9 Something municipal primaries for citywide
10 positions. Fourth, establish early voting for 11 municipal elections. NYPIRG believes early 12 voting holds potential for increasing voter 13 participation. One important question is whether 14 there is an advantage for having voters cast 15 their ballots on election day when the latest 16 information about candidates and races is 17 available. Another concern is whether early 18 voting has dampened turnout for low turnout
19 elections. We would urge the commission to study 20 these issues and present their findings to the 21 public before deciding on how to implement early 22 voting for the city. And fifth, to make the 23 city's voter guide more useful. The 1988 charter 24 revision process established the city's motor 25 guide. We applaud the campaign finance board for

COMMISSION HEARING

1 embracing and improving the guide since then.
2 But we suggest that the guide include district
3 attorneys and any state legislative races
4 occurring in the municipal election years and I 5 urge the commission to consider acquiring the 6 publication of a hardcopy guide for state and 7 federal races as well. Thank you for the 8 opportunity to testify and we look forward to the 9 conversations on these issues.

10 MR. PERALES: Before I turn it over to 11 commissioners who I know want to comment on your 12 suggestions. There is a major issue. The board 13 of elections is a state agency. So some of the 14 things your recommending are very attractive to 15 us, but we cannot implement on our own. But 16 we're going to try to find ways to meet the goals
17 that you're suggesting we pursue. Even though 18 we're going to have to very carefully study the 19 powers that the City of New York has and the city
20 charter, and the powers of New York State board 21 of elections. With that I'll throw it open.

22 Dale, did you have a question?

23 MR. HO: For the court reporter this is Dale 24 Ho. I just have a question, and if you don't 25 know the answer that's all right.

COMMISSION HEARING

1 What if anything do you know about the legal 2 authority that the city would have to have a 3 different registration deadline from the rest of 4 the state or an automatic registration policy
5 just for the municipal elections or early voting 6 just for municipal offices?

7 MR. CLARKE: Unfortunately I don't know the 8 answer to that. But I can consult with our 9 program director and get back to you with an 10 answer.

11 MR. HO: No problem. Just as a practical
12 matter. Let's take early voting for example. I
13 think candidly as a policy matter, I'm in favor 14 of reformed early voting registration, automatic 15 registration. Those three in particular that you 16 mentioned. If we had early voting for municipal 17 elections, if someone came to vote early to cast 18 a ballot in municipal elections, would they have 19 to come back at -- I mean only for the municipal 20 elections. Not for state and federal, is that 21 your proposal?

22 MR. CLARKE: That's correct. That is our 23 proposal.

24 MR. SCISSURA: I'm Carlo Scissura. I just 25 wanted to clarify. I didn't hear what you said

1 for your fourth point. Just the first line.

2 MR. CLARKE: That we believe that early
3 voting holds potential for increase in voter 4 participation.

5 MR. SCISSURA: I'm intrigued by the instant
6 runoff idea. Can you explain to me how a voter 7 would actually cast their ballot on an instant 8 runoff. Probably nobody in this room or some of 9 you may remember school board elections where you 10 go and you rank 1, 2, 3. I happen to run in one
11 of those, and I remember you were able to cast 12 your ballot once. You ranked an order of 13 preference and then you left. And you never had 14 to go back. So are you looking at a similar idea 15 for that?

16 MR. CLARKE: Yes. Precisely. When an 17 absentee voter would fill out the ballot for the 18 first time, they would rank in order of their 19 preference for the candidate. In an instance of 20 a runoff, their vote would automatically go to 21 their highest ranked candidate that's in the 22 runoff election.

23 MR. SCISSURA: So when we go to vote on the 24 machine, we would actually rank one John Smith, 25 two Mary Smith and three et cetera.

1 MR. HART: That's correct, sir.

2 MR. PERALES: That may be something within 3 our purview. I know that it's been discussed
4 many times. That it was actually something that 5 was raised with a prior commission. Preferential 6 voting is another way of describing it. Instant 7 runoff that is something that we are very 8 interested in talking about. Anyone else?

9 MS. FERNANDEZ: Angela Fernandez. In your 10 second point you mentioned automatic 11 registration. But I couldn't hear exactly where 12 that would happen or how that would happen? I'm 13 familiar with it at the state level, but at the 14 city level, how could that happen?

15 MR. CLARKE: Yeah, absolutely. It would 16 occur when a potential voter interacts with the 17 city agencies. For example, currently people 18 have the opportunity to register to vote in a 19 form of automatic voter registration when they 20 signup for a driver's license. Unfortunately not 21 a lot of people in the city drive and there are 22 actually 300,000 less female driver's license 23 holders in the states than there are men with 24 600,000 more women. So it does discriminate
25 against women in some forms as well.

COMMISSION HEARING

1 MS. FERNANDEZ: I guess the followup
2 question is, what city agencies would you imagine
3 could be the place where one could go in and say
4 I'm going to do a particular function at a city
5 agency and I also want to register to vote.

