PROMOTION TO SUPERVISING EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICE SPECIALIST
Exam No. 3571
AMENDED NOTICE - August 2, 2023

WHEN TO APPLY: From: May 3, 2023

APPLICATION FEE: $82.00

To: May 23, 2023

If you choose to pay the application fee with a credit/debit/gift card, you will be charged a service fee of 2.00% of the payment amount. This service fee is nonrefundable.

THE TEST DATE: Multiple-choice testing is expected to begin on Friday, October 13, 2023.

The Notice of Examination is amended to change the date of multiple-choice testing expected to begin from Wednesday, August 23, 2023 to Friday, October 13, 2023. Candidates who previously applied do not need to apply again.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS ENTIRE NOTICE BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES:

Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialists, under general supervision of the Chief of Emergency Medical Service, direct and supervise the activities of Emergency Medical Specialists (EMTs and Paramedics) and other assigned staff and are responsible for the effective operation of NYC 911 EMS activities within their jurisdiction. In emergencies, they are subject to on-call duties beyond their regular and normal tour of duty. All Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialists perform related work.

At Assignment Level I (Sergeant-EMT), in addition to performing the duties of an Emergency Medical Specialist, Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialists supervise assigned units in the rendering of appropriate pre-hospital emergency medical care in accordance with all appropriate NYC/NYS Protocols and FDNY policies and procedures, including providing clinical supervision based on level of certification to units operating within an assigned geographic area of response, coordination and supervision of the delivery of patients to the appropriate facility with the proper transfer of care, the inspection and repair of vehicles/equipment/facilities, scheduling and assigning EMS personnel, evaluation of employee performance, and preparing and maintaining required records and logs.

Special Working Conditions: Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialists are required to work various shifts including nights, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

Some of the physical activities performed by Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialists and the environmental conditions experienced are: working outdoors in all kinds of weather; climbing stairs; carrying equipment; treating patients who may have infectious and communicable diseases; and working for extended periods during the day or night.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY:

There are three assignment levels within this class of positions. The current minimum salary for Assignment Level I (Sergeant-EMT) is $68,000 per annum. The current minimum salary for Assignment Level II (Lieutenant-Paramedic) is $75,971 per annum. These rates are subject to change.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION:

This examination is open to each employee of the New York City Fire Department who on the first date of the multiple-choice test:

1. holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Emergency Medical Specialist - EMT or the title of Emergency Medical Specialist - Paramedic; and
2. is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent employees of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency's personnel office. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If it is determined prior to the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, you will not receive an Admission Notice to take the multiple-choice test, you will not be permitted into the test site, and your application fee will not be refunded. If it is determined after the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED:

In order to be eligible for promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility To Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in the eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the eligible title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least two years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited toward eligibility to be promoted.

REQUIREMENT(S) TO BE PROMOTED:

Driver License and Certification Requirements: By the time you are promoted to this position, you must possess and maintain for the duration of your employment:

1. a Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York; and
2. a valid New York State Department of Health Emergency Medical Technician-Basic (EMT-B) certificate (for Assignment Level I positions) or a valid New York State Department of Health Advanced Emergency Medical Technician- Paramedic (AEMT-P) certificate (for Assignment Level II positions); and
3. a valid New York City Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee (NYC REMAC) certificate (for Assignment Level II positions).

HOW TO APPLY:

If you believe you are eligible to take this examination, apply using the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can apply to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts and you will receive a confirmation email with instructions to activate your account. For any account creation issues, you will receive onscreen prompts to contact DCAS. This review may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed and resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at: <https://a856-exams.nyc.gov/OASysWeb/faqs>. Effective January 2020, the Online Application System is no longer supported on Windows 7 or earlier versions of Windows operating systems.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at https://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dcas/downloads/pdf/employment/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Application Centers. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

Application for Examination: Follow the online instructions, including those relating to the payment of fee and, if applicable, those found in the Special Circumstances Guide.

