STATEMENT FROM NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF INVESTIGATION

The DOI Commissioner notified City Hall about the structural changes regarding oversight of the schools in February and City Hall raised no concerns or objections. DOI Commissioner Mark Peters and his staff continue to be focused on the present and real work of fighting corruption, fraud, waste and abuse and remain undeterred from that mission.

DOI is one of the oldest law-enforcement agencies in the country and New York City's corruption watchdog. Investigations may involve any agency, officer, elected official or employee of the City, as well as those who do business with or receive benefits from the City. DOI's strategy attacks corruption comprehensively through systemic investigations that lead to high-impact arrests, preventive internal controls and operational reforms that improve the way the City runs.