6 MR. CLARKE: I don't have a specific answer
7 for you, but I can consult with our program
8 director and get back to you. But generally 9 anyone is available.

10 MR. PERALES: How about a marriage license?
11 You get married only if you register to vote.

12 Anyone else with a silly comment? Someone's 13 concerned what happens when you get divorced, do 14 you lose your right to vote? Thank you very 15 much.

16 MS. GARDNER: My name is Marjorie Gardner.
17 I've been fighting for 40 years in a community 18 that has practically been forgotten. I know my 19 City Council member does everything possible that 20 she can do to try to get the help to get a 21 community center built in Park Hill. We have 22 five owners of 15 buildings. 15 buildings
23 consist of 110 apartments, and one building 24 consist of 220 apartments. And we had nothing in 25 that community for the children, the young

COMMISSION HEARING

1 people. And I've been promised since Dave
2 Dinkins was mayor, I'm coming to you to fight to 3 help provide a community center in Park Hill. We 4 have 500 new homeowners in celebration behind
5 Park Hill. And our City Councillor Debbie Rose 6 had to clean up behind Park Hill last year, and 7 we found city land back there that a community 8 center could be built. So we need the funds to 9 have that built. I was promised by one of the 10 owners a community center five years ago in one 11 of the buildings and that fell through. He 12 didn't come up with the money.

13 MR. PERALES: Una Clarke, do you have any 14 information?

15 MS. CLARKE: Una Clarke. I'm the former 16 member of the City Council. I see you are 17 wearing the T-shirt from your City Council 18 member.

19 I would encourage you to speak with her
20 about this as a special project for Staten
21 Island, because this is budget time for the city 22 and the City Council. So if this is an item she 23 wants to carry, I'm sure that she could get 24 support from among the colleagues. Our role as 25 commissioners is not to advocate for money, but

COMMISSION HEARING

1 to see how we can better help the city to deepen 2 its understanding of the democracy of which we 3 are a part. So I will tell Debi Rose that you
4 came to testify. She knows me personally, so you
5 can say former councilor Clark member, since I
6 came over to Staten Island to get her elected. I 7 just want to make sure that she produces for you.
8 And I will take this to her. Thank you.

9 MR. PERALES: Thank you.

10 MS. HINKSON: Good evening every one,
11 commissioner and your team. I welcome you. This 12 is my first time ever attending a meeting like 13 this. I humbly come before you. I am a parent 14 of Stapleton community since 1991. Raised seven 15 children in that community. I originally came 16 from Queens. I've lived in Texas and Louisiana
17 through my husband in the military. Came out 18 here on a hardship. I raised my own children and 19 I thank God for all the help that I have ever
20 received from people out here in Staten Island 21 raising my children. But now I am a chair of the 22 advisory board of the Gerard Carter Center. I'm 23 also on the neighborhood advisory board. I'm 24 trying to give back to the community. I retired 25 working for NYCHA. Because that was a job that

COMMISSION HEARING

1 was going to pay for a single mother to pay the 2 rent and raise their children in that community.
3 My concerns are broad range, because I know about 4 the schools, the Gerard Carter Center, the 5 neighborhood. We have some in -- Stapleton Park
6 Hill and Clifton, that's the area Gerard Carter 7 Center is supposed to be servicing. And they're 8 doing a good job, but we want them to do an 9 excellent job. Right now they need a director, a 10 night director. They need more services so that 11 they can invite more people that want to offer 12 their services like dancing and other cultural 13 and art programs. We have children in our 14 neighborhood that are affected by lead poison.
15 I'm a mother with one child. And that is the 16 biggest challenge of my life raising that one
17 child. We need more support services for parents 18 with children with lead poisoning. And those 19 type of services, my suggestion would be arts and 20 crafts. Things that they can build with their 21 hands. We have a courthouse that's on a Targee 22 Street that's not being used right now. That 23 would be an excellent place to have skilled 24 trade. We need to teach our young people things 25 that they have lost contact with. They just

COMMISSION HEARING

1 don't have anywhere to go. So they hangout and 2 they do things that are not good. But we offer 3 more services in those neighborhoods, starting 4 with the Gerard Carter Center, which in my 5 opinion we need four Gerard Carter Centers in our 6 neighborhood to help our youth. Another thing
7 I'm concerned about I'm a senior now. I actively 8 partake in the senior center in Stapleton. Over 9 the past ten years I have seen and heard that the 10 seniors have gone through when they become 11 displaced and moved out of their private homes in 12 the neighborhood and moved to places that they 13 really are not happy with. And there's a lot of 14 disability problems in the neighborhood with the 15 youth and with the seniors. I just implore 16 everybody to provide services for people with 17 disabilities, because they may have a disability 18 in one form as the world sees it, but they may 19 have a gift in another form. The only way that 20 we can help them is by providing different types 21 of services that will bring this creativity. We 22 have groups in my church at First Central Baptist 23 Church. They are doing an excellent job with the 24 young men in our community. Like I said we just 25 need more. We need more community centers. We

1 have a lot of housing. We need more affordable 2 housing and we need parks, recreation, because 3 that's the big thing in your country now being 4 healthy. So whatever you can help us with, I 5 would appreciate and thank you for your time.