THE TEST:

The multiple-choice test will be given at a computer terminal. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the multiple-choice test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus 1/2 point for each three months of completed, permanent, continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services in competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the date of the test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain knowledge and abilities determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist. Task areas to be tested are as follows: assign personnel and make adjustments to assignments; monitor subordinates; provide direct medical care to patients; train and counsel subordinates; complete and/or review reports, forms and logs.

The test may include questions which require working knowledge or better (without reference material) in effect up to and including May 3, 2023 of the following non-exclusive list of sources: Fire Department of New York manuals, guidelines and regulations, including EMS Operating Guide, EMS Operations Orders, and Division Memoranda, as they pertain to: Advanced Life Support (ALS) Protocols; Basic Life Support (BLS) Protocols and Appendices; general regulations; reports and reporting procedures; disciplinary action; personnel procedures; uniforms; operations; vehicles; equipment; communications; hospitals; time and leave procedures; health and safety procedures; as well as standards of proper employee ethical conduct, including the provisions of Mayor's Executive Order No. 16 of 1978, as amended; and other related areas.

The test may also include questions requiring the use of any of the following abilities:

Analytical Thinking: Analyzing information and using logic to address specific work-related issues and problems; involves the identification of problems, not implementation of solutions. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist might use this ability to identify causes of trends, e.g. for chronic absenteeism.

Judgment and Decision Making: Reviewing information to develop and evaluate the relative costs and benefits of potential solutions to problems and choosing the most appropriate one; implementing a course of action determined by thinking analytically; typically applied over a short time frame. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability to decide which problems should be given greatest priority and commitment of resources.

Written Comprehension: Understanding the information and ideas presented in written sentences and paragraphs in work-related documents. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability when reviewing narrative reports.

Written Expression: Appropriately communicating information and ideas in written words and sentences the intended audience will understand. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability when preparing reports to management.

Coaching and Mentoring: Identifying the developmental needs of others and coaching, mentoring, or otherwise helping others to improve their knowledge and skills. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability when acting as an exemplary role model, embodying and expecting the highest professional standards.

Teamwork: Developing a mutual trust and cooperation while working together toward the accomplishment of a common goal or outcome. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability when dealing with multiple patients.

Integrity: Acting in an honest and ethical manner. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability to function effectively as a leader, being neither too informal, nor too distant, and conveying a sense of professionalism and fairness.

Updating and Using Relevant Knowledge: Keeping up-to-date technically and applying new knowledge to the job. Example: A Supervising Emergency Medical Service Specialist may use this ability to stay up-to-date with advancements in medicine.

Certain questions may need to be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to the candidates on the date of the multiple-choice exam.

EXAM SITE ADMISSION:

Your Admission Notice will be available on your Dashboard in OASys 14 days before the first date on which testing is expected to begin. You can print or display your Admission Notice on your phone or personal device to gain entry to the test site. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but nearness to your address cannot be guaranteed.

Warning: After gaining entry to the test site, you are not permitted to enter the testing area with electronic devices. Electronic devices include, but are not limited to, cellular phones, smart watches, recording devices, beepers, pagers, cameras, or portable media players. You are not permitted to use any type of headphones or ear buds. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, and numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices anywhere at any test site, whether in the testing area, restroom, hallway, or other location, at any time before, during or after the test or Protest Review Session, your test score will be nullified, you will be disqualified from taking any civil service tests for up to five years, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of a Computer-based Testing & Application Center while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, City or State issued identification card, IDNYC, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or Student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

CHANGE OF MAILING ADDRESS, EMAIL ADDRESS, AND/OR TELEPHONE NUMBER:

It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address, email address and/or phone number. If we do not have your correct mailing address, email address and/or phone number, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. If you need to update your Mailing Address, Email Address, and/or Telephone Number, read below:

- City Employees - update this information in NYCAPS Employee Self-Service (ESS) at www.nyc.gov/ess
- All Others - update this information on your Profile page in the Online Application System (OASys) by logging into your OASys account and navigating to your Dashboard, then your Profile tab at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs
- Submit a written request by email at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov, by fax (646) 500-7190, or by regular mail: DCAS, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Your written request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address, and/or new telephone number.

