THE TEST:

You will be given an Education and Experience Exam. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. On the Education and Experience Exam, you will receive a score of 70 points for meeting the eligibility requirements listed above. After these requirements are met, you will receive additional credit up to a maximum of 100 points on the following basis:

If you have full-time satisfactory experience with the City of New York as a permanent (not provisional) employee in a health promotion or disease intervention/prevention program performing one or more of the following: interviewing or screening patients, conducting field investigations, assessing health risks, making referrals, or consulting with medical professionals or case managers regarding client cases or records for:

5 or more years	30 points

If you have full-time satisfactory experience with an employer other than the City of New York in a health promotion or disease intervention/prevention program performing one or more of the following: interviewing or screening patients, conducting field investigations, assessing health risks, making referrals, or consulting with medical professionals or case managers regarding client cases or records for:

You will receive up to:

At least 1 year but less than 2 years	4 points
At least 2 years but less than 3 years	8 points
At least 3 years but less than 4 years	12 points
At least 4 years but less than 5 years	16 points
5 or more years	20 points

You will receive a maximum of one year of experience credit for each year you worked. Experience must be obtained by the last day of the Application Period (October 29, 2024).

During the Education and Experience Exam (EEE), you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

(number of hours worked per week/35) x (number of months worked)

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation: $21/35 \times 12 = 7.2$ months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (October 29, 2024) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys).