6 MR. PERALES: I want to thank you for your 7 testimony. Do any of the commissioners have any 8 comment? Thank you very much.

9 Next panel, Gonzalo Mercardo I think is the 10 name. Staff person from True 2 Life. There's 11 one person per organization, right? Who is going 12 to speak on True 2 Life?

13 PERSON: We will both have different issues.

14 MR. PERALES: So one you wait for the next 15 panel. One panel. Then I got -- I think it's 16 Harry Timberland.

17 MR. TIMBERLAND: Here.

18 MR. PERALES: Oh, that's you. So you are on 19 this panel.

20 Mr. Mercardo, we will start with you.

21 MR. MERCARDO: Sure. Thank you. Thank you
22 for all of the commissioners for being here. I
23 really commend you for your first visit to Staten 24 Island. I think there is an old saying that 25 we're left all the time as the last people, the

1 last thought. By you being here as your first
2 meetings really means a lot for us. So thank you
3 for that.

4 My name is Gonzalo Mercardo. I'm the 5 executive director of Staten Island Community Job
6 Center. We're an immigrant rights organization
7 working with the immigrant community on Staten
8 Island. I'm also a Staten Islander myself. I
9 live and work in the north shore here on Staten
10 Island. My reason for being here is to talk 11 specifically about how can we open the democratic 12 process to more residents of New York City. I 13 have a few suggestions for you all. Like, for 14 example, making an election day a municipal 15 holiday. I think that would be a great 16 opportunity for people especially working people
17 who work long hours who may leave work 9, 18 10 o'clock. They don't have a chance to go and 19 vote. They can't afford in many cases to take a 20 day off to go and do that. I am originally from 21 Chile and we vote there on Sundays. I know that 22 might not work for a lot of people. But at least 23 it's the day that most people stay at home. It's 24 done for that purpose. The people have the free 25 time to participate in the democracy. Another

COMMISSION HEARING

1 suggestion that I have is also lowering the 2 voting age. We have a lot of young people who 3 are really, really engaged in the civic process.
4 We ourselves in La Colmena have a youth group 5 called the butterfly effect. It's a group of 6 young people from different backgrounds and also 7 from different immigration statuses. We have a 8 lot of people who are citizens, other youth that 9 document eligible people and other undocumented.
10 So they have become very, very interested in 11 being part of the political process. We've seen 12 it now in other parts of the country with the 13 tragic events in Florida. How all young people 14 are really we getting involved in the process.
15 So I think that would be a great thing for New 16 York that we can allow 16 year olds allowed to 17 vote. Another way I think we can enhance that 18 and open our democracy is having same day voter 19 registration. I think we have to find ways to 20 make it easier for all of us in our community to 21 participate in same day voter registration would 22 be a great opportunity for people that for 23 whatever reason haven't been able to register to 24 vote, they can do it on the same day. And then 25 also my last suggestion is the issue of

COMMISSION HEARING

1 noncitizen voting. We have a lot of people here
2 in New York City who may not be citizens, but 3 they're surely contributing to our economy and 4 contributing not just to that, but also to our 5 culture and the vibrancy of our city. I think an 6 open democracy should have the opportunity to 7 everybody to participate. A great example of 8 this is participatory budgeting. The older 9 requirements for participatory budgeting are to 10 be of the age of 14 and live in the district.
11 And Councilor Debi Rose is the only Council
12 person in Staten Island who had opened that 13 process for a couple of years now, and has been a 14 great way that people can engage and make 15 decisions about the monies they're going to be 16 spending on the district. Thank you very much.

17 MR. PERALES: Let me start the questioning, 18 because I've gotten lots of phone calls from 19 folks when they heard that I was going to chair 20 this commission about noncitizen voting. My 21 immediate response, I'm certainly open to being 22 persuaded, was that I thought that the reason my 23 mother became a citizen, because she wanted to 24 vote. And that is currently and has been for 25 years an incentive to get people to be

1 naturalized.

2 What has been your experience with getting 3 people to naturalize, people that have their 4 permanent residencies and eligible to become 5 citizens? And do you think that voting is an 6 incentive to become a citizen?

7 MR. MERCARDO: So in terms of your first 8 question, we have been doing a lot of work to 9 make sure that every one who is eligible to vote
10 have the opportunity to do so. We've also worked 11 with youth. We were a part of the student
12 registration day last year. We registered a 13 thousand students to vote. I believe there are a 14 lot of areas why people don't become citizens 15 right away. One is the length of time that you
16 have to have as a permanent resident. But people 17 live in those communities and work in those 18 communities as permanent residents. They should 19 be able to be part of the discussion of the 20 decisions that are made of people here. I think 21 if anything this will encourage more people to 22 become involved in the political process.
23 They're able to vote in the municipal elections, 24 but not on state or federal. Maybe that's going 25 to be the steppingstone. You know what? I

1 better become a citizen right now to be able to 2 participate in all levels of the democracy. So I
3 think it will actually help encourage more
4 people. But also for people that are not allowed 5 for the length of the time that they usually have 6 to wait to become a citizen. In some cases it 7 could be four or five years before they can do 8 that. So I think all these opportunities that we 9 can have to encourage people can just be positive 10 to make sure that we open the process for 11 everybody.