CHANGE OF NAME AND/OR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER:

Use the Data Correction Form and follow all instructions for changing your name and/or social security number with DCAS. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: <https://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dcas/downloads/pdf/employment/dp148a.pdf>.

THE TEST RESULTS:

If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list, you will be given a list number and you will be notified by email of your test results. The eligible list determines the order by which candidates will be considered for promotion. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion if your name is reached on the eligible list. Once a list has been established, it will typically remain active for four years. To learn more about the civil service system go to: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/employment/civil-service-system.page>.

If you believe that your test part was rated incorrectly, you may submit an appeal of your score to DCAS, Committee on Manifest Errors, through the Online Application System (OASys). Your appeal must give specific reasons why your score should be higher. Your appeal may result in a higher or lower rating.

To access the appeal portal of OASys, please log into your OASys account at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs and use the following steps:

1. Navigate to the Dashboard for the Appeals tab.
2. Click the NEW APPEAL button to create and submit your appeal.
3. Select the exam from the Exam drop-down list, and
4. Select the exam part from the Exam Part drop-down list.
5. Select the reason for your appeal from the Appeal Reason drop-down list (if applicable).
6. Enter the details of your appeal by providing specific reasons why your score should be higher.

Note: You may attach up to 5 documents to support your appeal by using the attachment functionality.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Late Filing:

Consult your agency's personnel office to determine the procedure for filing a late application if you meet one or more of the following conditions:

1. You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
2. You become eligible after the above application period closed but before the date on which testing is expected to begin

Make-up Test:

You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test on the regular test date(s) for any of the following reasons:

1. compulsory attendance before a public body;
2. on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
3. absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
4. absence due to ordered military duty;
5. a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible; or
6. a temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, contact Administration, Customer, and Exam Support by mail at 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, or by email at testingaccommodations@dcas.nyc.gov, as soon as possible, and include documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Selective Certification for Certification:

If you have the certification(s) listed below, you may be considered for promotion to positions requiring this certification through a process called Selective Certification. If you qualify for Selective Certification, you may be given preferred consideration for positions requiring this certification. If you wish to apply for Selective Certification, follow the instructions given to you on the day of the multiple-choice test to indicate your interest in such Selective Certification. Your certification(s) will be checked by the promoting agency at the time of promotion.

Selective Certification for Emergency Medical Technician - Basic (EMT-B) Certification (EMB): Possession of a valid New York State Department of Health Emergency Medical Technician - Basic (EMT-B) certificate, if this is the only certificate you have.

Selective Certification for Advanced Emergency Medical Technician - Paramedic (AEMT-P) Certification (EMT): Possession of a valid New York State Department of Health Advanced Emergency Medical Technician - Paramedic (AEMT-P) certificate.

The above Selective Certification requirements may be met at any time during the duration of the list. If you meet the Selective Certification requirements at some future date, please submit a request by email to: LMACustomerService@dcas.nyc.gov, or by mail to: DCAS Bureau of Examinations - Exam Development Group, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Please include the examination title and number, your full name, OASys Profile ID number, and the Selective Certification(s) you are requesting in your correspondence.

Application Receipt:

You will be emailed a receipt immediately after you have applied for the examination. If you do not receive this receipt, check "Junk", "Trash", or "Spam" folders for the primary email linked to your Online Application System (OASys) account. If you are unable to locate the email, you can view a summary of the notification email to you on your OASys Dashboard, under the Notifications tab. If you are still unable to find the email, please email DCAS via the Contact feature available in OASys with a description of the issue and include the exam number and your profile number located on your Profile page. While on your Profile page, check that the email addresses you provided are correct and/or updated.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION:

Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted at nyc.gov/dcas and copies are available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Application Centers.