12 MR. PERALES: Commissioner Clarke?

13 MS. CLARKE: Una Clarke, former member of 14 the City Council. I tried that when I was in the 15 City Council that anyone with a green card for 16 three years or more intend to become a citizen
17 should be able to work for the Sanitation 18 Department, Police Department or any of the 19 uniformed services that they're kept out of not 20 being citizens. I almost got my head handed to 21 me, but after that people looked at it and 22 figured that it would strengthen not only the 23 boroughs or the community, but that it would be 24 an encouragement. The same way that nurses had 25 to register in Albany in order to work in a

COMMISSION HEARING

1 hospital to show that they're nurses and that 2 they would become citizens. They had a paper
3 called intent to become a citizen. I tried that.
4 It didn't work. It may well be because of the 5 time in which we are now living that people may 6 think twice about that. But I am in agreement 7 with you. And I would work with any other group.
8 Myself as you would probably hear that my accent 9 didn't go anywhere. Didn't come from Chile, but 10 it came from someplace otherwise. I know that 11 the energy and the incentive to get people to 12 become citizens are almost always there.

13 MR. MERCARDO: I just want to add that the 14 money is another barrier. It cost almost $1,000
15 to become a citizen. For people who cannot come 16 up with that money, they're eligible, but they 17 just don't have the funds to actually apply for 18 it.

19 MR. PERALES: You're next.

20 MS. WEISER: Thank you. Wendy Weiser. One 21 of the last panelists recommended early voting as 22 a reform. I was wondering what you thought about 23 and whether that would address some of the other 24 concerns you raised when you were recommending 25 election -- making election day a holiday. And

1 sort of providing a range of days and evening
2 hours and weekend hours for the people to vote.

3 MR. MERCARDO: I'll be in agreement with 4 that. Again, I think our thought behind all of 5 these accommodations is to make an open process 6 for people to participate in democracy. So any 7 initiative, any ideas that are going towards that 8 to make sure that we can get more people to 9 participate in early voting that would be great.
10 Same day voter registration and making an 11 election day a holiday also is going to help. So 12 I would be in agreement with that as well as 13 another way of getting more people to become 14 involved in the process.

15 MR. HO: This is Dale Ho. I was just 16 wondering if you could just speak a little bit 17 more about your personal experience working in 18 immigrant communities how of a desire there is 19 amongst noncitizens to have their voices heard in 20 local elections?

21 MR. MERCARDO: Yes. So a lot of our members 22 are people who work in the service industry, are 23 people who work as landscapers, domestic workers, 24 construction workers. They have been here for, 25 you know, maybe 20, 25 years. They have been

COMMISSION HEARING

1 long term members of our community. They shop in 2 our community. They send their kids to school.
3 So they are very, very important members in terms
4 in engaging in their own communities. Now voting
5 in the municipal elections may be it's something 6 that right now has not been allowed for them to 7 do so. There are issues that we mentioned 8 before, but they are contributing members.
9 They're paying their taxes. They're not only the 10 income tax, but when they go shopping or local 11 stores, they pay a sales tax. So they're really 12 contributing. Not just with the labor, but also 13 with their -- where they're spending their money.
14 I think they are a lot of background of why we 15 should extend and make sure that people that 16 already a part of this community can have a way 17 of becoming more involved in the decisions that 18 they're making about the districts.

19 MR. HO: I was wondering if you might want 20 to say a little about if there are particular 21 issues of interest amongst noncitizens in terms 22 of local issues that you think would benefit to 23 get the perspective of noncitizens?

24 MR. MERCARDO: I would say they're not very 25 different than citizens. Our communities care

COMMISSION HEARING

1 about having better schools. They care about 2 better public transportation. Like here in 3 Staten Island a lot of folks can't afford to have 4 a car. So they have to rely on buses and the one
5 line of train that we have here in Staten Island.
6 So we have people here, for example, that live in 7 Port Richmond and they have to travel to 8 Tottenville the next day to work and it takes an 9 hour and a half. So there are a lot of reasons 10 why I believe people are invested, but they're 11 not that different than the other people who are 12 voting right now. It's really about better jobs, 13 it's really about better schools, better
14 transportation. All of those local issues that 15 people care about.

16 MR. HO: If noncitizens could vote in local 17 elections, do you have any concerns about the 18 possibility that folks could be confused about 19 whether or not they could be eligible to vote in 20 state and federal elections? Because I think the 21 last thing anyone would want would be for someone 22 to inadvertently register or vote for elections
23 or in elections for which they're not eligible 24 and then have to face some kind of sanctions as a 25 result of that. I mean I think the last thing we

1 would be for someone to render themselves
2 ineligible for naturalization or removable, 3 because they voted in the federal election when 4 they're not eligible. Is that a concern or do 5 you feel like that's something that's manageable?

6 MR. MERCARDO: I think as long as we have a 7 very thorough public education campaign about if 8 we were to have this, what does it look like?
9 Partnership with community organization, with 10 churches and places where immigrant communities, 11 for example, go to would be key to make sure that 12 people understand exactly what they're eligible 13 for. I haven't heard personally for examples, 14 but I see your concern.

15 MR. HO: Just one last question. In your 16 opinion, should we open voting to all noncitizens
17 or only a subset of noncitizens. Like say green 18 cardholders or people who are here legally or 19 just any noncitizen?

20 MR. MERCARDO: I will leave that to you all 21 to discuss.

22 MR. HO: Personal opinion.

23 MR. MERCARDO: I am of my personal opinion
24 that anyone who lives in the district, you know, 25 for at least six months or so and is working and

COMMISSION HEARING

1 is having a family there, should have the 2 opportunity to become involved in the decisions 3 that are made, whether they're working and 4 they're paying taxes regardless of their 5 citizenship, immigration status or none at all.

6 MR. HO: Thanks. Those are the only 7 questions I have.

8 MR. BRAGG: Kyle Bragg. So I hear you and I
9 agree that the undocumented population in our 10 city contributes richly to our city and our 11 communities. One of the concerns is a lot 12 dialogue about whether undocumented workers -- 13 undocumented residents should have the ability to 14 vote is whether or not that invites ICE (sic) 15 then to set up camps at these polling sites and 16 then further intimidate these undocumented 17 workers. I would like to hear your opinion on 18 that. And second in regards to the lowering of 19 the age for voters, I would be interested in 20 knowing the statics of participatory budgeting
21 process, because I know they opened that up to 14 22 and older. I'll be interested in knowing how 23 much they've engaged in that process to see 24 whether or not there is any means, if there's any 25 work in pursuing opening up the general

1 elections.

2 MR. MERCARDO: So in terms of your first
3 question it would be very difficult I think to 4 assess if they're actually going to show up to 5 places where people are trying to vote. I think 6 it would be a great responsibility from the city 7 to make sure that these places are safe for every 8 one. To be able to go in without fearing that 9 anybody is going to be outside arresting them.
10 Like it's happening right now on Staten Island.
11 Just yesterday we had an arrest of a person at 12 the criminal court, which is a block away from 13 here, a person who went in with an assault case 14 and it was dismissed at the courthouse. He 15 walked out and got picked up by immigration. So 16 I know that is a very real problem right now that 17 needs to be fixed. And I totally hear your 18 concerns about it. I love to work more. I 19 actually was with Governor Cuomo announcing the 20 seriousness of a measure that he's got to do to 21 make sure that ICE complies with basic rules of 22 due process and warrants and things like that.

23 In terms of your second question, I think it 24 has been incredible the amount of young people 25 that have been able to participate in the

COMMISSION HEARING

1 participatory budgeting. Because it's not just 2 about voting on something, it's about providing 3 the ideas first. Ideas about how can you spend, 4 in this case, say a million dollars in your 5 community. So they were not just able to just go 6 out and vote, they were actually able to 7 participate in the idea what can we do with this 8 money. So it's really, really engaging. I think 9 a lot of young people, especially the people that 10 we work with, have had a great experience to 11 start becoming civically engaged at a very young 12 age even before leaving high school.

13 MS. SEECHARRAN: Annetta Seecharran. So I
14 was interested in this issue of including 15 undocumented individuals in the noncitizen voting 16 recommendation, but I think my colleagues have 17 covered the nuances about that. But I was also 18 wondering if you can speak about your knowledge 19 of the experiences of other municipalities across 20 the country that have noncitizen voting and what 21 impact that has had on the policy making or on 22 those localities.

23 MR. MERCARDO: I have examples for I believe 24 (inaudible) is one of them. I don't have the 25 other ones with me. But I have not heard of any

COMMISSION HEARING

1 first effects of any of these examples. I can 2 furnish you all with the statistics about 3 specific municipalities who have done this. It's 4 just another way of where people can be a part of 5 the political process. I think not just the 6 resources that come to where you are, but make 7 sure that people themselves are the ones who are 8 driving the conversations. I was in concert of 9 elected officials who are the ones that are 10 charge of making policies. It's really important 11 that place is not a closed door. But we can open 12 it up to more people not just in terms of 13 immigration status, but I will be happy to 14 provide you with information about other 15 municipalities.

16 MS. FERNANDEZ: Angela Fernandez. I'm glad 17 that the commissioner brought that up. My 18 understanding is that there are 11 cities around 19 the country that have noncitizen voting. I 20 wanted to speak -- ask you a question around the 21 intersection of criminal law and immigration law 22 and how that impacts specifically legal permanent 23 residents, and how that could be a barrier for 24 them to become citizens. Even when a legal 25 permanent resident has one misdemeanor and that

COMMISSION HEARING

1 makes them inadmissible. That makes them unable 2 to become a citizen. I would like to know if you 3 are familiar with that and if you can share any 4 thoughts on that.

5 MR. MERCARDO: Yeah, I think a lot of these 6 issues have happened communities where may be 7 overly policed or for whatever reason they start 8 getting criminal records. Especially for very, 9 very minor violations like being in the park 10 after dark or you know other things, right, that 11 are very minimal. But then become that obstacle 12 for people to become citizens, because of having 13 those. So I would say it's very important that 14 we also look at that issue where our communities
15 that being over policed for very very low
16 violations where we go to other ones, and I don't 17 want to name names here on Staten Island where 18 people are doing the same things and we do see 19 that type of enforcement in it. So you know the 20 intersection of communities with the criminal 21 justice system specifically for minor violations 22 is really, really an obstacle for people that are 23 going to become citizen.

24 MR. PERALES: I want to thank you. We've 25 taken up an awful lot of your time. We

COMMISSION HEARING

1 appreciate it. I like to have the next speaker
2 to have the opportunity.

3 MR. TIMBERLAND: Harry Timberland from True
4 2 Life. Our work with True 2 Life is the antigun
5 violence initiative. We work with the public on 6 mediating conflicts and wrap around services for 7 mental help, schooling, employment. One of the 8 issues I want to talk about is a very big, big 9 issue with this. Nobody speaks about it. It's 10 housing. From 28 years in and younger,
11 97 percent of males do not have their own place
12 to stay. And a lot of males are coming home, 13 maybe coming home from prison and they cannot go 14 back to their housing projects because they're 15 banned and have nowhere to go. And they're 16 incarcerated from Richmond County which is Staten 17 Island. They're forced to go into Bellevue which 18 is in Brooklyn, a homeless shelter that the 19 conditions are terrible. So a 24, 22 year old 20 unlikely is not going to stay in that shelter.
21 When a female gets pregnant or a female is 22 battered, they have all sorts of programs and 23 it's good. They get vouchers to get placed into 24 the state. The men, nothing. If you make 25 $50,000 a year without no criminal record, it's

COMMISSION HEARING

1 hard for you to get an apartment then with the 2 credit checks and the first month, second month
3 security. And if there's a broker fees, forget
4 about it. Forget about it. So for the young 5 males, they have nowhere to go. On parole.
6 Where parole just sends them wherever they can 7 send them. Staten Island has no shelters. They 8 have project hospitality which they stuff them in 9 a church somewhere and make them get up very 10 early. So the work that we do is trying to 11 assist them from prison reform and reentry. It's 12 very difficult to tell somebody I can't help you.
13 You can't come in my house. Where do they go?
14 This is very important. So we need something 15 done. We need some housing. Not just the people
16 coming home from prison. In general there's no
17 responsibility. 22, 23 years old in New York 18 State, 98 percent do not have their own place.
19 That's it.

20 MR. PERALES: We hear the issue of housing 21 all the time. I want to thank you. You have 22 been very eloquent and I think articulated in 23 communicating to us how desperate the situation 24 has become.

25 Give the other gentleman an opportunity to

COMMISSION HEARING

1 speak. Thank you.

2 MR. PERRY: Good afternoon everybody. My 3 name is Mike Perry. I'm the program manager of 4 the antigun violence organization called True 2
5 Life. We are part of the crisis management
6 system. The mayor backs this initiative and so
7 does our amazing councilwoman Debi Rose.

8 I just want to speak about advocating for 9 more cure violence programs on Staten Island. If 10 you look at the numbers where these sites are 11 located, these cure violence antigun violence 12 initiative sites, you'll see that the numbers of 13 shootings, the percentage of shootings in 14 homicide are down at an amazing number. We need 15 more sites on Staten Island. We have two current 16 sites right now. One in Stapleton and Park Hill 17 area, which the numbers have been phenomenal. We 18 are looking at almost 400 days without a homicide 19 in a specific area where we're from, and that's 20 definitely due to the men and woman who are 21 working those streets working with our people 22 that we know that we identify with. In terms of 23 changing their mentality, changing their 24 mindsets, changing what's called a community
25 norm. So I'm a life long Staten Islander. First

COMMISSION HEARING

1 let me welcome you guys to our borough, right?
2 Welcome every one. We want to welcome you to our 3 borough. Me and my staff are lifelong Staten
4 Islanders. So we just need to speak about more
5 cure violence and antigun violence initiative
6 programs here on Staten Island. We need backup.
7 We need help with things like recidivism
8 programs, right. Because we can't do it alone.
9 Like my brother poppa said he spoke about we have 10 wrap around services. One of our wrap around 11 services on Staten Island is mental health.
12 These are organizations where the youth that we 13 deal that are dealing with this trauma that 14 they've been dealing with since youth, right.
15 Staten Island Mental Health is an organization 16 that we refer them to. Day Top also for 17 substance abuse. New York City Interpersonal
18 Development for conflict mediation and stuff like 19 that. Although we are the mastic conflict 20 mediators. This is why these numbers -- these 21 shootings, these homicides are down in these 22 areas. So we do have help with some of our wrap 23 around services, but I think we would benefit 24 immensely from the recidivism program on Staten
25 Island. And lastly, again, I'm also a life long

COMMISSION HEARING

1 Staten Islander, so I do want to advocate for -- 2 we are already deemed the forgotten borough. We 3 want to make sure you guys don't forget about us.
4 I want to advocate for affordable housing. Also 5 me being a lifelong Staten Islander and community
6 record centers. Thank you.

7 MR. PERALES: Any of our commissioners have 8 a comment?

9 MR. BRAGG: Kyle Bragg. I agree, again,
10 that we have a long way to go with criminal 11 justice reform in the city, state and country. I 12 agree that everything that you've said that we 13 have to deal with the recidivism that's taking 14 place. So whatever it takes we're very 15 interested in hearing what you guys are doing and 16 recommendations. How we address the recidivism 17 problems. If we don't address it then we do our 18 city an injustice. Thank you.

19 MR. PERALES: Anyone else? Thank you all
20 very, very much. That is our last panel.

21 I just want to reiterate my own personal 22 commitment to the process in which we are getting 23 all these comments from people in the community
24 and the interest that they've shown. Let me
25 throw the floor open to my fellow commissioners

COMMISSION HEARING

1 to react to what we've heard today and to the 2 process of engaging. Every one is smiling. Is 3 that an affirmation of my comment?

4 MS. ANGELO: Larian Angelo. As a former 5 budget person, I believe I've heard the 6 participatory budgeting two or three times
7 tonight. And I think it's one of the most 8 interesting and remarkable changes in city
9 government happening very quietly. It's not only 10 allows people to allocate capital within their 11 own district. I suspect the changes how they 12 look at government. Because they get to in 13 effect be the government. So I'm glad it's 14 happening here in Debi Rose's district. Again, 15 it's a great reform.

16 MR. PERALES: Yes. Any other thoughts?

17 MS. SEECHARRAN: This is Annetta Seecharran.
18 I appreciate hearing some very concrete
19 recommendations today that we can consider. I 20 have to admit that I'm sitting here feeling very 21 heartbroken about some of the needs that have 22 been expressed around social services, 23 particularly housing and feeling like sort of 24 racking my brain thinking what can this 25 commission going to do about that. So that's

COMMISSION HEARING

1 just sort of expressing hearing these 2 testimonies.

3 MS. FERNANDEZ: Angela Fernandez. I was 4 surprised by the diversity of issues that were 5 presented. And especially around on this last 6 one on gun violence and what role does the 7 commission may or can play in terms of the 8 charter. What areas of the charter we may never 9 have considered before. Especially on this 10 particular issue gun violence. It would be very 11 interesting to see. And of course I think that a 12 conversation around who can vote in city 13 government is a worthwhile conversation to have.

14 MR. PERALES: It sounds almost if we're 15 getting a charge to staff. One of the things I'm 16 interested in -- obviously, the limitations that 17 we have if what we're doing is trying to amend 18 the situation which is obviously our charge. The 19 city charter doesn't provide money for anybody.
20 Doesn't fund any programs. Can't do anything 21 about violence. But there are some things that 22 we can do and I'm intrigued. I like the staff to 23 clarify for us the limits of what we can do when 24 it comes to election law in changing election
25 laws and where we can push the boundaries

COMMISSION HEARING

1 vis-a-vis the registration process. Obviously we 2 can't do early voting, because that's clearly 3 state law. But there must be some things that we 4 can do to facilitate registration and facilitate 5 voting. I ask you to try as hard as you can to 6 come up with ways of things that we can pursue 7 that would push the envelope as they say to make 8 things in New York City a little easier to vote, 9 to participate in democracy.

10 Does the commission agree that that's the 11 charge?

12 PERSON: Yes.

13 MS. CLARKE: Una Clarke. I wanted to say as 14 a product of a charter revision when the city 15 decided that 32 members were not enough, and that 16 some were elected and others weren't appointed, 17 and the charter was then reviewed. That 18 increased the numbers of members on the City
19 Council advocating the first ever immigrant woman 20 from anywhere to have been elected and that's 21 because we were able to educate the community 22 which I was a part of. That it was time that we 23 step up to the table and take responsibility for 24 ourselves in the way that we lived in the City of 25 New York. So I am very conscious of the issues

COMMISSION HEARING

1 that come before us that somebody may say it's 2 not workable. Once we educate communities about 3 the benefits, I'm sure that we will be able to 4 work together to make it a home that all New 5 Yorkers can be proud of, because I'm proud of my 6 ten years in the New York City Council. And the 7 fact that I left the Council with a good name and 8 a good reputation. So much so that I could be on 9 this commission to be able to take another deep 10 dive into what we do to continue to make our city 11 a place where New Yorkers feel that this is their 12 home and they can participate in the life of the 13 communities of which we were all apart of.

14 MR. PERALES: Seems like that's a good note 15 to end on unless you have a comment to make.

16 MS. WEISER: This is Wendy Weiser. I do 17 very much enjoy all of the testimony and the 18 recommendations and the diverse issues that were 19 presented.

20 A number of people raised recommendations on 21 topics that there's also pending legislation in 22 this City Council in reference to that. I think 23 it would be helpful to look at to compare what's 24 in the charter and what are the legislative 25 proposals on the topics relating to voting and

COMMISSION HEARING

1 money and politics and some of the other issues
2 that came up today. So I would be very 3 interested in seeing a list of those pending
4 legislations so we could see what other things 5 could be considered elsewhere.

6 MR. PERALES: The one caution I would cite 7 is that there are many times in which legislation
8 is considered and then again considered and years
9 go by. I think we have this unique opportunity 10 to take it immediately to the voters in November.
11 I think it's a good idea to find out what the 12 City Council may be considering if only to make 13 some excellent ideas. But some of them may not 14 be adopted.

15 MS. WEISER: To be clear, I think the 16 purpose of getting additional ideas for the 17 commission from the City Council members as well 18 not to suggest that we shouldn't look at it.

19 MR. PERALES: Mr. Ho?

20 MR. HO: I just wanted to echo Chairman
21 Perales request from staff that we get whatever 22 information you can in the time that you can 23 about our legal -- about the city's legal 24 authority to have different eligibility
25 requirements for voting in municipal elections

COMMISSION HEARING

1 and then different election procedures from the 2 state in terms of methods of registration, timing 3 of registration up to some methods of 4 registration including, automatic registration, 5 timing registration up until election day and 6 time voting including early voting, because it's 7 not something that, despite the fact that I
8 practice in collection law, that I actually know
9 in terms of New York City's independent 10 authorities separate from the states as set those 11 requirements differently.

12 MR. SIEGAL: John Siegel. I would just add 13 to the list that Dale Ho outlined also the day on 14 which election day is held, I know that there is 15 a definition of election day in the state 16 election law, but whether the city has any 17 flexibility to do it on a different day, because 18 the suggestion of Sunday which is non-elsewhere
19 is a very significant idea. If there's any room 20 to change the date of a municipal election, I 21 like to know that.

22 MS. FERNANDEZ: I like to respond to that 23 Angela Fernandez. I think that instead of moving 24 it to a weekend day, potentially exploring the 25 day that is already the election day, and at the

1 municipal level making it a holiday.

2 Is there any room or space where it's a
3 municipal holiday on that Tuesday, whether it be 4 primaries or the general election, because that 5 does happen in other countries in the world.
6 Where if the election is always on a Tuesday,
7 they just shut down that Tuesday. Just explore 8 to see if any possibility of that.

9 MR. SCISSURA: I'm just going to speak as a 10 veteran on charter commissions. Carlo Scissura.
11 We're going to get excited at every meeting about 12 things we hear. I would just urge, just from my 13 experience, that we don't talk issues or debate 14 issues right now until we at least get through 15 one round of hearings. Because you'll see every 16 borough will have similar things and then every 17 borough will have unique issues and ideas. So 18 although I agree that the staff should look at 19 the election law things, because I think that's 20 going to come up. But my recommendation would be 21 get through the five hearings and then have a 22 meeting to literally and the staff to give us, 23 you know 30, 40, issues and then we can decide 24 which expert panels and things should go with 25 them.

COMMISSION HEARING

1 MR. PERALES: This is the chair speaking. I
2 got my own views similar to that. We're going to 3 end up with a preliminary report. But I do think 4 that certainly on these voting issues where we 5 were appointed because of all us share an 6 interest in democratizing our elections that we 7 really get a better feel of what it is that we 8 can do. I just don't want us to go through all 9 five boroughs talking about setting a new 10 election day when we can't do it. Or early 11 voting when that's beyond our power. So I like 12 to find out as soon as possible what is it that 13 we could entertain so that we keep that in the 14 front of our minds when we hear testimony in the 15 other boroughs.

16 Did anybody else want to say something?

17 MS. GREENBERGER: It's Sharon Greenberger.
18 I just wanted to say I was struck by the fact 19 that many of the comments here tonight were about 20 resources ultimately and the allocation of 21 resources. And in some ways some of those 22 resources are depended on how we as New Yorkers 23 are going to be counted in the upcoming census.
24 So there is a question about participation.
25 We're encouraging participation and voting is a

COMMISSION HEARING

1 form of participating in that democracy so is 2 being counted. So I think there's going to be 3 some interesting overlap in some of those issues.

4 MR. PERALES: Point well taken. I will now
5 entertain a motion. I heard a motion to adjourn.
6 I heard it second. All in favor. Any opposed.
7 Meeting is adjourned.

8 (Whereupon, at 8:18 P.M., the above matter 9 concluded.)
